Off For Wenaha Springs.

A party consisting of Darr Pheleps, William Schwandt and brother, and Joseph Ell, will leave by auto tonight for Wenaha springs where they will spend Sunday and the fourth.

Leave for Germany.

C. H. Rosenberg and daughter, Miss Bertha Rosenberg and Claus Zander, leave today for an extended visit to their former home in Germany. They expect to be gone several months.

Auto Party to Baker.

L. C. Rothrock and family accompanied by Mrs. William Roesch, Jr., H. C. Rothrock and family accompanied by Mrs. Joseph Bailey and A. B. Rothrock and family leave tomorrow by autos for Baker City, where they will participate in the big celebration in that city.

Moving to Portland.

Lester Swaggart and family left today on the noon train for Portland where they expect to reside in future. Swaggart recently traded his large farm interests near this city for $40,000 worth of property on the corner of 25th and Glisan streets in Portland.

Boy Breaks Arm.

Harold Bristol, the eight-year-old grandson of Mrs. H. D. Wylie, had the misfortune to break both bones of the right wrist last evening, when he fell from a shed in the rear of the Wylie home at 409 Garfield street. The boy and his mother arrived a few days ago from their home in the valley to attend the funeral of Mr. Wylie.

Lumber Yard Manager Resigns.

J. A. Smith, who has been manager of the Crab Creek lumber yard in this city for the past few months, has resigned his position with that company. He will remain in Pendleton for two or three weeks, after which he is not yet certain what he will do, as he has two or three different projects in mind. George B. Parks of Moscow, Idaho, will have charge of the local yards and is now here to take up the work.

Will Talk to Indians.

Upon invitation of Chief No Shirt of the Umatilla, a party from the Presbyterian mission on the reservation will be at Cayuse station tomorrow afternoon to talk to the Indians that are assembled there. Those who will go are Rev. J. M. Cornellison, missionary upon the reservation, Rev. James Dickson, the Indian minister; J. R. Knowell, representative of the anti-saloon league, and others. In extending the invitation to talk to those at the camp No Shirt urged that the speakers particularly urge the Indians not to drink liquor.

Fine Lecture Course.

Superintendent Landers of the public schools who has been instrumental in bringing to this city in the last few years some of the most prominent lecturers in the country as well as some very high class troupes of entertainers, announces that the list of attractions for the coming winter has been made out. A glance at them will show that Mr. Landers has been very fortunate in his selection. The following is the list and the order in which they will appear in Pendleton.

Judge Ben B. Lindsay of Denver.
Ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri.
W. L. Hubbard's Entertainers.
The Dunbar Bell Ringers.
Mr. and Mrs. Houstons.
Montavilla Flowers.

Eugene Woman Suicides.

Eugene, Ore., July 2.—Mrs. Fannie Geboe, a domestic, aged about 40 employed at the home of A. H. Hinkson, between Eugene and Springfield, committed suicide Thursday afternoon by taking strychnine. The act was committed some time during the afternoon, the family finding her body in her room when they returned from Eugene at 6 o'clock. She left a note as follows:
"Bury me as I am. I have nothing more to live for."
She bought the poison at a Springfield drug store Thursday morning, stating she wanted it to kill squirrels. The Hinkson family knows no cause for the suicide and knew little of her. She left an addressed letter to Fred Geboe at some point in Idaho. It is not known whether this is her husband or brother.

Railway Congress.

Berne, Switzerland, July 2.—Railway men of all nations, including representatives of all the leading systems of the United States and Canada are in Berne today to take part in the eighth session of the International Railway congress, beginning next week.

WESTON REFUSES TO PLAY PENDLETON

HEAVY FROST AFFECTS MOUNTAINEERS' FEET

Winners of Blue Mountain League Pennant Refuse to Play Last Game of Schedule—Pendleton Boys Are Wrathful.

Deep wrath is smoldering in the hearts of Pendleton fannom and the very mention of the name "Weston" serves as a bellows to quicken it into a livid flame. The grievance which had had this effect, as may be guessed, is no ordinary one. It is not that the Mountaineers have won possession of the championship, although several pangs of real regret were experienced on that account. But when it became apparent to all that the triangular rag must inevitably unfurl itself in Weston atmosphere, the Pendleton players and followers of the game resigned themselves to the occupancy of the second rung on the ladder, but still cherished one ambition, the gratification of which would serve as a soothing balm to assuage the pain of other blasted hopes. The last game of the season was with the championship aggregation, and the local boys had absolute confidence in their ability to win that game and in that event the series of five between the two rivals. The contest was scheduled for tomorrow and was to be pulled off in the camp of the enemy. However on Thursday it became noised about that Weston had refused to play the last game and Manager Frazier confirmed this report. It seems that the manager of the Colts growing insistent, he submitted the ultimatum that the Colts could come on and they would get a bunch of school boys together to meet them, but as the Colts are not covetous of school boys' scalps, there will be no game to determine which is the better bunch, team to team.

Therefore does wrath abide in the hearts of the Pendleton fannom and bitter is the condemnation which they heap upon the heads of the Westons. They not only accuse the latter with an attack of the pedallian chill, but openly declare the calibre of their faculty of common courtesy is a minus number. In other words, they brand the Mountaineers as "poor sports," which is the most contemptuous characterization in the vernacular of modern fannom. As one member of the team put it, "We hear of poor losers every day, but it is seldom we encounter a poor winner. Weston, however, is an exemplification of the latter and can carry off the pennant in that class any day."

Certainly the action of the Weston club is open to criticism. The least that can be said is that the laurel wreath does not set gracefully over their collective brow.

Dear friend:
Don't you think nice catsup makes your meat taste lots better? I do. But the catsup must be good. I think that the kind Clark keeps is the very best kind of catsup. It is made out of pure vegetables and helps your digestion.

Mr. Clark also keeps all kinds of good lunch goods for picnics and lunches.
