FIRM TONE IS FELT IN PORTLAND YARDS

ALL LINES BUT HOGS SHOW STABLE FEELING

Demand for Good Stuff Is Brisk in Yards; Best Quality Cattle Are Exceedingly Hard to Secure,

Portland Union Stockyards, North Portland, Or., July 26 .- With the exception of hogs, all lines of livestock are firm today. Swine market is merely steady at $10.25 for toppers. There were no receipts of sheep or lambs this morning, but one sale was made late yesterday afternoon-too late for publication in Monday's paper-at an advance of 25c. The sale included 87 head that averaged 89 pounds. Price, $4.25.

Cattle that came forward today was this quite good values were obtained. Some cows went at $4.50 for 1205 pounds average, while two stags sold a, $4.25. One averaged 1020 and the other 1550 pounds,

Only one lot of hogs arrived this morning in a mixed car and this was sold at $19.25. The lot included 16 head that averaged 248 pounds. Among the Shippers.

B. H. McRae had a load of cattle from Shaniko on today's market, C. M. Grimes brought in a mixed load of cattle and hogs from Grass

J. B. Walker shipped two loads of hogs from Corvallis

George Brown was another shipper from the college town. He brought forward three loads of cattle. Today's run of livestock compares

WOMEN SING HYMN TO CHARM RATTLESNAKE

San Bernardino.-Singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee," three women charmed a rattlesnake which had just crawled from beneath a cushion upon which one of them was scated, out on the Vale ranch. Mrs. F. P. Duniap, Mrs. Harry Allison and Mrs. W. A. Vale were seated a lounge under the trees, when Mrs. Dunlay perceived the snake. Instantly she thought of music charming reptiles, and she whispered, "Let's She commenced to hum the sacred air, and the others, not knowing why, took it up. The snake, with head poised, paused and Mrs. Dunslowly arose and beckoned the others to follow which they quickly did. After having gained a safe distance the others discovered what their the women then killed the snake,

Milwaukee Road to Yakima,

North akima, Wash.-Announcement of the building of a feeder of the Milwaukee railroad to serve the Yakima valley is expected within the next month. It is understood that the definite route will be decided upon by the third of next month, and that maps of definite location will be fil-ed immediately thereafter. The Milwaukee will not come into North Yakima through the Moxee pass, as has generally been supposed, but will build up through the vailey. The intention is to leave the main line at Beverly, come down the Columbia in order to serve the new Columbia river settlements, strike across to Richland and then parallel the Northern Pacific and North Coast to this city.
