FINDS LONG LOST MOTHER.
Son from Russia Meets Parent After 16 Years' Separation.

New York.—After a separation of sixteen years, Mrs. Frida Droder of No. 120 Stuyvesant avenue, Brooklyn, who came to this country after the death of her husband, leaving her two children behind in Russia, saw the elder child last week. About ten years ago she sent money for him to come to America, but the troubles between the Russian peasants and the Jews prevented his coming. Later his mother, who had married again and had a new family to look after, was unable to continue her search for her boys.

Six months ago the elder, Nathan Pish, who had married and became the father of a boy and girl, came to the United States and settled in Baltimore. Soon after his arrival he asked the postmasters of New York and Brooklyn to help him find his mother, but they were unable to give him any assistance. By a fortunate meeting in Baltimore with a resident of Brooklyn he learned of the whereabouts of Mrs. Droder, and he wrote to her.

It didn't take long to prove the relationship, and Nathan came on to Brooklyn last Monday to visit his mother. He returned to Baltimore yesterday, his mother, step-father and a new half-brother and half sister going to the train with him.

SOME SHORT NEWS NOTES FROM WESTON

(Special Correspondence.)

Weston, Ore., July 8.—The auction of horses held here yesterday resulted in the sale of 41 head. They brought very fair prices considering size, weight and conditions both as to the horses and the financial matters.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Proebstel, who have been in Portland for the past several weeks, returned last evening.

W. M. Gerking, late city marshal, returned from his visit to his daughter's home at Starbuck on this morning's train. He reports Starbuck as a very busy place and very noisy too, owing to the many trains passing daily.

Earnest Geessaz of Portland, Ore., is here on a short vacation, visiting at his mother's home, Mrs. W. A. Graham.

Mrs. Sim Culley and little daughter left for Cheilan, Wash., to visit at her sister's home, Mrs. L. W. Barnes.

Walter Carlie, son of W. W. Carlie, former residents of Weston, but now of North Yakima, Wash., is here on a visit and also to work in the harvest fields.

Carl Ray, a former Weston raised boy, but now living with his parents in Portland, Ore., is here on a visit at his grandmother's home, Mrs. Martha Van Winkle.

Mrs. C. T. Fullinich, who has been at the Walla Walla hospital under treatment for the past few weeks has returned and is at her old home with her daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Lieualien have returned from their visit to their son, J. A. Lieualien of Walla Walla.

Mrs. George W. Proebstel, jr., and children, who have been here with her husband for the past few weeks, leaves for Pendleton on this afternoon's train to her home.

Earnest Walden, one of the graduates of the Normal school, is here from Walla Walla county, Ore., visiting at his uncle's home, Mr. J. E. Walden.

Ira Staggs, who has been attending the state university at Eugene, Ore., has returned and will remain during the harvest. He expects to again take up his studies at this institution this fall and hopes to be able to finally graduate. Mr. Staggs graduated at the normal school at Weston last year.

A Golden Wedding
means that man and wife have lived to a good old age and consequently have kept healthy. The best way to keep healthy is to see that your liver does its duty 365 days out of 365. The only way to do this is to keep Ballard's Herbine in the house and take it whenever your liver gets inactive. 50 cents per bottle. A. C. Koeppen & Bros.

Those Pies of Boyhood.
How delicious were the pies of boyhood. No pies now ever taste so good. What's changed? the pies? No. It's you. You have lost the strong, healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowel soft boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food. What's needed? A complete toning up by Electric Bitters of all organs of digestion—stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels—try them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. 50c at Tallman & Co.
