Local Option Case at La Grande, La Grande, Or.-Victor Townsend of Palmer Junction is on trial charged with selling intoxicating liquor, and his trial is the second of the series. Townsend is accused of having sold cash bonds forfeited, and $102 liquor on June 8 to W. H. Compton at Palmer Junction A question that was put to all the prospective jurors was whether or not they believed prosecution vindicated the local option law and if failure to convict a man accused tended to make the law a dead letter.

RED HAT FOR ENGLISHMAN.

Thought Pope Will Honor Archbishop

Bourse,

Rome.—It is considered certain that the pape will bestow the coveted red hat upon Archbishop Bourne as a reward for his efforts to place the magnificent cathedral at Westminster out of debt, and to enable it to be onsecrated. There has not been an English cardinal since the late Cardiin! Vaughan, and though it has been rumored on several occasions that this step in rank was about to be conferred upon Archbishop Bourne, these ave proved to be incorrect.

Cardinals are, as a rule, only created when there is a vacancy in the sacred college; but the pope has it in his power to appoint extra cardinals. who are absorbed into the college in due course, should he see fit to do so, and this is what it is anticipated
