POLICE DOG RUNS DOWN AN ABDUCTOR

New York.—By tracking and finding a 13-year-old girl who was said by her parents to have been abducted the police dogs imported at considerable expense by Chief of Police Robert E. Kerkam of the Long Island railroad have proved their worth.

Angela Ambrosia, 13, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ambrosia, who live near the summer encampment of Troop C on Cold Spring hill, disappeared. Missing from his customary places of amusement was Pasquale Pappalardo. The girl's parents notified the authorities of Huntington.

Detective Amasa Biggs was assigned to the case, and obtained one of Chief Kerkam's dogs.

Given the scent of the girl at her home, the dog followed it until he stood sniffing at Pasquale, who sat upon a log, smoking. Pasquale denied all knowledge of Angela's whereabouts, but the dog quickly settled that question by noising and barking at the door of a shanty.

The door was locked and the men could hear a girl's sobs behind it. They rescued Angela and arrested Pasquale. He was taken to Justice Hendrickson's court. Things looked dark for Pasquale when someone suggested a wedding might be the best solution.

Angela's parents and Pasquale took to the idea, and Angela, despite her experience, was not averse. Accordingly, a license was obtained and Justice Hendrickson married them.

As for the dog, he was given a bone, a pat on the head and sent home.

CHICAGO WHEAT IS IN A BEARISH MOOD

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Forecast of a better report of the government regarding wheat conditions was made today by wheat traders when they beat down values here. Closing was 1-4 to 3-4 a bushel under Saturday.

Opening values were influenced by the sharp loss at Liverpool's start, although the closing was 1-8 lower. While the volume of trading in wheat here was good, there was but nominal spread of values. Fluctuations were very light.

Cash wheat—No. 2 red, $1.02 1-2@1.04 1-4; No. 3 red, $1.03 1-2; No. 2 hard winter, $1.02 1-2@-.07; No. 3 hard winter, $1.03 1-2; No. 1 northern spring, $1.23 1-3@1.24 1-4; No. 2 northern spring, $1.13@1.16; No. 3 northern spring, $1.03@1.05.

HOP CROP IS SHORT BUT QUALITY IS GOOD

Salem, Ore.—About the only activity being noticed in the hop market in Salem is that different dealers are scrutinizing the barometer and discussing the probability of rain visiting the valley. At the first sign of rain, local dealers say the price of hops in this state will go soaring. Several growers in Marion county state that on account of the warm dry weather prevailing for the past few months hops have been stunted considerably, and unless showers come within the next month, the crop will be cut short.

Notwithstanding the fact that the burs are small, the quality will surpass all other crops, and if they are picked clean, Oregon growers will realize a record price for their hops. This is the general belief in this vicinity, and every prominent grower and merchant will endeavor to secure clean picking this season, is possible.

It is conservatively estimated that 90,000 bales will be the extent of Oregon's hop crop this season, and growers are now hiring pickers with a promise of 50 cents per box for picking. The offer of 50 cents has had a tendency to stimulate the interests of those of the Salem folk who are in the habit of picking hops, and the growers are having very little trouble in registering sufficient number to harvest the crop.

QUOTATION MARKS

Senator Beveridge, is an after-dinner speech in Cleveland, said of a corrupt politician: "The man's excuse is as absurd as the excuse that a certain minister offered on being convicted of plagiarism. "Brethren," said the minister, "it is true that I occasionally borrow for my sermons, but I always acknowledge the fact in the pulpit by raising two fingers at the beginning and two at the end of the borrowed matter, thus indicating that it is quoted."
