PENDLETON PEOPLE MAY HEAR FOLK

SPECIAL TRAIN MAY CARRY THEM TO CHAUTAUQUA

Efforts Being Made to Organize Party to go to La Grande to Hear Address of Former Governor of Missouri—Strong Program Arranged.

Square Entertainers and H. V. Adams, the lecturer.
One of the big days of the assembly will be Patriotic Day on July Fourth. The orator of the day will be Judge Stephen A. Lowell of this city who is referred to in the chautauqua program as "one of the most finished orators of the entire West." The program announcement goes on to say that "his splendid oratory, coupled with clear thought and intense reasoning makes him a delightful entertainer." Another feature of patriotic day will be a reproduction of the famous continental congress of 1776.

Efforts are being made by local people to secure a special train to La Grande, the afternoon of Thursday, July 7, to take over those who wish to hear Joseph W. Folk, former governor of Missouri, who is to speak at the Chautauqua in that city, that evening. The lecture is to begin at 8 o'clock in the evening and the regular evening trains will arrive there too late.
It is generally recognized that Folk ranks with Roosevelt and Bryan as among the great national characters of the day and there are scores of people in this city and country who are anxious to hear him speak. Many believe that he will be the next democratic candidate for president. His career has been wonderful in the eyes of the world.
In addition to the train which will probably be run from Pendleton, one will come west from Baker City and another will probably come into La Grande from the Wallowa valley.
The first assembly of the Grande Ronde Chautauqua association will be held in Riverside Park, La Grande, July 3 to 13 and several local people are planning to go over for the entire ten days. Ideal camp grounds have been provided and many eastern Oregon families are planning to take their summer outing at the chautauqua.
A strong list of entertainers has been secured, including Dr. William S. Sadler's Chautauqua company, Davidson Buchanan, the noted lecturer, traveler and divine, Edward Brush, magician illusionist, humorist, inventor, manipulator, ventriloquist and all-round entertainer. The Castle

CHARGED VOTERS WERE INTIMIDATED

MORE TROUBLE IN SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 67

Recent Election is Contested by Losing Faction—Alleged Men Appeared at Polls Armed—No. 67 Black Sheep of All Districts.

Nothing less serious than intimidation of voters is charged as a result of the recent school election in School District No. 67, according to the records on file in the office of County School Superintendent Welles. This district seems to be the black sheep of the county for the reason that every election and every meeting held there during the past several months has resulted in grief for the school superintendent and the district boundary board. There are more records—concerning troubles in this district—on file in the office of the county superintendent than concerning any other twelve districts in the county.
The recent election was to decide whether or not district No. 67 should be consolidated with No. 12. Those favorable to the proposition seem to have been successful. C. W. Garred who was chairman of the meeting and who opposed the consolidation, complains that the proponents made a display of force, intimidated voters and kept several from voting at all. He says Frank Sample flourished a knife and used profane language, that Harry Huber whittled rather nervously during the meeting and that a Mr. Kelley was said to have been armed with a gun.
The chairman ruled that Kelley was not entitled to a vote but that individual deposited his ballot notwithstanding the ruling of the chair.

Bulls for Klamath Indians.
Dr. S. W. McClure, chief of the bureau of animal industry in the northwest, has been notified that the government is advertising for bids for the purchase of 100 two-year-old bulls for the Klamath Indians. Hereford and short horns are wanted.

New Refrigerator Counter.
The Pendleton Cash meat market has just installed a new sanitary refrigerator show counter. Besides keeping the meat cool, it is also fly, dirt and squaw proof and conforms with the requirements of the state food inspector.

To Build New School House.
County School Superintendent Welles has been notified by the clerk of school district No. 87, that a special tax has been voted to build a new school house and make other improvements. This district is a few miles east of Pilot Rock, being known as the Red school house district.

Haaga Funeral Today.
The remains of Joseph Haaga who died Sunday morning, were interred in Olney cemetery this afternoon. Funeral services were conducted at the undertaking parlors of Ralph Folsom, by Father Durgan of St. Mary's church.

Nelson-Watrus.
Wallace Nelson, section foreman for the O. R. & N. at Biggs, and Miss Clara Watrus of Pomeroy, Wash., were married Monday evening at the home of the brides sister, Mrs. E. J. Murphy in Athena. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Stockton, pastor of the Baptist church.

McNabb Has New Auto.
Dr. D. C. McNabb, who had the misfortune to lose an automobile by fire a few days ago, is now riding around in a new car. It is an Oakland-30, similar to the one purchased recently by H. H. Wessel. It is a bright red, smooth running machine and more powerful than the one he lost.

Station at Attalla Robbed.
The Northern Pacific railway station at Attalla was robbed last night according to word brought in by members of the train crew. The cash drawer was rifled and mail bags cut open, but it is believed that the robbers got little or nothing for their pains. Attalla is a small station on the Northern Pacific, about three miles north of Wallula. Tramps are believed to have been the ones who committed the deed.

Horse Thief Makes Trade.
The man who rode the horse away from the Carney & Bradley stables Saturday noon and forgot to return, went from Pendleton to Umatilla. This much has been learned by the officers. Sheriff Taylor has also learned that the fellow made a trade somewhere between this city and Umatilla for the reason that when he rode into the Columbia river town early Sunday morning he was mounted on a sorrel horse. This horse, together with the saddle and bridle taken from the local stable, is now in the Umatilla stable, while the thief took one of the morning trains out of that town that day.

Womens League Will Meet.
There will be a meeting of members and others interested in the American Women's league in the council room, city hall, Wednesday at 2:30 p. m., to hear the report of one of the delegates to the national convention of the league held at St. Louis. Mrs. Crayne will also be pleased to answer questions regarding the league's plan and its educational and beneficiary work. Prominent league members from Walla Walla will also be present. A full attendance is desired. The Founder's Chapter is fast reaching its 100,000 mark. Pendleton should secure its share of the remaining vacancies. The local chapter hopes soon to secure the required number of members to entitle it to its chapter house to be erected by the league.

Dance Will Be Big Affair.
The "shirt-waist ball," which is to be given by the officers and members of the Women's Civic club in the Eagle-Woodman hall, Thursday evening, promises to be one of the big events of the season. The affair is for the benefit of the summer concert fund and for that reason all citizens are taking an interest in the affair. Everyone who has the interest of the city at heart is urged to attend the dance. It will be an informal affair and full dress suits are to be tabooed. The men are supposed to wear shirt waists if they feel like it, and the women are supposed to dress so that they may dance and yet be comfortable, if the evening should be warm.
