Countess Helps Cousins, London.—The Countess de Matuschka, who was Miss Walker of Walkerville, Detroit, and whose marriage has proved one of the happiest of the American-European alliances, despite its childlessness, has adopted two little cousins of her husband. The two girls, the elder of whom is fifteen, are being educated entirely at the countess's expense, and they are under the charge of resident French and English governesses. Learned professors have been called in to instruct the children in all kinds of scientific knowledge, from astronomy to botany. The elder girl is good looking and the younger exceptionally bright. AT THE PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.
A good program for Fridays change:
1. The Legend of Scar Face. Kalem. 1000 feet long. Through the power of the Great Spirit, in whom the Indians have great faith, Scar Face is transformed and aided in his wonderful feats of daring, whereby he eventually reaches the coveted goal and wins his bride.
2. The Woman in the Case. Melies. 1000 feet long. Another cracker-jack subject of western life which contains some excellent riding.
3. Tommy Gets His Sister Married. Pathe. Possibly the methods used by this enterprising young gentleman would scarcely be satisfactory to the average unmarried female, but they worked in this particular instance, and, having succeeded in his endeavor, Tommy is happy.
Song—Call Me Up Some Rainy Afternoon.
The Pastime.
Program for Fridays change as follows:
"Unexpected Help." Biograph. Drama. 1000 feet. How strong an incentive a sixshooter in the hands of a determined individual may be is graphically illustrated in this picture. It is unsafe to tamper with one's weakness.
"Through the Enemy's Line." Drama. A war story of much interest full of thrilling and exciting situations.
"Pekin, the Walled City." Educational. At rip to the mysterious old city of Pekin. This is an excellent piece of work.
"A Personal Matter." Essayay. Comedy. A laugh provoking comedy.
"A Fair Exchange." Essayay. Comedy. A good one, palatable and refreshing.

COAST LEAGUE.
Los Angeles 8, Sacramento 2.
Los Angeles, Aug. 18.—The Sacramento Senators arrived yesterday barely in time to get out to Chutee park and take an 8 to 2 drubbing at the hands of the Angels. Nourse was knocked out of the box in the fourth inning and Bryan, who took his place, blanked the home team in the succeeding innings. Score:

Portland, Ore., Aug. 18.—Portland's winning streak came to an end yesterday when Oakland defeated them by a 1 to 0 score. The game was a pitcher's battle and would have doubtlessly been prolonged had Fish been able to hold Krapp. It was his inability at a critical stage of the game that gave Oakland their run. Portland 0 3 1
Lively and Thomas; Krapp and Fisher.

San Francisco 8, Vernon 0.
San Francisco, Aug. 18.—Revengeing themselves for the defeat Tuesday, San Francisco administered an 8 to 0 drubbing to Vernon yesterday, driving Schaefer out of the box in the seventh inning and continuing the bombardment on Willett who took his place. Four hits and lively work on the bases netted four runs in the fourth inning; a fifth was added in the fifth inning without the necessity of hitting the ball, and four more came in the seventh, driven in by four hits. Score:
