HOGS TAKE A STEP UPWARD IN MARKET

PRICE IS QUOTED 25 CENTS HIGHER

Sale of One Lot Is Made at $10—Additional Supplies Come From Nebraska—Cattle and Sheep Start Slowly.

Portland Union Stockyards, North Portland, Or., Aug. 23.—An improvement in the demand for hogs came with the start of the week—likewise an improvement in the price. For the day the hog market here shows an advance of 25c over previous quotations. One lot of 98 head went at $10 during the morning.

Shipments of hogs from the east continue and over Sunday five loads were brought into the yards from Nebraska. The swine were purchased prior to arrival by the Union Meat company.

Outside of the hog market a dull feeling ruled in the yards today. There was a good showing of sheep over Sunday, total arrivals being 978 head. Best wethers are quoted at a range of $4 to $4.15, while light ewes range around $3.25 and $3.50, according to quality. Heavy ewes are generally quoted around $5.

One lot of eight loads of cattle came in late in the day from southern Oregon. The total number of arrivals in that line consisted of 217 head, together with 23 head of calves. Cattle trade was slow.

Among the Shippers, W. G. Odell had a load of sheep offering from The Dalles on today's market.

D. T. Ketchum shipped two loads of sheep from the same place.

W. B. Kurtz was another shipper from the Cherry City. He was offering a load of hogs in the yards.

H. A. Logstrom shipped a load of hogs from Winona, Wash.

Marion Hager had a mixed load of cattle and sheep from Creswell, Or.

J. E. Fulton & Co., had eight loads of cattle from Roseburg on today's market.

Today's run of livestock compares with this day in recent years as follows:

Year.	Hogs.	Cattle.	Sheep.
1910	617	240	954
1909	113	38	365
1908	150	115	...
1907	...	100	...
1906	...	38	223
1905	...	38	300

A year ago today there was a firm tone in hogs, but cattle and sheep were weak, with a tendency toward lower values.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness. When the kidneys are out of order or diseased, the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonials received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Paris.—The story of a goat's $200 meal has been brought before the courts, the chief actors being a goat, a wealthy woman and a she-goat, now deceased. The woman was walking in the Causard quarter counting some money which she had just drawn out of the bank, when 1000 franc ($200) bill was blown out of her grasp. It was picked up by a passing goat, the lady was about to hand it to the lady, when one of his flock snatched it away, and goat-like, ate it.

The lady accused the goat herd of having deliberately given the bill to the goat, and had him taken before the nearest magistrate. To prove his honesty the goat herd offered to sacrifice the goat which was accordingly slaughtered at the local abattoir. Fragments of the bill were found in the goat's interior, but as the number is still decipherable, the lady will recover her money.

Having demonstrated his honesty, the goat herd demanded that the lady should indemnify him for the loss of his goat. This she refused to do, and the man has applied to the court, to settle the question.

DICKENS CELEBRATION IS PLANNED FOR 1912

London—America and England are joining in a scheme for a great Dickens celebration in 1912, the centenary of the novelist's birth. Representative men of both countries will form a committee to settle the details of the scheme.

One suggestion put forward is based on the estimate that there are 24,000,000 copies of Dickens' works in existence. It is proposed that a Dickens testimonial stamp should be printed and sold through booksellers in England and America for one penny or two cents. If even a fraction of the owners of Dickens' works bought and affixed one of these stamps to each volume the total sum would be very large. It is suggested that the sum thus raised should be handed over to the Dickens family. There are three children and 17 grand children of Dickens now living, and some of them are in very poor circumstances.

Be sure and take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with you when starting on your trip this summer. It cannot be obtained on board the trains or steamers. THE WHEAT MARKET

SHORT COVERING A HELP TO DECEMBER

Opens Higher While Others Are Weak All Day; Huge World's Shipments.

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Short covering in the December occasioned by short covering, weakens all day in other options, due to the huge world's shipments, caused a mixed feeling in the wheat market today.

Armour purchased considerable December through brokers, according to indications and some of the "tailors" likewise started to even up their accounts.

There was a firmer tone abroad. At Liverpool opening figures were 1-20 to 5-8d higher and the closing 3-4d to 1-18d above yesterday. Paris had an advance of 10 centimes at today's opening.

Minneapolis advices told of liberal purchases of wheat by big millers at the opening of the market, there and cash demand is generally good. Flour sales are large.

World shipments: Wheat, 14,302,000 bushels compared with 3,790,000 bushels a year ago; corn, 3,337,000 bushels compared with 3,337,000 bushels. Russian wheat shipments, 4,848,000 bushels Danuban 4,352,000 bushels. Wheat on passage increased 1192,000 bushels; corn decreased 110,000 bushels.

There was an unconfirmed report that Winnipeg was working 300,000 bushels of wheat for export.

MIGHTY GOOD FISHING DOWN IN PORTO RICO

Washington.—Oysters grow on trees in Porto Rico, fish that never yet had the honor of mention on expensive restaurant menus unsuspectingly in the waters of Porto Rico; fish of hitherto unknown varieties will eat out of the angler's hand in Porto Rico; fish of every kind and description are waiting to be caught in Porto Rico.

All the foregoing is described in a report to the bureau of insular affairs from San Juan. The angler might try this, from the report of the bureau, on his rod and reel.

At one port the following food fish are taken by hand, hook and line or trolling: Candil, red goat; Spanish mackerel, ten to ten pounds; King fish ten to 40 pounds; runner, cabra mora, nassau grouper, red hind, toro red grouper five to 100 pounds; pargo prieto, five to 30 pounds; dog snapper, five to 30 pounds; school master, red snapper, mutton fish, lane snapper, mangate yellow tail, pluma, two to eight pounds; chopa amarilla, one pound; red goat, five to eight pounds; blue parrot, three to eight pounds; trunk fish, one to four pounds; robalo, five to 25 pounds, and balaju, one fourth to three fourths pounds.

Oysters in Trees. As for oysters, Captain John H. Kerr of Baltimore, who is in Porto Rico looking over the fishing field, is authority for the declaration that they grow on trees and the report to the bureau of insular affairs says:

"Oysters of good flavor are quite plentiful on the south side of the island; they are usually attached to the roots and lower branches of the mangrove trees at the shore."

In spite of all these conditions, the report shows that Porto Rico imported more than $654,000 worth of dried fish last year and exported none.
