San Francisco	66	54
Portland	59	51
Oakland	54	53
Vernon	61	58
Los Angeles	61	52
Sacramento	46	71

COAST LEAGUE

Sacramento 1, Los Angeles 0. Sacramento, July 31.--Boardman got to Criger for a double in the twelfth inning of as great a game as has been seen on the local ground this year and was scored by Briggs who banked the ball over right field fence, giving the Senators the fifth straight game and the series. Score: R. H. E. Los Angeles.....0 7 2 Sacramento.....1 8 0 Criger and Smith; Fitzgerald and Lalonge.

Portland Wins Two.

San Francisco, July 31.--Portland was playing one thousand per cent baseball today and with big league ease took both the morning and afternoon games away from the San Franciscans. The morning game was annexed by a score of 4 to 0, and in the afternoon the figures stood 5 to 1, in a 12 inning tussle. Tennant opened the afternoon's run making in the fourth inning when he sent a high one into a neighboring back yard. Portland tied the score in the ninth on a bad throw to the plate by Vitt in an effort to catch Rapps out. Then the game lapsed along until the twelfth when the northerners fell on Easterly's delivery for two doubles and three singles which netted them four runs.

Steen's performance in the box was the feature of the before luncheon session. Stewart was wild and Browning was substituted in the second but the San Franciscans were handicapped and could not catch up. The score: First game: R. H. E. Portland.....4 9 3 San Francisco.....0 7 3 Steen and Fisher; Stewart, Browning and Williams. Second game: R. H. E. Portland.....5 11 3 San Francisco.....1 8 3 Krapp, Garrett, Seaton and Murray; Easterly and Berry.

Oakland Takes Two.

Los Angeles, July 31.--Oakland won the Sunday double header and the series today from the Vernon. The morning score on the Vernon ground was 5 to 3. That in the afternoon at Chutes Park was 2 to 1. Hogan tried the big league stunt of using two or more pitchers in each game, but he was fated to share the ill luck his brethren the Angels have been having in the north. The morning game came near being a shutout for Vernon and they just managed to score in the ninth. Oakland hit Hensling and Brackenridge freely. Scores. First game-- R. H. E. Oakland.....2 6 2 Vernon.....1 5 1 Christian and Thomas; Shafer, Raleigh and Brown.

NORTHWEST LEAGUE

Spokane 2, Tacoma 1. Tacoma, July 31.--Jess Baker beat the Tigons the second time of the week today, when Spokane won a hard fought game, 2 to 1. Baker was wild at times but he could not be hit in the pinches. Spokane won in the seventh inning, when Coleman missed an easy chance to retire the side and a run scored. Schmutz also pitched great ball. Score: R. H. E. Tacoma.....1 5 3 Spokane.....2 7 0 Schmutz and Byrnes; Baker and Shea. Vancouver 10, Seattle. Seattle, July 31.--Vancouver hit Chinault hard while Seattle could not touch Gardner. Scharnweber's one-handed running scoop or Adams' grounder was the feature of the game. Score: R. H. E. Seattle.....0 5 2 Vancouver.....10 11 1 Chinault and Curster; Gardner and Lewis.

300 Acre Ranch $33,000.

Eugene, Or.--C. M. Camp, who lives six miles southwest of Eugene, has sold his 300 acre farm to E. C. Thompson and B. C. Eaton, recent arrivals here from Indiana, for $33,000 and they will at once bring their families to Eugene to reside. This farm is located in the Spencer creek valley, which is noted for its fine fruit crops. This land is particularly adapted to fruit culture and it is the intention of the new owners to plant a large orchard.

SOME NEWS CRUMBS PICKED UP AT ECHO

(Special Correspondence.)

Echo, Or., Aug. 1.--Mrs. Alex Reid of Stanfield, spent Saturday in Echo, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Everitt.

Mrs. E. H. Brown was an Echo visitor Saturday. She came up on the local and drove back to Stanfield in the evening with Mrs. Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Adams arrived from Seattle Friday. Mr. Adams is here to look after his grain and other interests.

F. J. Irvine came in from his farm near the forks of Butter creek Friday. He has finished heading and is now very anxious for a threshing machine to pull into his territory.

C. E. Matteson and W. H. Murphy, from the Pine City neighborhood, were trading in Echo Saturday.

Orin Halstead who has been working on the Benedict place, helping harvest, was kicked by a horse Sunday and his leg broken. He was brought into his home at Echo. Dr. Dorn was called and he reduced the fracture. The patient is now resting easy.

R. B. Stanfield spent Sunday with his family at Wenaha springs.

ASTOR STIRS IRE OF PARISIAN AUTHORESS

Paris.--In those distant days when William Waldorf Astor was still an American citizen and minister to Italy he wrote a novel which he called "Beatrice Cenci." Whether the success of this book did not meet his expectations or whether a little professional jealousy has tinged his views of writers and their works is not known, but his treatment of the Irish authoress, Miss May de la Cherois, has given rise to much comment.

It seems this woman is engaged upon a romance of Henry VII and Anne Boylen. Wishing to get all the local color possible for her book, she approached the Master of Cliveden and asked for permission to visit the room where Henry and Anne carried on their courtship. To her surprise Mr. Astor flatly refused her admittance to the house. Very indignant the authoress said to him: "I suppose you refuse because you wish to show you are a free American?" "Not at all," retorted Mr. Astor. "I'm not an American, I am a British subject, and, as I bought Cliveden I suppose I may do as I please with it."

And now Miss May de la Cherois is saying things in favor of the old feudal system. Her private opinion is that, if Mr. Astor had his own way he would simply go about ordering people off the earth.

QUEER DECREE MARKS ROYAL FAVOR'S CHANGE

Berlin.--A curious decree, the justice of which is rather obscure, has been issued by the Imperial Civic Cabinet concerning the Kaiser's godsons. His Majesty has been accustomed, on the birth of the seventh or eighth son in any German family, to stand as the child's godfather. Several hundred German youths now enjoy that distinction.

A decree of 1893 declared that the interruption of the successions of sons by the birth of a daughter in the family would not affect the bestowal of the imperial favor. It was accordingly applied for recently by a proud father, a farmer, on the birth of his eighth son.

The honor, however, was denied because the successive births of the eight sons had been interrupted by the intrusion of a daughter (twin of the fourth son) and the new decree now revokes that of 1893.

VAST CROWD IS EXPECTED AT SPOKANE INTERSTATE FAIR.

AT THE MAIN ENTRANCE OF THE SPOKANE INTERSTATE FAIR ON THE OPENING DAY OF 1910.

A distinguishing characteristic of the Spokane Interstate Fair for several years past has been the apparent ease with which the huge crowds are handled by the management. Last year there were some 110,000 paid admissions, and this year 150,000 are confidently expected. It requires the services of a big and thoroughly trained staff of attendants to secure comfort for these throngs.

It is true that Spokane through its lodges, fraternities and various organizations contributes with admirable spirit to the same desired end of insuring the comfort of visitors. The city authorities do their part as well, and the result of the kindly activity of the police is that, some weeks before the fair's opening, Spokane is cleared of all undesirable characters, confidence men, pickpockets and the nimble fingered and nimble witted fraternity generally.

From the opening of the gates on the first day of the Spokane Interstate Fair--held this year Oct. 2 to 9--there is exhilaration in the air, an infectious, joyous spirit that pervades the throngs in the crowds seemingly before their arrival by one of the two electric lines at the fair grounds. And when the moving stream of pleasure bent humanity is passing through the gates it needs not the big sign overhead nor the inspiring music of the bands inside to convince the stranger that the Interstate Fair is on.
