FORMER PENDLETON MAN KILLED BY ROCK

William T. Overman, the man who was killed in a rock quarry near North Yakima Sunday, while his wife and family stood by powerless to aid or give him warning, formerly lived in Pendleton and is well known here. He was a father of Mrs. Irving Snyder, who together with her husband returned this morning from having attended the funeral.

The following account of the accident is taken from the Yakima Herald:

Trying to remove a piece of rock in the East Selah which he thought a menace to the safety of passersby, William T. Overman was Sunday morning a victim to his own good intention, paying for the act with his life. The accident occurred at the East Selah stone quarry about six miles from town. On Saturday a blast had been set off, throwing down a number of boulders and loosening others without dislodging them. It was one of the latter that Mr. Overman attempted to displace when it fell on him, crushing out his life with its 1500 pounds weight.

Just Moved Out.
The Overman family had moved out to the quarry only two weeks ago. Noticing the loose stone, he had arranged with his son, Earl, to stand at one side and warn him if it moved. The boy says that he did cry out to his father, but that it was too late. Mrs. Overman and another son, Charles, were witnesses to the accident and between the three they managed to roll off the stone. There was no time, however, to get a doctor to the injured man, who died within a half hour.

Confers With Sherman.
Utica, N. Y., Aug. 5.—Congressman William B. McKinley of Illinois, chairman of the congressional campaign committee, was in the city a short time yesterday in consultation with Vice President Sherman. It was stated that Mr. Sherman had consented to take the stump for the committee from August 25 to September 26. It is understood that the vice president will spend some time in Nevada.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Miss Burnester Injured.
Miss Wilma Burnester, stenographer in the law offices of Carter & Smythe, had the misfortune to step off of a high walk on Willow street last evening, sustaining a badly sprained ankle. She is confined to her room today.

In Search of Horse Thief.
Sheriff Ed Rand came over from Baker City yesterday in search of a one-armed sheepherder riding a roan horse. The horse was stolen in Baker county and when last seen the fellow was in La Grande, headed toward Pendleton.

Wallace Undergoes Operation.
Jack Wallace of Emmett, Idaho, who, together with his family, was visiting friends in Pendleton a few days ago, has just undergone an operation for appendicitis in a Walla Walla hospital. The attack was sudden and severe, but at last reports he was recovering rapidly.

N. P. Train Was Late.
It was nearly 7:30 when the Northern Pacific passenger train pulled into the local station last evening. The train had been delayed all day at Hunt's junction by the derailment of a freight train engine. A fast run was made on the return to Pasco, 10:20 p. m. being the time of its arrival there.

Oregon Suits Him.
H. L. McAllister of Lexington and who during his college days at O. A. C. was better known as "Pap Hayseed," and was a famous football player, returned home this morning from a visit in Iowa, Ohio and Indiana. He says the nights in the middle states are very arm and he is glad to get back to Oregon.

H. C. Craig on Crutches.
H. C. Craig of West Webb street is being compelled to go about on crutches this week. While on a recent visit to Milton he attempted to push an automobile out of a shed and in exerting his strength strained a tendon in his leg. The injury is a painful one and will probably confine him to crutches for several days.

Adams High School.
C. C. Darr, the well known resident of Adams, has been in the city today. He came down on business connected with the Adams schools. This year high school instruction will be given at Adams and four teachers will be employed instead of three as heretofore. At this time the school building is being remodelled and improved so as to be in readiness for the opening of school.

Smythe Is Improving.
Attorney Dan P. Smythe, who was seriously injured in a train accident near Tacoma several days ago, is reported to be improving as rapidly as could be expected under the circumstances. The remarkable will power and combative ability of the injured man is apparently a great aid to him at this time and will be a material factor in his ultimate complete recovery from the effects of the accident.

Fire at Pasco.
According to Conductor Berthelot of the Northern Pacific passenger train a fire occurred at Pasco yesterday afternoon and caused several thousand dollars damage. The fire broke out in the Thomas livery stable which was entirely destroyed. An old school building adjoining and which had just been purchased by the Masons for lodge hall purposes was also destroyed. That building was insured for $3500 which will fully cover the loss. The fire occurred at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Dance at Meacham.
Another dance will be given at Meacham Saturday night by the campers and residents of that popular resort. Music will be furnished by members of the United Orchestra of Pendleton. Such an enjoyable time was had by those who attended the dance last Saturday night that it was decided to continue the dances each Saturday night during the remainder of the season. Meacham has one of the coziest dance pavilions that can be found at any of the mountain resorts which with good music accounts for the large crowds in attendance at these parties.

Trick Bicycle Rider.
Though the day of the professional trick bicycle rider is nearly over, there are still a few who travel over the country giving street exhibitions in preference to lending their energies to some steady occupation. One of these itinerants in the garb of a circus clown appeared on Main street last evening between 6 and 7 o'clock and the sidewalks were lined with spectators who gathered during his performance. He was undoubtedly a high-rank cyclist and his clever and difficult feats were roundly applauded. During his performance he called a short intermission while he circulated among the crowd to secure a little financial refreshment.

Will Boost Celebration.
Harry Isman, better known as "The Broken Wing," and claiming the Salmon River country in Idaho as his home; Ernest Corty, recently of Bliss, Oklahoma, and O. D. Baxter of Walla Walla county, are the names of three enthusiastic boosters for the Pendleton frontier celebration. They are all three cowboys, ropers and bronco busters, with many years' experience to their credit and they declare that Pendleton has the opportunity to develop a frontier show that will be the equal if not the superior of the Denver and Cheyenne events. They are going to talk the thing up among their friends between now and the date of the first exhibition and will be here with a number of their friends and a string of horses capable of giving a good exhibition in the bucking line.

License to Wed.
Joseph L. Cunningham of Whatcom county, Washington and Miss Clara G. Westfall of this county, were granted a marriage license yesterday afternoon.

Blevins Gets Hearing.
William Blevins, charged with adultery by Frank Bonifer, will be given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Transient Laborer Dies.

ASA B. THOMSON SAYS HE HAS NOT ANY FUNDS

Asa B. Thomson, former receiver of the La Grande land office, declared to Judge Wolverton of the federal court yesterday that he had no funds with which to satisfy the judgment of $9821 against him, says yesterday's Portland Journal. This judgment was taken by Walter Nieder, receiver of the Farmers' and Traders National bank at La Grande, on a note given the bank.

J. W. Scriber was head of the banking concern. The Thomson note is considered the starting point of the defalcation of Scriber. The proceedings were continued until September 5, in order to allow the receiver of the bank to show that Thomson is sequestering his holdings.

BOGUS CHECK ARTISTS ABOARD IN THE LAND

Portland and Walla Walla Paid Visits by Clever Operators—Four Garden City Saloonkeepers Fall for Bad Checks—Harvest Time Brings Crooks in.

Bad check artists are again abroad in the land and Pendleton merchants and business men in general will do well to exercise more than the usual amount of care in cashing paper for swangers. Walla Walla and Portland have both been experiencing an epidemic of bogus check operations and it is not likely that Pendleton will escape much longer.

The harvest season is one time when the bad check men seem to get busy in eastern Oregon and the fact that no checks have been passed in Pendleton before this is probably due largely to the vigilance of the city and county officers.

As a result of the recent visit of the worthless check man's visit to Walla Walla, four Garden City saloon proprietors are minus something like $30 each.

About 11 o'clock Wednesday night two men claiming to be just from the harvest field, made a tour of the saloons together presenting checks drawn on the Third National bank, and bearing the signature of J. W. Baldwin. Not only did they bear this signature, but on each check was a rubber stamp adding what seemed to be official dignity. It was claimed that Baldwin is a rancher in the Milton neighborhood, and that the checks were drawn in payment of harvest wages, which sounded very plausible.

The houses which fell victim were the Idle Hour, the Oaks and those of John Bachtold and Gholson & Bishop.

It is thought that the men left Walla Walla on the 11:30 train immediately after securing the cash, and as the character of the checks was not learned until banking hours yesterday, it is probable that they made their get-away. Warrants are out for their arrest, however, and it is not considered likely they can escape for long.

Fish Pack Decreases.
Astoria, Or., Aug. 4.—Private advices received by the Alaska fishermen packing company from the manager of its plants at Nushagak and Kogling rivers say that the total pack of salmon on Bristol Bay, Alaska, will be about 800,000 cases or nearly 50 per cent less than last season, when the pack was 1,590,900 cases. The fishermen's company pack is 45,000 cases and 3500 barrels of salt fish. Last year its pack was 50,000 cases.
