

HEAVY LOSSES BY SHIPPERS IS SHOWN

BUYERS ARE BEARISH; RESULT IS EVIDENT

Many Thousands of Dollars Lost by Recent Shipments to the Yards—Market Is Almost Stagnant, Portland Union Stockyards, North

Portland, Ore., July 1.—Buyers say that the cattle market is improved. Shippers say there is practically no demand.

Prominent shippers are disgusted with the way buyers have laid down in the cattle market recently. The big concerns have filled up with cheap priced stuff, and are said to be in a position where they can hereafter regulate the market themselves.

Today's run of cattle was very small, and consisted of but 43 head. Cows form the principal arrivals in this line, and four loads went this morning at $3.75. It is stated that cows of this same quality sold yesterday down to $3.50.

Hogs are firm with $10 still being paid for supplies in the yards. Today's run of hogs amounted to 147 head; about a car and a half.

No sheep came forward today, but the yards are still full of supplies that were received some days ago.

Because of their inability to sell their supplies, which must be carried over and fed from day to day, shippers to the local market at this time are losing considerable money. Hay is $30 a ton, is rather scarce, and an expensive luxury to shippers at this time, they say especially when they are selling the stock for 1-4@1-2c a pound less than they paid farmers.

The yards are crowded with hold-over cattle and sheep, and therefore the losses to shippers will amount to many thousands of dollars. One shipper alone is said to have lost about $1500 on his late venture.

Among the Shippers. Mr. Gasner shipped 109 head of cows by boat to the yards today.

B. S. Norwood had a mixed load of cattle, calves and hogs on today's market.

D. E. Edward shipped a load of cattle and calves from Drain.

Today's run of livestock compares with this day in recent years as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Livestock Type and Quantity. Includes Hogs, Cattle, Sheep, etc.

A year ago today there was a weak tone in cattle but hogs and sheep of quality were steady.

Terrible Suffering

Eczema All Over Baby's Body. "When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Barling, Maine.

EXCITING RUNAWAY IN ATHENA STREETS

DR. LAZIER OF WESTON HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Horse Becomes Unmanageable and Dashes Madly Through Streets—Bob Beckham Proves Hero of Occasion—Clarence Brotherton Kicked in Face.

(Special Correspondence.) Athena, Ore., July 1.—An exciting runaway occurred here yesterday evening and Dr. Lazier of Weston, was the man unfortunate enough to be in the rig. Dr. Lazier was just coming into town driving a single horse when the shafts came down thus causing the animal to get frightened and start on the dead run through Main street. Dr. Lazier was unable to control the frightened horse and by the way the rig came down the street it looked as though they would end up in some plate glass window for the horse was zig-zagging across the street and almost ran upon the sidewalk several times. Bob Beckham who was walking down the street was hero enough to grab the horse's bridle and succeeded in stopping the runaway. Mr. Lazier escaped without an injury outside of a nervous shock.

Clarence Brotherton, son of Charles Brotherton, a prominent wheat grower of this vicinity, met with a very unfortunate accident yesterday morning. He was doctoring a young colt and the animal kicked him in the face smashing his nose and bruising his face up in general. The nose was set and the young man is progressing very well under the circumstances.
