VICTORY OF JACK JOHNSON IS SIGNAL FOR WAR OF RACES

MANY RIOTS FOLLOW THE WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP BATTLE

MANY ARE KILLED AND MORE ARE INJURED

Negroes and Whites All Over Country At War as Result of Fight at Reno.

Several Thousand Negroes and Whites Riot in Washington—Whites Dragged from Their Homes and Beaten by Drunken Blacks—Revolvers and Knives in Action in South—Police Have Difficulty in Controlling Situations—More Rioting Predicted.

Washington, July 5.—Rioting in which several thousand whites and negroes participated continued throughout the night. Every available police is on duty today and possibly federal troops will be called out to restore order in the national capital, on account of the outcome of the Reno fight. Fighting was continuous along Pennsylvania avenue to the White House. Negroes are wild with enthusiasm. Several white men were dragged from their homes and beaten. Three negroes entered the home of white women, dragged them from their beds, tore their clothing and beat them on the street before a crowd of blacks. Two white men were stabbed by negroes and are dying. Two hundred blacks and 20 whites have been jailed. Further trouble is predicted. The blacks are drunk.

four negroes to shoot up the town. A negro constable was reminded of Jack Johnson's victory at Reno when he attempted to place them under arrest.

Three Negroes Killed.
Augusta, Ga., July 5.—Resulting in the killing of three negroes, Uvalde, a small town of South Georgia was the scene late yesterday afternoon of a race riot which may result in further fatalities. So far no whites have been injured.

Three Negroes Injured.
Houston, Tex., July 5.—Disturbances broke out last night on the announcement of Johnson's victory at Reno. Three negroes were badly hurt by white men inside of an hour. Police were called to quell several minor disturbances.

Trouble in St. Louis.
St. Louis, July 5.—Rioting in a negro section of St. Louis, Market street and Jefferson avenue, followed quickly upon the announcement that Jack Johnson was the victor in the Reno prize fight. The eighth district police responded to a riot call, but were powerless to cope with the negroes who were blocking traffic and making threats. A second call to the central district brought out a score of policemen. The negroes were clubbed into submission and dispersed.

Three Riot Calls.
Pittsburg, Pa., July 5.—Less than half an hour after the decision of the fight was announced here, three riot calls were sent into two police precincts in the Negro Hill quarters. Street cars were held up and insulting epithets were hurled at the passengers. The police beat the crowds back with their clubs to permit the passage of the cars.

Minor Disturbances.
Fort Worth, Tex., July 5.—Minor disturbances between whites and blacks broke out here following the announcement of Johnson's victory over Jeffries yesterday afternoon. The most serious attack was made by two negroes with beer bottles on a white woman.

Shot by Negro.
Little Rock, Ark., July 5.—Lee Roberts, an Iron Mountain passenger train conductor, was shot and wounded during a fight on his train between three white men and some negroes yesterday immediately following the result of the Reno fight.

Two Whites Stabbed.
Pueblo, Colo., July 5.—Max Irwin and J. H. Moore, two white men, were stabbed in the back last night in a riot between whites and blacks in Bessemer city park.

Lynching Threatened.
Charleston, Mo., July 5.—A third lynching within 24 hours was threatened here yesterday afternoon when an unknown negro was caught by a crowd of whites, after he is said to have used rough language in addressing a white woman. The negro's captors investigated his case and decided his offense did not justify another lynching and he was allowed to go.

Trouble in Los Angeles.
Los Angeles, July 5.—Riot calls were numerous in this James J. Jeffries' home town between 4:30 yesterday afternoon and midnight, all of them due to what occurred at Reno. Flushed with small cash winnings, several negroes sallied forth, filled themselves with liquor and looked for trouble. Eight men, three white and five colored, had minor injuries attended to at the receiving hospital.

Rioting at Atlanta.
Atlanta, Ga., July 5.—Rioting started here soon after the results of the fight became known. Many negroes were chased by the crowd.

One Killed.
Mounds, Ill., July 5.—One man was killed and one mortally wounded last night following an attempt by Augusta, Ga., July 5.—Three negroes were killed here. There are race riots throughout the state.

RUSSIA AND JAPAN MAKE A TREATY

Tokyo, July 5.—It was made public today that the Russo-Japanese treaty was signed at St. Petersburg yesterday. The terms are withheld. A cable from Vladivostok today says the new agreement relates chiefly to territorial integrity. It also recognizes the right of the countries to keep armaments in Asia. It is expected the text of the treaty will be given out July 10th. It is understood it also provides for the extradition of criminals from territory ruled by the two powers. It will probably strengthen Japan's position in the Orient and assist materially her plans to gain a stronger foothold in Manchuria.

Mounds, Ill., July 5.—Negroes killed a constable who attempted to arrest drunken rioters here. There is rioting throughout the south, and it is believed the reports will show many killed.

Wilmington, July 5.—The whites here attempted wholesale lynchings and hundreds were injured in the riots.

New Orleans, July 5.—Riots occurred before the bulletin boards. Revolvers and knives were fatally used.

St. Louis, July 5.—The whites here attacked the negroes.

Cincinnati, July 5.—Negroes were taken from their homes here and beaten by whites.

New York, July 5.—One negro was (Continued on page 8.)

RIOTS ARE BREAKING OUT IN RUSSIA

St. Petersburg, July 5.—Riots are breaking out throughout southwestern Russia owing to the sanitary laws. Cholera prevails in many localities and the authorities are trying to prevent its spread. The peasants believe the visits of the pestilence are due to the anger of God, so they will not try to escape. The plague is gaining rapid headway. The peasants also fear the sick persons will be ill-treated by officials and they will do anything to hide the ill from the doctors. Hundreds of these are already dead of the plague and more are rapidly joining the ranks of the stricken.

MONSTER OF DEEP SEA TERRIFIES FISHERMEN

Belfast.—A remarkable fish story comes from County Cavan. Two anglers resting leisurely in a small boat near the mouth of the River Finn saw an enormous fish approaching them from the Lough. They could see its back above the water as it plowed along the surface, raising great waves on each side. They quickly pulled their boat aside, but the fish gave chase, and was quickly alongside, plunging on the surface at a furious rate. It appeared to be fully 10 feet long, with a proportionate girth and a very large head. It scooped beyond measure the men Francis and Philip McDonagh—who shot into a weedy place, whence they watched the monster dash up the river to a small deep lake, where it disappeared from their view. The brothers say it was unlike in size and shape any fish they ever saw.

BALLINGER AND TAFT MEET IN CONFERENCE

Secretary of Interior DENIES HE WILL RESIGN. Declares He Has Never Been a Quitter—Says Conference Is to Reorganize Reclamation Service—Director Nowell May Lose Head.

Beverly, July 5.—"I have never been a quitter and I haven't brought my resignation with me," said Secretary Ballinger today when he arrived to confer with Taft, who summoned him. Ballinger said he has not any intention of resigning. He said he came to discuss a plan to reorganize the land office and reclamation service with Taft. The conference began this afternoon.

Ballinger lunched with Taft previous to the conference. It is understood the fate of Director Nowell of the reclamation service will be decided. Ballinger has already said before the investigating committee that he believed Nowell is not the man for the job. The secretary claims the service is demoralized as a result of the unrest caused by reports that changes are imminent. The secretary will return to Washington tonight. Taft played golf this morning.

PARISIENNES' HAT IS CAUSE OF ACCIDENT

Paris.—A large hat worn by a Parisienne was the cause of a serious accident this week. The woman was crossing the road when the ribbons were caught by a spike projecting from a cart. Not only her hat, but also her false hair, were violently wrenched from her head and she was thrown to the ground. She was terribly shaken and is suffering from bruises and internal injury.

COUNTY DIVISION COMMITTEE WILL MAKE REPORT TONIGHT

At the regular monthly meeting of the Commercial club to be held this evening the long deferred report of the committee on county division will be submitted and will be up for action at the hands of the association. The report will be presented by Col. J. H. Raley, chairman of the committee. Owing to the importance of the subject that will constitute the chief business this evening it is desired to have a representative attendance and

TWENTY-ONE PERISH IN GREAT WRECK

Passengers and Freight ON C. H. & D. COLLIDE. Misunderstanding of Orders Results in Frightful Disaster—Twentieth Century Limited Crashes Into Freight at High Speed.

Middleton, Ohio, July 5.—With the recovery of the body of an unidentified man from the wreckage of the Twentieth Century Limited today the total of deaths reaches 21. Many more are believed to be dead in the wreckage. Thirty injured are being cared for in hospitals and hotels. Practically all of the dead are Ohioans. Coroner Burnett and the grand jury are investigating the wreck.

The trains were the Cincinnati section of the Twentieth Century Limited on the Big Four and the second section of a freight train on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton. The freight was attempting to make a siding to give the passenger train a clear track, when the limited traveling 50 miles an hour, flashed around a curve and crashed into it. The Big Four train had been derailed to avoid a track blockade by a freight wreck earlier in the day. A misunderstanding of orders caused the disaster.

The engine crews had time, and all jumped and escaped. All the dead and injured were in the first two cars, the smoker and the day coach. Every seat in the coach was torn from its fastenings. The roof was thrown to one side and massive timbers from a freight car hurled with high force, struck among the men and women in the coach. Even before the crash came, rescuers were running to the wreck from the Middleton station. It is likely that a separate investigation will be made by the state railroad commission.

JOHNSON WAS MASTER OF FIGHT FROM FIRST GONG

JEFF NEVER HAD A CHANCE TO WIN

Big Negro Outclassed Giant Whiteman in every Department of Fight.

Jeff Admits Black Man's Superiority—Says He Trained Hard But Could Not Come Back—Jeff Knocked Down Several Times in Fatal 15th—His Seconds Throw Up Sponge to Prevent a Knockout—Johnson Proves Himself a Wonderful Fighter—Is Now on Way East.

By James J. Jeffries.

Reno, July 5.—"I entered the ring in the best shape I could possibly put myself. I felt confident I had trained as faithfully as any man could. The people demanded my return to the ring after a long retirement and I went through a long siege before I announced I would fight. I thought I could regain my old time form. Johnson is a great fighter. People cannot imagine how clever he is and he fought fairly. I didn't have the strength and speed I thought I had. I wasn't knocked out completely but was all in. It did not matter when the fight ended, I was exhausted."

He was feeling what he had caused others to feel in the days of his youth and power.

Corbett Intervenes.

Johnson came over to the spot and stood poised over his adversary, his body ready for a left hook if Jeffries regained his feet. Jim Corbett, who twice had gone down before Jeffries' blows, and who had stood in Jeffries' corner all during this fight, telling Johnson what a fool he was and how he was in for the beating of his life, now ran forward with outstretched arms, crying: "O, don't Jack, don't hit him." Jeffries painfully raised himself to his feet. His jaw had dropped, his eyes were nearly shut and his face was covered with blood. With trembling legs and shielding arms he tried to put up a defense, but he could not stop a terrific right smash in the jaw followed by two left hooks. He went down again. Jeffries' physician and other friends jumped into the ring.

Jeffries Groans.

"Stop it!" they cried. "Don't put the old fellow out!" Sam Berger, Jeffries' manager, ran along the ring, called to Bob Armstrong, "Bring that towel—you know what I mean—don't let him get hit." From Johnson's corner his seconds were calling to him to quit. Then the referee stopped the time-keeper, and it was all over.

Jim Corbett is practically the only man in Jeff's camp who takes an "I told you so" attitude. But he is consistent as several days ago he called the turn by saying Jeff did not box enough. This was fittingly illustrated when Johnson began beating him up after the fourth round. Jeff's judgment for distance was woefully weak.

Sport writers are almost unanimous in declaring Johnson outclassed his white opponent, but that Jeff's age and six years of idleness had much to do with the defeat. The fact that Jeff got a closed eye in the second round had much to do as both lids were swollen which made him practically blind.

Fight on the Square.

Reno, July 5.—Governor Dickinson declared today the fighting game is not dead in Nevada, and said: "Nevadans are proud of the liberties enjoyed. I expect considerable agitation against boxing contests between this and the convaling legislature. I believe the conviction is state-wide that yesterday's contest was on the level and that the best man won. I don't anticipate a repeal law which permits limited round contests." The governor saw the fight.

What the Fighters Get.

Reno, July 5.—When the last gate money is counted it is believed that Johnson's share will be only $36 more than the sum received by Jeff. Rickard and Gleason will split approximately $150,000, exclusive of the moving picture money. Johnson gets $20,000 share of the purse, $50,000 for pictures and a $10,000 bonus. Jeff gets a $40,000 purse, a $10,000 bonus and $25,000 for moving pictures.

Burns Is Blamed.

Melbourne, July 5.—The outcome of the fight was not expected here. The blame for Jeffries' defeat is laid to Burns who lowered the barriers and fought Johnson for gain, with the championship as the stake. It is hoped this fight will result in the separating of the white and black championships and stop the races fighting.

Pickpockets Ply Trade.

Reno, July 5.—Pickpockets made a rich harvest. It is estimated 1000 were operating in this city previous to the fight. The city jail holds many known and suspected. When the fight started 150 were under guard and suspected.

Hold "Dry" Election.

Everett, Wash., July 5.—Shoshone county outside of this city will probably go "dry" as a result of today's local option election. A movement has been started to extend the "aridity" to this city at an early date.
