

EXCITING RUNAWAY ON MILTON STREETS

TEAM LEFT HITCHED, IS BADLY FRIGHTENED

Brings up Against Telephone Pole—No Damage Done—Tomatoes are Blighting—Short Personal Items.

(Special Correspondence.) Milton, Ore., July 18.—An exciting runaway took place here last evening. While A. Loeff, the butcher, was hitching his big bay team to a light wagon, they became frightened and started at a fast pace down the road, taking the wagon to which they were hitched only by the neckyoke. They made for the central part of town, run down Main street and circled around, when one horse got loose and stopped. The other one with the wagon brought up against a telephone pole near the new college building. Nothing was damaged about the wagon or harness, which was dragging the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Edwards visited in Walla Walla last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cherry and children were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miner of Sunnyside.

Misses Irene Stone, Fannie Wilcox Della Danner and Katherine Duffy were among those who visited the Garden city today.

Mrs. Chester Shaffer of Portland, and little daughter, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Newman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brown of Walla Walla, visited at the Marsh home near Milton Sunday.

Miss Katherine Maloney has returned from a visit to friends in Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright of Walla Walla were the guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McKenzie.

Miss Florence Miller of Walla Walla, visited at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Miller over Sunday.

INSANE YOUTH SHOTS LITTLE SCHOOL GIRL

Paris.—A little girl, Renee Boyer, was on her way to school a little after 7 o'clock the other day, when a grocer's apprentice suddenly darted out of the shop where he was employed and fired two revolver shots at her. She died almost immediately.

The murderer then rushed back into the shop and bolted upstairs to his room, where he locked himself in. The people who followed heard other shots, and bursting open the door, found that the boy had shot himself dead.

He did not know his little victim, and had never spoken to her. The tragedy was witnessed by the little girl's mother, who was watching her child to see that she got safely across a busy street.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

Farmer Shoots Himself

Chehalis, Wash.—Frank Gordon, a highly respected farmer living across the river about three miles from Chehalis, committed suicide early Saturday by shooting himself in the forehead with a rifle. Temporary mental aberration following a nervous breakdown recently was the cause.

The lifeless body was not found for about three hours after the tragedy. Mr. Gordon had gone to the barn to hitch the team and the family presumed that he had gone to Centralia. No inquest was considered necessary. Gordon was an only son of A. F. Gordon, a well-known pioneer of this valley, and had resided here since boyhood. He leaves a widow and three young children, his father and three sisters. Mrs. Ida Waterbury of Portland; Mrs. J. C. Bush and Miss Marie Gordon of Chehalis, besides many friends.

Contest Causes Ruction

Moscow, Idaho.—The Latah County Development league filed suit Friday in Spokane against C. C. Clark, of Moscow, who, for a time at least, was candidate in a contest conducted by a Spokane paper to prevent the conveyance to him of the capital prize, said to be a small house and lot in Spokane, until matters between the league, Clark and the paper shall have been adjusted.

It is said the league and Mr. Clark entered into a contract outlined to them by agents, in a scheme to win the prize for the league. Members of the league say they were deceived by other persons into abandoning their efforts after the other persons knew Clark had already secured enough votes to win the prize.

Clark Friday evening said he would carry the case to the highest courts to secure his title.

Bride's Name Forgotten

Salem, Ore.—When J. J. Stranburg, 48 years old, appeared at the county clerk's office to secure a marriage license, things went swimmingly until he forgot the prospective bride's name. It was several minutes before he could master his memory sufficiently to give a full answer to the deputy's query.

He finally remembered that she is Mrs. Lida M. Carter, 35, a resident of Salem.

Stranburg came here from Missouri purposely to claim his bride. When they were young they were sweethearts, but were separated by some trivial quarrel and each of them married, passing from one another's sight. Not long ago Stranburg learned Mrs. Carter's whereabouts, and as they had lost, respectively, wife and husband by death, he came to Oregon to renew the old affection.

Spark Fires Clothing

North Yakima, Wash.—Grace Watkins, the daughter of a rancher living near this city, was burned so severely in an attempt to light a kerosene lamp at the home of her uncle in Tappanish Friday night that she died Saturday as a result of her injuries.

Miss Watkins is a girl of 16 years, had been visiting at the home of her uncle, Will Jenkins, of Tappanish Early Friday evening her cries attracted attention and before help reached her her clothing was a mass of flames, ignited by a flying spark from the head of a match. She had completely lost her head and was frantic. Some effort was made to extinguish the fire, but her clothes were practically burned off before help arrived.

She died Saturday morning after suffering terrible agony. The body was removed to North Yakima for burial.

Elgin May Get New Road

Elgin, Or.—Word has been received from Dan Sommers, now in Boston, that all papers necessary to construction of the railroad from Union by way of Elgin to Walla Walla have been signed and the dream of years of a competitive road and one across the mountains will soon be realized.

This news is appreciated by Walla Walla as well as Elgin, as it should make fuel famines in Walla Walla a thing of the past, and reduce the cost of lumber.

This advance information has caused property values in Elgin to advance.

Sharks Crowd Into Bay

South Bend, Wash.—Word has just been brought to this city that at least 100 sharks have followed a big run of sardines into the harbor and are now deporting themselves in the waters of the bay.

In the memory of the oldest inhabitant no more than half a dozen sharks were ever before known to enter this bay at one time. Many persons are going down from here to view the remarkable sight. One huge shark shot from a boat yesterday made fiercely for the craft, but a second shot finished him and probably prevented a tragedy.

Brick Company Incorporates

Elgin, Or.—Incorporation of the Silica Fire Brick & Manufacturing company, has been completed and officers elected as follows: President, J. W. Robinson; secretary and treasurer, L. Denham; directors, J. W. Robinson, John Klinghammer, Charles Klinghammer and Hugo Klinghammer. This company is incorporated at $104,000. Plans are being drawn for the erection of a plant at Elgin.

Vicious Dogs Ordered Killed

Vancouver, Wash.—Orders to kill any and every dog that bites any person have been given by John Sechrist, chief of police, to his officers. "Ask no questions, but if you find a dog has bitten a person, shoot the dog," said the chief. During the past two days four reports have been received at police headquarters of dogs biting persons.

Girl Struck by Train

Oregon City, Or.—Miss Ivah Harrington was injured by an electric car at Gladstone this morning, about 8:30 o'clock. She was crossing the track at the Gladstone depot to take an Oregon City car, when the car from Portland threw her heavily to the ground. She was rendered unconscious, but as able to walk home shortly afterward.

Wastebasket Not Good Safe

Springfield, Or.—Alex Grey, keeper of a cigar store and soft drink parlor here has learned that the wastebasket is not a good substitute for a steel safe in which to keep his cash. A thief, who entered through a window in the rear Friday night, found the hiding place and stole the money on hand, $24.85.

Don't wait to throw flowers on the coffins of the dead. Throw verbal bouquets while they may bring happiness to the recipients.
