The Orpheum—Today's Program.
1. Corporal Truman's War Story. Kalem, drama, 1000 feet long. No more exciting war pictures than that of Corporal Truman's empty sleeve, were ever placed on the screen. The picture closes with a toast to the stars and stripes.
2. The Highlanders. Lubin, drama, 1000 feet. One is given a close view of the Tongs operate from actual scenes in this misunderstood old world.
3. The Almighty Dollar. Lubin, comedy, 1000 feet of fun rolled up in a short story. The fun starts when a man soldiers a tack to a dollar and drives the tack into a chair.
4. Mistaken Identity. Pathe, drama, 1000 feet. A mixup in the love affairs of a married woman that terminated in a duel between the husband and the wrong man. If any more complicated plot could be conceived for motion pictures the authors deserve a prize.
5. The Awful Symphony. Pathe, A comedy which introduces some novel scenes. The alleged music by the band and its effect are clearly portrayed.
6. Omalalla Bryan Snyder.
The Pastime.
A good program for Tuesday's change as follows:
"Becket." Vitagraph, drama, 1000 feet long. A splendid historical film. "Becket" is the title of one of the most notable poems by the late Lord Tennyson. It was turned into a play in which the late Sir Henry Irving made one of his greatest successes.
"A Boarding School Romance." Vitagraph, comedy, 1000 feet. Refined comedy, telling a delightful love story in the way that only Vitagraph life portrayals can tell them.
"Love Ye One Another." Pathe, drama, 1000 feet. An art film that depicts the most beautiful sentiment that ever yet formed the subject matter of a moving picture.
"Jinks Has the Shooting Mania." Comedy.
Fire Extinguisher.
A fire extinguisher, which may be easily made at home and kept in a bottle ready for use, consists of 3 pounds of salt and 1 1-2 pounds of sal ammoniac dissolved in a gallon of water.

CO. I PREPARES FOR DEPARTURE

ALL MEMBERS EXPECTED TO GO OR SHOW REASON

Captain Ferguson Says It Does Not Rest With Pleasure of Militiamen Whether Or Not They Go—Genuine Filipino Will Act as Cook.

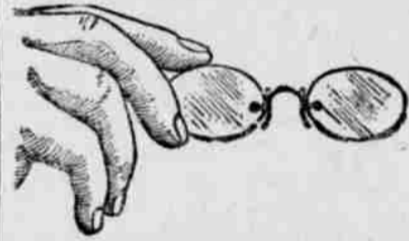

The armory yesterday was a scene of bustle and energy. All day long a quartermaster detail was busy sorting and arranging the equipment and utensils for issue to the company on next Sunday. During the week the surplus equipment will be boxed for shipment, so that all that will be left for next Sunday will be the personal equipment of the men.
There is renewed interest among the members now that the state of departure is approaching. Many reported at the armory that they were arranging to go.
In speaking with Captain Ferguson regarding the trip he said: "There is a misunderstanding on the part of some of the members of the company regarding this camp. Many are under the impression that it all rests with them as to whether or not they will make the trip. On the contrary, the company has been ordered out and every man who does not respond to the order will be compelled to show by affidavits and legal evidence before a summary court that it was impossible for him to obey the order. The United States does not appropriate large sums of money to hold these camps of instruction and then leave it to the whim or discretion of the militiaman as to whether or not he will take advantage of it. Every man failing to answer the roll will be marked absent without leave and it will then be up to him to clear himself of the charge of disobedience."
The boys are to have a genuine Filipino as cook. The islander has been around town for several weeks and is an old experienced army cook, having come to the United States as cook with the 19th infantry.
Non-commissioned officers' examination was held yesterday, three appearing before the examining board. Their warrants will be received in time for their departure for American Lake.
Life on Panama Canal
has had one frightful drawback—malaria trouble—that has brought suffering and death to thousands. The germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "Three bottles completely cured me of a very severe attack of malaria," writes Wm. A. Fretwell of Lucama, N. C., "and I have made so easy my way since." Cures stomach, liver and kidney troubles and prevents typhoid. 50c. Guaranteed by Koeppen & Bros.

ENGLAND'S NEED IS FOR MORE MOTHERS

London.—"The same danger that threatens France, the curse of steadily declining birthrate, is also menacing the future of Great Britain," said Father Bernard Vaughan, the famous preacher, recently, "and here as in France, it is the women of so-called society who shirk the duty of motherhood, because it interferes with their lives of leisure, while the women of the poor classes, whose lives are one unending ceaseless toil, nobly fulfill their destinies."
"Wealthy people of today may have one or two children, but not for selfish reasons—to inherit their names and estates—and they ridicule the notion of having big families."
"England, once known among the nations as the 'land of beautiful homes,' is fast becoming the land of empty cradles. And what does this really mean? We all know well enough that the empty cradle must eventually mean the empty home; but it means infinitely more than that. It means a demoralized and depopulated country, ripe for the hand of the invader. It means the fate of ancient Rome!"
"We want men," said one of his generals to the great Napoleon.
"No," replied the emperor, "we want mothers!"
"And it is mothers that England wants today; for it is not the hand that rocks the empty cradle that rules the world, but the hand that empties the cradle to find room for yet another 'man born into the world.'"
"But unless I misread the signs of the times, the people will pass from bad to worse till finally we shall race with France for the lowest birthrate and, with it, the lowest mortality."

It is just a little different in each of these places from what it is here. That little difference may be to the advantage or disadvantage of the grower. Which ever it is he should know about it.
Then there is that vexing matter of freight on wheat and on flour. Why should the freight be more on the flour?
Not only has wheat a very practical interest, but it also has a great social history. There was a time not many hundred years ago when to eat white bread was a sign of wealth or of rank. The lack of wheat sent the Jews to Egypt in search of what they called "corn" but what is in our talk wheat.
These facts and stories about the wheat are all told in W. G. Edgar's "Story of a Grain of Wheat."
