Secton House Near Umatilla Wrapped in Flames While Inmates Sleep- $450. Three Badly Burned in Making Escape-Brought to Pendleton,

(Special Correspondence.)

Umatilla, Ore., Aug. 13 .- Three Greek section hands were badly burned and narrowly escaped with their lives, while two others had close calls, last night when fire destroyed the section house in which they were living. The three injured are suffering from severe burns about the face, arms and lower limbs and were taken to the hospital in Pendleton this morning

Yardmaster Thompson who lives in | a house near that occupied by the Greeks was the first to discover the fire. This was about 11:30 and the entire structure was then nearly enveloped in flames. The Greeks, however, were still sleeping and must surely have been burned to death in > Pasco Yardmaster Crushed. Night Yardmaster Long of Pasco was probably fatally injured at that place last night. He was standing alongside the track when a car load of heavy timbers was bumped into with such force that the standards were broken, allowing the timbers to be toppled over onto the yardmaster. He was pinioned beneath the mass and though the lower part of his body was crushed he retained consciousness and begged his fellow employes to kill him instead of trying to take him out alive. He was rushed to Tacoma for treatment.
