NEWS AND VIEWS FROM OLD LONDON

London, Aug. 12.—Although there will be no such demonstrations as Spain has experienced during the past few weeks in connection with her church and state problem, England's political leaders are growing more alarmed over a similar condition in this country.

There are twenty-six archbishops and bishops among the members of the upper chamber of the British Parliament, the heads of the church, the archbishop of Canterbury and York, and a great number of bishops being appointed by the political leaders of the country.

Recent local legislation in England which forbids factory owners to permit black smoke to issue from chimneys does not touch the equally stout smoke from the soft coal used in millions of old-fashioned English ranges and kitchen ranges.

Several of the leading religious periodicals have been making investigations into the spiritual and moral conditions of London society with a view to finding out whether or not London is growing more wicked than ever.

Although the coronation of King George is nearly a year away, already biroscope camera firms are beginning to fight for the leading places in which to take pictures of the great ceremony and the attendant pageant.

Disagreeable at Home. Lots of men and women who are agreeable with others, get "cranky" at home. Its not disposition, its the liver. If you find in yourself that you feel cross around the house, little things worry you, just buy a bottle of Ballar's Herbine and put your liver in shape.

PRICE OF HOGS IS LOWER BY 50 CTS.

STILL SEL LFOR $2 CWT. MORE THAN IN OMAMA Trade Able to Land Nebraska Hogs Here Today at $8.95 for Corn Fed—Poor Stuff Brings Cattle Lower.

Portland Union Stockyards, Aug. 12.—Hogs were weaker and 50c lower today. The importation of eastern hogs at lower prices is entirely responsible for the lowering of values here, but even at this time, Portland is today paying nearly $2 a hundred pounds more than producers receive at South Omaha.

For instance the price at South Omaha yesterday was $7.85 for best quality. It costs $1.10 per hundred pounds to bring hogs from Omaha to the Pacific coast; therefore the swine can be landed here at $8.95.

Poor Cattle Hurt Trade. While the market continues, to show excellent form for selected cattle—if such quality was offering—only poor stuff has put in appearance in the North Portland yards recently.

Some of the stuff coming forward in the cattle market is nothing more than feeders and are not fit to kill. This stuff should be kept at home and fed and higher prices would be realized besides helping out the general situation.

Cattle prices are fully 25c off in the yards today because of the influx of poor quality but the decline is shown for all grades.

Among the Shippers. Cattle—J. H. Phirman, Grass Valley, Or., one load; F. L. Turley, Baker City, two loads.

Sheep—C. Leiser, Creswell, Or., two loads; R. E. L. Brown, Wellstone, Or., four loads; C. H. Percival, Independence, two loads.

Mixed Stocks—J. Kinsman, Willows, one load cattle-hogs; J. S. Flint, Junction City, one load cattle-calves-hogs.

THE WHEAT MARKET EARLY DELIVERIES QUIT FOR THE MAY

Market Closes Higher—Opening Almost Lifeless. Chicago, Aug. 12.—Wheat market closed 1-4c to 1-2c above yesterday. Liverpool opened 1d to 1-18d higher and closed with an advance of 5-8 to 3-4d.

There was no news of importance in the wheat trade today and the opening here was almost lifeless. In the September there was an advance of 1-4c at the start, in December values were unchanged, while May showed a loss of 1-4c.

The only feature of note in today's trading was the inclination of September and December interests to get into the May option. While this delivery was the only one that showed weakness at the start, it closed with the best advance over yesterday.

FARMERS FLOOD MARKET. Fear of Probable Slump in Wheat Prices Causes Selling. Walla Walla, Wash.—Half a million bushels of grain have been sold in this city so far this season, and the farmers seem anxious to get rid of their wheat.

Dayton, Wash.—This week will see harvest practically finished in the four counties south of Snake river and the returns to date places the crop in Columbia county at 2,500,000 bushels or 80 per cent of an average.

WASHINGTON GETS MOST BEND WHEAT CROP

Olympia.—There are 157,918 children of school age in 22 of the 37 counties of the State of Washington, according to figures given out by State Superintendent Henry E. Dewey. The figures are compiled from reports returned by the counties of the school census taken last June.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL CENSUS SHOWS GAIN

The total enrollment in these counties was 123,097, as compared with 118,190. The average daily attendance shows a marked increase. In 1909 it was 88,130, while this year it was 90,595.
