WATER LANDS IN GOOSE LAKE VALLEY

Lakeview, Or.—Goose Lake valley is to have a new irrigation project. Work was started this week when a large crew of men left here to begin construction of a dam at the mouth of Dry creek, where the stream leaves the hills and enters the valleys. The walls at this point rise to a considerable height. The Wheeler reservoir company intends to impound sufficient water to cover 10,000 acres which can be done at comparatively small cost to the landowners of that portion of the valley.

This is another link in the chain that will ultimately result in the drainage of Goose lake and the completion of the Nevada, California & Oregon railway which is now building near the lower end of the lake to Lakeview via the west side of the valley. This will mean the opening of many thousands of acres of the most fertile portion of the valley to settlement and transportation.

THE WHEAT MARKET

DULL MARKET BRIGHTENED BY TRADING OF DAY

Chicago Wheat Pit Sees No Surprising Changes in Situation—Liverpool Buying Still Goes On.

Chicago, Aug. 25.—There was no special feature to the wheat market this morning. One commission house appears to have selling orders in September but the bulls are not worrying. The Minneapolis market had a weak time.

Wheat in Liverpool was steady on American cables and there was a good deal of buying, attributable to the unsettled weather conditions in France. Corn opened with a show of firmness that was soon lost on selling by some of the larger commission houses.

WINS MILLION DOLLARS JUST BY KINDLY DEED

McDonald, Pa.—Word has come from Texas that the will of John Ennis, who recently died at Corpus Christi, leaves all his estate, valued at $1,000,000 to his wife during her life and at her death it is to be equally divided between Boyce Rankin and his wife, Nancy Ferguson Rankin.

This uncovers a romantic tale of the McDonald oil fields of 20 years ago. Jack Ennis, who has just died worth a million, was then a very poor teamster without credit. Rankin, who was clerk in a feed store, took pity on Ennis and extended him credit for horse feed at a time when credit was needed. Ennis declared he would make Rankin his heir for this, and some time later, he struck oil on his own account and when a small fortune rushed to the then opening Beaumont oil fields of Texas, where he quadrupled his money and retired to Corpus Christi, building an immense pleasure resort hotel and bathing pavilion.

In the meantime Rankin, still a poor man had married Nancy Fernis and two years later Ennis came north and found Rankin at Cambridge City, Ind., and offering him double salary and a life position if he would take charge of his Corpus Christi business interests, which quickly carried the Rankin family off to Texas, where they have since been.

KEEP CHILD IN CAGE TO PROTECT MORALS

Frankfort, Ind.—Charged with cruel treatment of their son, Ora Lewis and wife, living near here, are in jail. They are accused not only of neglecting the boy, but keeping him in a wire cage while they were away from home.

Probation officers who investigated the case say the child was placed in the cage and was almost starved. Lewis says he is determined to rear the boy according to his ideas and that he had him in the cage at times to keep him from associating with undesirable children. He and his wife were held under heavy bonds.

Very Little in Common.
"And how old are you, little girl?"
"Six."
"And how is it you are out walking without your mamma?"
"Oh mamma doesn't go in for exercise. Really, we have very little in common."
