GAYNOR FALLS BEFORE BULLET OF A CRANK

He was discharged for drunkenness after four years of service.

Asked by newspaper men why he tried to kill Gaynor, he said: "Why, that fellow took my bread and butter out of my mouth. You can't make that too strong. He took my salary away. I was night watchman at the munificent salary of two dollars a night and he took that away. I know Tompkins fired me, but Gaynor sanctioned it, and I got him."

At noon Gallagher was taken to the hospital for identification, but was not allowed admittance and was returned to his cell. At noon Mrs. Vingut, the mayor's daughter, drove to the hospital in an auto but was not allowed to see her father. Her brother told her the mayor was cheerful and his prospects hopeful. The patient's vitality counted greatly in his favor and on this score the doctors are relying for his recovery.

Taft Sends Sympathy.

Beverly, Aug. 8.—President Taft was shocked at the news. He telegraphed his sympathy to the wounded man: "I am greatly shocked to hear of the outrageous assault on you, but glad to hear that the wound is not serious. I earnestly hope and pray your recovery may be rapid," the telegram said.

Teddy is Shocked.

Hoboken, Aug. 9.—Secretary Ad-ams received the following telegram from Colonel Roosevelt: "I was shocked and horrified beyond measure at the shooting. Please send me information regarding Gaynor's condition." In the event of his death President Mitchell of the board of aldermen will become mayor.

Discuss German Theology.

Berlin, Aug. 9.—Discussion of German theology and its influence on religious liberalism was continued at the morning session of the Congress of Free Christianity.

This evening the congress begins consideration of another theme, "The Sympathetic Relations Which Should Exist Between the Different Religious Communities in Christendom." The sessions of the congress will be concluded tomorrow.

Off to Grand Aerie.

A. J. Gibson left this afternoon via the Northern Pacific for St. Louis to attend the annual meeting of the grand aerie of the Order of Eagles. He is past worthy president of the local aerie and as such is the delegate to the grand aerie. While away Mr. Gibson will also visit relatives in Pennsylvania.

Comes from Ohio for Bride.

Raymond Watson of Columbia county, Ohio, took as his bride yesterday afternoon, Zella Ennis of this county. The ceremony was performed by Circuit Judge H. J. Bean and the couple will make their home in Ohio, the groom being a farmer of that state.

Irwin is Improving.

Harry Rees, assistant postmaster, returned this morning from Portland where he had been called by the shooting of his brother-in-law Roy Irwin by a highwayman a short time ago. According to Mr. Rees his relative is doing well and will probably have nothing worse than a scar on the cheek bone to show for his injury.

For the Big Cut-off.

That a carload of tents and stoves for use by the men that will build the Coyote-Stanfield cutoff arrived at Stanfield yesterday is reported by Editor E. H. Brown of Stanfield who was here this morning. At this time H. A. Brandon, who built the Umatilla Central, is in charge of operations.

Mrs. Picard Wants Divorce.

A suit for divorce was filed today by Amanda J. Picard against Julian Picard. The parties to this suit were married in Vancouver, Washington, February 6, 1905, and have no children. Mrs. Picard alleges that her husband is guilty of cruel and inhuman treatment. She says he calls her vile and abusive names, chokes her and kicks her and has become an habitual drunkard.

Grows Big Melons.

As proof of his oft-repeated statements that he has a fine patch of watermelons on his Hermiton farm, R. R. Lewis this morning presented the East Oregonian office with a 36-pounder that is all but the last word in the melon line. Perfect in shape, color and flavor, the big melon was all that could be desired. Lewis says his melons are in fine condition and that he has large quantities of them similar to the one presented here. He also brought up a couple of onions of enormous size and told of digging a hill of potatoes which weighed 12 pounds. His faith in the Hermiton country is unbounded.

Night Runaway on Main Street.

People who happened to be on Main street last evening about 10:30 had the privilege of witnessing a spectacular runaway. One of the teams from the Twoby Brothers construction camp escaped from the two men in charge of it, a short distance west of town, and drawing a hack dashed down Jackson street, across the Main street bridge and up Main street at a terrific rate of speed. In attempting to turn the corner at Webb street they collided with the corner of the Folsom furniture store and narrowly missed going through the plate glass windows. When the wreckage was cleared away it was found that the horses were not seriously injured and the principal damage sustained was a broken tongue.

ed water for the purpose of watering the lands on both sides of McKay. Already they have raised a considerable fund for the purpose of making a survey of the proposition.

The two remaining new projects are west of the city and up to this time details with respect to them have not been divulged.

Aside from these a group of Western people are figuring on conserving the waters of Pine creek with a view to watering land in the vicinity of Weston and Athena. The sixth irrigation project is that of Appleburg, owned by J. P. McManus, and which has been watered since last fall.

JOHNSON SAYS FIGHTING GAME KILLED IN U. S.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—Hogish promoters and crooked fighters, have put the kibosh on the fighting game in America, according to Jack Johnson. He believes the next big fight will be held in England or Australia, and thinks the adverse criticism following the Reno battle has killed prize fighting in America.

REFUSED TO TAKE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE TO GEORGE

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 9.—For refusing to take the oath of allegiance to King George, twenty strikebreakers were deported to St. Paul today. They had been brought here to work on the Canadian Northern car shops.

TWOHY BROS WILL SWELL THEIR FORCE

Though approximately 400 men are now employed by Twoby Brothers in rebuilding the main line of the O. R. & N. between this city and Yoakum, the force is to be enlarged still more and the work is to be pushed forward with still greater speed, according to Robert Twoby who came up this morning from The Dalles.

An additional steam shovel was added to the equipment yesterday, making five on the job and three within a space of a mile. As soon as possible electric light plants are to be installed along the right or way and night shifts will be put on in order to hasten the work.

Though the uninitiated it appears that a great deal has been accomplished in a comparatively short time, the contractors do not seem to be entirely satisfied with the showing made and are anxious to complete the work as soon as possible. Mr. Twoby stated this morning that he thought their part of the work would be finished in October, though this is only an estimate.

MANY KILLED IN BIG WRECK.

Rosa. The injured were taken in various directions, making the list of names difficult to obtain. Owing to the way in which the coaches were piled the work of rescue was extremely difficult and at midnight there were bodies still in the wreckage.

Within two hours after the wreck occurred W. A. Palmer, general manager of the road; J. H. Hunter, superintendent, and a corps of physicians from neighboring towns and at least 50 automobiles visited the wreck.

scene of the wreck during the evening and the owners assisted in carrying the injured away and jumped to the aid of the rescuers whenever an opportunity offered. William Kent, Congressman Duncan McKinley and Judge Thomas Lennon were among those to volunteer their services. A huge bonfire was lighted to help the rescuers. By this light it was seen that still more bodies were at the bottom of the wreckage. The best information was that there were three bodies still buried at midnight.

The conductor of the special was hysterical and was unable to explain how he happened to run into the regular passenger. The order, it is understood, was that the special should wait at Ignacio for those injured were riding in the smoking car of the passenger train. They were residents of Petaluma, Santa Rosa and other nearby towns, and several, it is reported, were delegates to the state convention of the Red Men, which meets at Santa Rosa tomorrow.

Trains Under Speed.

The wreck occurred at a curve a mile and a half south of this place. The passenger train was traveling at a speed of 40 miles an hour and the special, composed of the engine and caboose of a work train, was also going at a fair speed. It is a mystery as yet how the work train happened to be in the path of the regular train.

At the office of the dispatcher of the Northwestern Pacific the information was given out that one of the conductors had made a mistake in his orders and failed to take a siding.

Suddenly the passengers were jerked forward by the quick shutting down of the brakes and at the same time there came a terrific impact and the sound of escaping steam. The two engines had plunged into each other's throats and the passenger's weight had crushed the baggage car and the smoker together so that two thirds of the smoker was telescoped. The engines were on end, snarling.

When the dazed passengers made their way out of the three rear coaches, which were unharmed, they found a pathetic scene. It was light enough to see plainly. From the smoking car came shrieks and groans and a waving of blood stained arms. It seemed as though the passengers in the smoker—between 25 and 30—had been caught in a sitting position and those who were not killed were pinned in so by the weight over the legs that they were unable to help themselves or their neighbors in misfortune.

A few men made their way out of the panic stricken throng to the forward end of the smoker where the greatest damage had been done. They had no tools but they tried by unaided strength to pull away the windows and jumbled timbers. In that mass of wood and flesh, however, there was little movement.

Work on the rear half of the smoker was easier. Some of the rescuers scattered to nearby houses to telephone for help, while others sought to get the injured out of the wreck. One man was lying at the side of the track with his head gone.

Another man was sitting in a window of the smoker, dead, an expression of mingled wonder and pain on his face. The messenger, a young man of the name of Emerson, was found dead. Engineer Reynolds of the passenger train was injured and a quick examination of the wreck of the freight car showed the dead bodies of the engineer and the fireman.

F. A. Myers of Petaluma, was one of the passengers. He was in a rear coach and was unharmed. He said that he had two friends on the train who went forward to smoke a short time before the collision, and that he was unable to find them. They were William Poehiman and George Riley of Petaluma. Twelve injured are being brought to the Taylor sanatorium in San Francisco.

INSURGENTS IN PERSIA DEFEATED IN BATTLE

Teheran, Persia, Aug. 9.—Twelve are dead and the nationalist leader Satar Khan is imprisoned as a result of an outbreak between the government and insurgent forces. Three hundred are in dungeons.

The rebels made attack upon the guards in the northern part of the capital and were forced to retreat before reinforcements of Sentaïd guards until they were driven into a stone enclosure. A bombardment compelled the insurgents to surrender.
