NOTED CASTLE FOR AN AMERICAN WOMAN

London.—Another old English castle may soon feel the revivifying effect of American gold. Already Mrs. James Henry Smith of New York has taken Broughton Castle, in Oxfordshire for the season, and is trying to buy it. She will go there in September. With her will be her daughter, the Duchess of Vizeu, and the Duke, who, when he married Anita Stewart last year was better known as Prince Miguel of Braganza.

Although Mrs. Smith is exceedingly rich, the rental asked for the castle was so enormous that she delayed signing a deed until more satisfactory terms were reached. She has long had a great liking for the place, and when Lord Alington Gordon Lennox's lease expires she hopes to purchase it.

A great moat always filled with water, now seldom seen in England, surrounds the castle, and the drawbridges are there as in the olden days, though more modern ways of reaching the entrance have been provided. Some magnificent war trophies and old treasures will the rooms and hallways, and the state dining room is one of the finest in England. If she buys the castle, Mrs. Smith will endeavor to get its contents intact.

Good Results Always Follow The use of Foley Kidney Pills. Mr. W. H. Collins, Galesburg, Ill., tells us they helped him. "I have been troubled with kidney and bladder trouble for a long time and passed a brick dust sediment. Foley Kidney Pills were recommended to me so I gave them a trial, and got excellent results. The pains in my bladder and kidneys were relieved, and I passed no more brick dust like substance. Since taking Foley Kidney Pills I feel much better than I have for a long time and can heartily recommend them." A. C. Koepfen & Bros.

Fire Chiefs in Session. Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Syracuse is today the best risk in the country for the fire insurance companies. The "fire demon" is expected to give the city a wide berth during the next four days, owing to the presence here of fire chiefs of nearly all the larger cities of the United States and Canada. Fire fighters from Birmingham, England, and Dublin, Ireland, are also in attendance at the convention opened today by the International Association of Fire Chiefs.

Automobile fire apparatus, which is now in use in many cities, will be demonstrated and discussed during the meeting. Chief Croker of New York, will discuss "High Pressure Fire Service," and other chiefs have been assigned important topics. Chief George Horton, of the Baltimore fire department, is the present president of the association.

COUPLE LIVE 6 YEARS WITHOUT SPEAKING

New York.—Think of being married to and living with a man for six years without even passing the time of day without saying a word, excepting about once a week saying, "Where's my money?"

That was the condition of Alfred and Pauline Lothes of Jersey City, as set forth in the complaint filed by the wife before Vice-Chancellor Garrison in her suit for separate maintenance.

The Lothes were married on July 15, 1888, and lived together twenty-two years ago. They lived together happily, with an occasional spat to season their affection, until six years ago. Then one bright morning up came a subject at the breakfast table upon which they could not agree.

Alfred held to his own opinion to show that he was a regular man, and Pauline was stubborn and wouldn't give in. Neither thought it was a matter of serious moment, yet neither cared to say the first word.

Now six years have elapsed and it is said that neither husband nor wife can remember the cause of their trouble—it was so trivial.

Lothes was surprised when he learned that his wife had filed suit for separation. He will oppose it to the utmost.
