NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

Logger is Killed.
Astoria.—Henry Savage, employed as a hooktender at Brox's logging camp at Deep River, Wash., was killed Monday when a log rolled over him. He was about 30 years of age and leaves a wife and child. He was a native of Kentucky.

Attell Defeats Marino.
Calgary, Alberta.—Abe Attell, champion featherweight of the world, won a decision over Eddie Marino of Seattle in a lively 15 round bout here Monday night. The general opinion in Calgary today is that the scrap was the best ever seen in the Canadian northwest, though some believe Attell could have disposed of Marino in quicker time. The fight was staged in an open air arena under the most adverse weather conditions.

Portland Man Dies in Surf.
Astoria.—Jacob Gannoner of Portland proprietor of the Bismarck restaurant died Monday of heart failure, while bathing in the surf at Long Beach. He was on his summer vacation with his family. He was noticed floating with his head under water, and when brought ashore was dead. The deceased was 38 years of age and leaves a widow and five children. The deceased was a large man weighing about 235 pounds and was subject to heart trouble.

Grain Makes Good Yield.
Elberton Wash.—Despite the dry weather wheat and oats in this section are turning out exceedingly good and are far exceeding the expectations earlier in the season. Wheat is yielding from 24 to 40 bushels an acre. The largest yield of oats reported so far was threshed on the farm of Andrew Stafne four miles west of this place. Off of 130 acres Mr. Stafne threshed 2900 sacks, which would bring the yield to 70 bushels per acre. Threshing will be over in this section in from 10 days to two weeks.

Orchards on Weston Mountain.
Weston, Ore.—Over 100 acres will be set out this fall in apple orchards on the Weston mountains, and as the canvassing is still being continued, it is probable that this number of acres will be doubled or more before the season is ended. As an apple raising country the mountains east and south of Weston have no superior and it is only of late that efforts in the direction of making a specialty of apple orchards have been undertaken. Irrigation is not necessary, sub-irrigation supplying all needed moisture.

Italian Laborer Shoots Enemy.
Kalama Wash.—George Debolli, an Italian, shot and seriously wounded Antonia Massa Saturday night and was captured by Sheriff Carnine near Kelso. He had a gun and considerable money. He confessed the shooting saying Massa had stolen money from him. His reason for trying to kill him. This is discredited and it is said Massa was a leader of an Italian organization, and falling to carry out some instructions given him, Debolli was hired to put him out of the way. Massa is in a Tacoma hospital, reported improving.

Separator is Blown Up.
Ho, Idaho.—A threshing separator belonging to Gus Carley, threshing on the James Marker place, between Ho and Nez Perce, exploded, caused from dust, and burned. No one was present at the machine at the time of the accident. When the fire was discovered telephone messages were sent to Nez Perce for help to fight the fire, and three automobile loads of men arrived and helped put out the fire in the standing grain, which was burning furiously. Only about two acres of wheat was destroyed. No insurance on separator.

E. H. Gary Was Not There.
London.—Judge E. H. Gary head of the Steel Trust wishes it to be understood that while he might have enjoyed the game of poker which Lady Paget is reported to have played hostess and winner last July he was not a participant for the simple reason that he was not present. The name in question is said to have been of such an interesting character that it has considerably revived the popularity of poker in London.

Wallace, Ida., Aug. 23.—Three hundred government fire fighters are missing in the Coeur d'Alenes. This appalling information was given out by Supervisor Weigle, who declared he has 600 men in the field, 300 of whom are unaccounted for. They worked in the hottest places and it is believed they have perished.

You can not always trust the motives of the man who thinks he can tell you all about the motives of the Most High.

FOX TERRIER FIGHTS LION SINGLE-HANDED.
London.—Simba, the pluckiest fox terrier in the world, and the only dog of its breed which has ever tackled a full-grown lion "single-handed," is returning to London, her birthplace, from British East Africa.

The story of how Simba fought the lion is told by Cherry Kearton, the dog's master, who has just returned from the Kenya district of British East Africa with a number of cinematograph pictures of wild animals. Simba is an ordinary fox terrier of no special value from a breeder's point of view, and was, in fact, taken out of the Battersea Dogs' home by "Buffalo" Jones, of lion-lassing fame, who gave her to Mr. Kearton.

Simba's fight with the lion took place when Mr. Kearton was trying to obtain pictures of the killing of a lion by native spearmen. Two lions had been located in some scrub, and 20 Masai warriors, with spears, were ready to attack. The lions, however, escaped and the male lion, after appearing for a moment bolted into a dried river bed and refused to budge.

"Simba," said Mr. Kearton, "darted into the donga, and within a few seconds we heard a tremendous roar which seemed to shake the ground, and the bushes within twelve yards of us were violently agitated. The lion roared again and again, and in the brief intervals we heard the weak but very furious yapping of the dog. The Masai stood, every nerve tingling, with spears poised.

"Suddenly the lion dashed through a little clearing and we were amazed to see Simba hanging on with her teeth embedded in its tail. Three spears were hurled at the scowling beast, with such accuracy that they all transfixed the heart, and the lion fell dead. You must know that the skin of the lion belongs, according to local custom, not to the warrior whose spear inflicts the fatal wound, but to the man who first rushes in and cuts off the black top from the tail.

"Two of the three spearmen dashed into the donga, but they found Simba with the black tip still between her teeth, resolutely determined to oppose any hostile claim. The spearmen, who were lost in admiration, agreed that the skin belonged by right of seizure to Simba, and they handed it over later to my wife as trustee for the dog."
