CLEARANCE here means a complete closing out of many lines of seasonable goods. Emptying shelves, clearing tables of summer merchandise. No half-hearted or half way measures are permitted at this store.

We are going to clear out our stocks no matter how great a sacrifice is necessary. The price drop is deep and decisive—imperative and urgent. The backward spring caused the stocks and assortments to be much larger than they should be at this time. Hence prices are cut lower than usual to quickly clear away the stocks.

All who value thrift and appreciate economy will welcome these matchless savings on needed and seasonable goods. Don't fail to attend this sale and judge for yourself how truly extraordinary these values are.

Our sole purpose is clearance. The goods must go. We have made prices on them that will make them sell.

Read all the items. They point the way to the greatest savings you ever had the opportunity of sharing in. Early shopping is advised. The first choice is always the best.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

White Mountain Cake.
 Three cups of sugar, one cup of butter, one-half cup of sweet milk, whites of ten eggs, one teaspoonful of baking powder sifted with the flour.

No-Egg Gingerbread.
 One cup molasses, two tablespoons sugar, two good tablespoons lard or butter, one teaspoon soda. Beat well a little ginger, cinnamon, salt and tablespoon vinegar, one cup cold water. Flour to thicken.

Prune Charlotte.
 Stew 1 1/2 pounds of prunes, pit them and sweeten with a cupful of sugar. Line a well-buttered pudding dish with strips of bread and butter or buttered toast. Pour in the prunes and flavor with a teaspoonful of vanilla. Cover with bread and butter strips and bake in a moderate oven until lightly browned. When done turn out, sift sugar over it and serve with cream.

Soft Carmels.
 For one pound of brown sugar allow one cupful of milk, a tablespoonful and a half of butter and half a cake grated chocolate. Cook nine minutes, take from the fire and stir steadily five minutes, but not until too stiff to pour. Turn into a buttered pan and mark in squares. This candy will be crumbly and rich.

Green Tomato Pie.
 Line a plate with nice crust, fill with peeled and sliced green tomatoes, add half a cup of sugar, one tablespoon of butter cut into bits, four tablespoons of vinegar and sprinkle with cinnamon or nutmeg. Cover with a top crust and bake slowly.

Quick Sponge Cake.
 Beat three eggs without separating the whites and yolks; beat in one cup and a half of sugar and half a cup of milk, alternately, with two cups of sifted flour, sifted again with half a teaspoonful of salt and two level teaspoonfuls of baking powder.

Creamed Mam With Cheese.
 Melt one and one-half tablespoons of butter, blend in an equal quantity of flour, add slowly one and one-half cups of milk, stir until smooth, season with a dash of cayenne, add one cup of finely chopped, cooked ham and four tablespoons of grated cheese, stir until the cheese melts, spread on slices of toasted bread and serve at once.

Pickled Onions.
 After peeling the onions throw them at once into boiling vinegar, of which a quart is to be allowed to a quart of onions. In this vinegar there should previously have been boiled two teaspoonfuls of salt and an ounce of pepper in the kernel. Boil the onions about five minutes, put into glass jars and when cold cover or seal till wanted for use.

Baker Tomatoes.
 Butter a dish and sprinkle with fine, dry crumbs; cover with slices of ripe tomatoes, which you have peeled by plunging into boiling water; season with pepper, salt and a scant half teaspoonful of sugar; cover thickly with bread crumbs and scatter two tablespoonfuls of minced salt pork or ham over; repeat this until the dish is two-thirds full. Have the top layers of crumbs. Cover with an inverted dish and bake half an hour; remove the cover and brown. If you have no ham or pork use a sill of nice gravy.

Boiled Tomatoes.
 Plunge them whole, with the skins on, into a pot of salted boiling water, letting them lie easily side by side, but not piled on top of each other. Try them with a sharp steel work; they will betender and ready for the table in eight to fifteen minutes. You must choose firm and not over ripe tomatoes for this dish. Lift them out with a colander dipper into individual dishes like oatmeal saucers; cut a Greek cross on the top and lay a bit of butter in this gash; season with salt, pepper and a trifle of sugar. A slice of toast laid in the bottom of the dish is nice and if you are fond of butter don't be afraid of using it lavishly. A rasher of ham or bacon with these makes another appetizing breakfast.

Stuffed Peppers.
 Select large, bell-shaped peppers, remove and save the top with the stem and take out all the seeds. Stand the peppers upright in a large bowl, put a teaspoonful of salt in each and cover with cold water and allow to stand for twenty-four hours. The filling consists of two quarts of finely chopped cabbage, a half cupful of grated horseradish, a quarter pound of white mustard seed, three tablespoonfuls of celery seed and two tablespoonfuls of salt. Put the mixture into the pepper, leaving room at the top of each for a small onion, and a very small cucumber, tie the tops securely, put them in a jar and cover with cold vinegar.

TELLS LORD OF FAULTS OF MAN; LATTER SUES

Springfield, Ill.—Rev. R. B. Fisher, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Neoga, Ill., has been made defendant in a $5000 libel suit following his refusal to tell the Lord that he had wronged Jacob Stropt, a prominent and wealthy farmer of that community.

"O Lord, make Brother Stropt a better man; cause him to pay his debts and have him cease backbiting," fervently supplicated the minister in a prayer which started his congregation and started Stropt upon a line of action culminating in the suit for libel. Other "faults" of the parishioner were recited in the minister's prayer, and divine interference was asked to rectify them.

"Now, you'd better make another prayer and straighten things up with the Lord," declared Stropt when the pastor concluded his prayer. But Dr. Fisher refused.

DELEGATES ADOPT RULES.

Will Send Resolution to Supreme Court Asking Changes in Records. Walla Walla, Wash.—Just what is a deed and what should be recorded in the book of deeds, was one of the knotty questions discussed by the county auditors of the state, whose annual convention adjourned here, to meet in Spokane next year.

It was the general opinion of most of the delegates present that anything that would tend to cloud a title on real estate should be recorded in the book of deeds, and properly indexed there. "Settling the question and demonstrating the attitude of the auditors toward the ruling of the supreme court in the matter, the auditors adopted the following resolution offered by the resolutions committee: "As the supreme court of the state of Washington has ruled that contracts pertaining to real estate shall be recorded in the records of deeds, be it resolved that it is the consensus of opinion of the members present, that the auditors shall record all contracts in the records of deeds."
