

FIRM DEMAND FOR LIVESTOCK IN YARDS

TOP STUFF IN STEERS

STILL SELLS AT $5.75

All Class of Good Stuff Finds Seekers and Top Values Hold for Quality; Good Run of Sheep Appears.

Portland Union Stockyards, North Portland, Ore., Aug. 4.—Market for steers is firm at $5.75 for good quality that is generally considered top although it is still possible to obtain $6 for something that is as good as formerly sold at this value.

The stuff that came forward to the yards during the past 24 hours was not of the best quality and therefore quotations failed to line up with those listed at the top.

The market for swine remains about as previously quoted, $10.25 still being available here for selected quality. Sheep market values are being held rather steady. The run for the day was liberal.

Among the Shippers.

Kidwell & Caswell brought a mixed load of cattle and calves from Haines. W. E. Hunt was offering four loads of sheep from Shaville.

S. P. Spauld shipped a load of cattle from Huntington and E. P. Logan and C. W. Logan each had a load of cattle and calves from the same place this morning.

W. E. O'Neil shipped a load of cattle to the yards today. Ben Howell brought in 40 head of cattle by boat.

Sun Dial ranch shipped 501 head of sheep into the yards this morning.

Today's run of livestock compares with this day in recent years as follows:

	Hogs.	Cattle.	Sheep.
1910	326	1300	202
1909	843	381	1424
1908	108	50	1880
1907	250
1906
1905

A year ago there was a firm tone in all lines of livestock, with no change in prices.

THE WHEAT MARKET

WHEAT ADVANCE WAS VERY SHARP YESTERDAY

Chicago and Liverpool Come Into Bull Camp; Deterioration in Argentina.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—B. F. Snow, the crop expert, figures the crops of the United States on the basis of the last government report as follows:

Wheat	1,910,000,000	1909
Spring	206,000,000	447,000,000
Winter	435,000,000	447,000,000

Corn 3,044,000,000 2,772,000,000
Oats 1,013,000,000 1,007,000,000

Chicago, Aug. 4.—Wheat closed sharply advanced after a higher start for two of the three options. Closing was 1-2 to 1-3-4c above yesterday.

Action of the September price was a surprise in view of the sharply lower opening, while others were advanced. It looked as if the accumulation of short sales in the September was entirely too heavy and covcring made its appearance late in the day. September closed 1 5-8c above yesterday.

Foreign prices were bullish. At Liverpool the opening advance amounted to 1-2d, but the closing was 1 3-8 to 1 5-8d above yesterday.

Foreign prices were bullish. At Liverpool the opening advance amounted to 1-2d, but the closing was 1 3-8 to 1 5-8d above the previous end. Paris had a closing gain of 5 centimes today.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool his estimate of Argentina wheat shipments for the week at 1200 bushels, and corn 4,772,000 bushels. He reported dry weather continues in the north, as the recent rains were only light showers. Some deterioration is reported.

RAILROAD WORK AT BEND IS RUSHED

Bend, Or.—Travelers coming into Bend from the north report great activity on the Oregon Trunk Line. Many crews can be seen from the wagon road stretched along the entire distance from Crooked river to Bend. Considerable grade has already been constructed, and at short intervals are heard the boom of shots which are being set off by the crews in the rock cuts.

Bryan & Youngstrom have a contract for a stretch beginning at bend and extending northward. They have about 200 men at work. 2000 feet of track laid for construction purposes, and have more rails coming in from the railroad at Shaniko. They have four six-horse freighting outfits constantly on the road and yet have difficulty in keeping their crews supplied with the necessary material.

Contracts have been let for the entire distance from Madras to Bend; and the contractors are either now at work or are moving their crews into the field as rapidly as possible. Orders are said to have been issued from headquarters to rush work along the entire Madras-Bend stretch, and this is evidently being done, judging from the numerous crews at work and the many freighting outfits that are devoting their exclusive time to hauling in supplies and material.

GAVEGANS ENTERTAINED.

New York Justice and Wife Receive Much Attention in London.

London.—Justice and Mrs. Gavegan of New York have gone to Paris after receiving much social attention. Ambassador and Mrs. Reid gave a smart luncheon at Dorchester House in their honor, while the high court judges showered Justice Gavegan with attention.

He sat on various benches and was greatly impressed with the interior formality of English jurisprudence in the matter of robes and gowns, but was equally impressed with the informality in the administration of justice.

"During the many cases to which I listened I heard scarcely any objection raised," said Justice Gavegan. "In fact, the lawyers did not put any questions on examination that permitted objections. There seems to be the intention on the part of the bench to get right to the facts in the matter and not permit objections and legal quibbles to obscure the issues."

SEARCHER FOR MYSTERIOUS GEM DROPS FROM SIGHT

New York.—Seeking a blue pearl valued at over $100,000, which was stolen from the eye of an image of Buddha in Hindustan during the Sepoy revolt, Captain MacAdams of Hereford, England, has mysteriously dropped out of sight.

MacAdams came to New York some weeks ago with Reginald H. Shenck, representing the Rajah Rane of Hyderabad. A clue to the whereabouts of the gem was picked up, and last week MacAdams went to Boston to follow it up.

The last heard of the jewel hunter was on July 25, when he wired from Boston to Shenck in New York, telling him he had traced the pearl to the Hotel Touraine, where he had again lost track of it, and had called in the Pinkertons to assist him.

The New York police today sent descriptions of MacAdams broadcast over the country.

Shenck expresses fear that the "black magic of the Orient" is at the bottom of the affair. He claims that he and MacAdams have been shadowed across the Atlantic by a pair of swarthy Hindus.

Chinese Want to Resign.

Berlin.—The German Cable company received today from Shanghai a telegram stating that the governor-general of Manchuria and the Chinese governors of Kirin and Hei Lung Kiang provinces, the two northern provinces of Manchuria, have asked to be relieved of their posts. They feel unable, it is stated, to cope with the difficulties growing out of the recently signed treaty between Russia and Japan.

This treaty, supplementing earlier agreements, provides for joint action in handling railroad problems in Manchuria.
