BRYAN BOLTS
STATE TICKETAnnounces That He Will Not
Support Dahlgren for Governor.ALLEGIANCE TO COUNTY
OPTION PRECLUDES IT"Peerless Leader" Regrets That He Is Compelled to Take Stand But Feels
It Is His Duty—Position of Democratic Nominee on Liquor Question
Prevents Him From Giving Assistance—Statement Is Apologetic in Tone.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 21.—In a statement in which he declares that the crusade which he feels impelled to wage against the liquor interests of the state and nation overshadows a personal and political friendship of 30 years, William J. Bryan last evening announced he had bolted the head of the democratic ticket in Nebraska and would not support James C. Dahlgren for governor.

Mr. Bryan says he regrets that he is compelled to take the stand he does—his first departure from political regularity—but says he feels it his duty to do so because of the position taken by the democratic nominee on the liquor question.

The statement, which in a way is apologetic in tone, does not indicate that Mr. Bryan will support the candidate of any other party, but announces that he is a pronounced advocate of county option and the early closing law, both of which he insists are menaced by Mr. Dahlgren's candidacy. The statement follows:

"I am just leaving for Missouri, and shall be absent practically all of the time for about a month, campaigning in Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Indiana and Illinois. After that I shall be at liberty to speak for Mr. Hitchcock, the democratic candidate for congress, and for the state ticket in Nebraska.

"In speaking for the state ticket, however, I shall not be able to present any argument in favor of the election of Mr. Dahlgren. His position on the liquor question makes that impossible. I regret this exceedingly, for he has been a political and personal friend for 30 years, and it would give me great pleasure if I could endorse the policy for which he stands, but he has chosen to make the liquor question the paramount issue, and make his appeal on that issue.

"In spite of the fact that the latest democratic state convention voted down a declaration against county option by a vote of 638 to 202, he says that he will veto a county option bill if passed, and in spite of the fact that the state convention endorsed the 8 o'clock closing law by a vote of 710 to 163, he announces that he will sign a bill repealing it if such a bill is passed.

"He is making his appeal on non-partisan lines with the liquor question as the sole issue. His courage is to be commended. It is an honest way of making a campaign, although it compels him to separate himself from friends who do not agree with him and to rely for support on those who do. He is a man of courage and a man of principle who takes his view of the subject.

"Possibly it is just as well to have the issue clearly presented so that it may be settled this year instead of two years hence. Troublesome as the question is now, it would even be more embarrassing if presented in 1912 when we have a presidential election on hand.

"If Mr. Dahlgren is elected, it will be a declaration of the voters of the state against county option and against the 8 o'clock closing law. If he is defeated it will be a declaration in favor of county option and in favor of the 8 o'clock closing law. In other words, the voters now have an opportunity to decide whether the state shall go backward or forward on the liquor question.

"To present arguments in favor of going backward would only contradict what statements I expect to make hereafter to save our party from the odium of being the representative of liquor interests."

LANGFORD AND JOHNSON WILL SIGN FOR FIGHT.

Boston, Sept. 21.—Sam Langford and Jack Johnson will meet in the offices of a local newspaper today to arrange for a match for the world's heavyweight championship. Johnson demands a forfeit of $20,000 to go as a side bet and Langford says he will be on hand with the coin. Langford said today he would fight Johnson in an airplane or anywhere else just so he can fight.

GRAIN HANDLERS IN PORTLAND ON STRIKE

Portland, Sept. 21.—One hundred and fifty grain handlers did not show up for work today and say they will stay out until the wage dispute with shippers is settled. Under their agreement which expired in April the unionists received 35 cents an hour, and fifty cents for overtime. They demand an increase of five cents an hour with sixty cents for overtime. Representatives of the Balfour Guthrie company said today they will not ship any more grain from Portland but will ship from Tacoma until the matter is settled.

TWENTY-FIVE KILLED IN TERRIBLE WRECK

Fort Wayne, Ind., Sept. 21.—Twenty-five people were killed in a head-on collision between two Wabash Valley traction cars this afternoon near Kingsland and a number injured. Among the known dead are Del Locke and Seymour Robison, prominent democratic politicians of Indiana.

"TARIFF NEEDS NO
DEFENSE," CANNONUNCLE JOE ACCEPTS
CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONRefuses to Defend Payne-Aldrich Bill
—Says It Is in Keeping With Policy of Protection Which Has Brought Prosperity to Nation.

Danville, Ill., Sept. 21.—I will not defend the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill because it needs none," wrote Speaker Cannon today when accepting the congressional nomination. "The law is an enactment of the pledges of the republican convention of 1908 and it is in keeping with the policy of protection the party has maintained since the days of Lincoln." After discussing the commercial and industrial conditions, he continued: "The democratic tariff did not produce revenue enough. It was directly responsible for the depression that resulted in the failures amounting to more than a billion dollars in Cleveland's four years as president. My notion of progress is that it should be a movement forward and not loud noise and promises to accelerate it."

COMMUNITY IS AROUSED
OVER BLOODY BUTCHERY

Phoenixville, Pa., Sept. 21.—Possessors are seeking for Tom Baker accused of slaying Mrs. John Saus, and her three babies, Mary aged 4, May aged 1, and Charles aged 4, today. The dead bodies were found at their home with their heads crushed and a bloody club nearby. Robbery is supposed to have been the motive. A child's bank containing forty-five dollars and a bank note showing $800 deposited are missing. Feeling is high, and a lynching is talked of.

Plan Brewery Exposition.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—One year from today, Sept. 21, 1911, is the date set for the opening of the largest exhibition of beer, ale and other malt products, brewing materials and machinery ever held anywhere outside of Germany. The Coliseum has already been engaged for the big exposition of the brewing industry. Carl M. Gottfried, a wealthy Chicago brewer, is at the head of the project. The promoters expect that the exposition will "serve to exert a far reaching education effect upon the general public." The announcement adds: "The time seems peculiarly fit for bringing to the attention of the public the methods and materials employed in the production of beer, about which so many false opinions are abroad, and for impressing upon the public mind the meaning of true temperance by practical object lessons, so as to suggest additional means for the permanent and effective adjustment of the so-called drink question."

Iowa Municipal League.

Waterloo, Ia., Sept. 21.—To improve and beautify the cities of Iowa, while at the same time effecting economies in the cost of government, is the object of the Iowa League of Municipalities, which convened in annual session today. Mayors and other officials to the number of more than a hundred are in attendance.

Where Andre Landed.

New York, Sept. 21.—An historic spot on the west shore of the Hudson, where Andre, the spy, landed 130 years ago today, Sept. 21, 1780, has been brought to public notice by the erection of a large sign. The inscription is so large that it may be read with a glass from passing vessels.

TAWNEY GIVEN
KNOCKOUT BLOWMinnesota Representative Defeated at the Primaries by Insurgent.OTHER CONGRESSMEN
ARE RENOMINATEDAnother Decisive Blow Given to Standpatters by Defeat of Cannon's
Right Hand Man—Has Served State
For Eighteen Years in House and Was Chairman of Committee on Appropriations—Nye Wins Out After Hard Fight.

Minneapolis, Sept. 21.—James Tawney, chairman of the house committee on appropriations and Speaker Cannon's right hand man, was defeated for renomination to congress in the first district yesterday by a plurality of 300 by his opponent Sidney Anderson, an insurgent. Tawney virtually conceded his defeat today. He was openly supported by Taft's administration.

The fight which led up to the primaries yesterday was the most bitter in which Congressman Tawney has figured in his 18 years as representative from the first district. Anderson, a young lawyer residing at Lanesboro, came into the opposition to Tawney late but immediately began his whirlwind campaign. It was fought entirely along insurgent lines.

He fought Tawney as Cannonite, the only man in the Minnesota delegation who voted for the tariff bill, and an enemy of Roosevelt.

The address of the ex-president at the St. Paul conservation congress in which he struck directly at Tawney served as another bomb for Anderson.

On Labor Day, at Rochester, Gifford Pinchot delivered an address unsolicited, it was claimed, in which he attacked the record of Tawney. The latter's reply to this attack in which he charged Pinchot with improper use of public money and with defeating the free lumber tariff bill, proved Mr. Tawney's only speech in the primaries.

Returns from 260 of the 271 precincts have been received. Congressman Nye in the fifth district was renominated after a hard fight and also Congressman Stevens.

Insurgents Are Jubilant.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Congressman Tawney's defeat in Minnesota is hailed as an important victory by the insurgents. They consider Tawney next in power to Cannon and believe his views on conservation, which are opposed to Roosevelt and his allegiance to the present tariff caused his downfall. If the next house is republican it is predicted Smith of Iowa, will be chairman of the appropriations committee.

WEALTHY LUMBERMAN IS FOUND WITH THROAT CUT

Seattle, Sept. 21.—Detective Captain Tennant declared today that B. Cogger of Jefferson county, the lumberman found dead yesterday with his throat cut, was doubtless murdered. It is believed robbery was the motive. His widow declared her husband made about $20,000 yearly from the sale of logs, and that he had just drawn a large sum of money from the banks previous to his death.

Freight Handlers Convene.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 21.—The Brotherhood of Railroad Freight Handlers convened here today, with delegates representing all the local branches throughout the United States and Canada.

"BLACK DIAMOND," FAMOUS
BUCKER, HERE FOR ROUND-UP

"Black Diamond," the horse that has thrown every bronco buster that ever attempted to ride him, the worst bucking horse in the state of Oregon and believed to be a fit rival for the famous "Steamboat" and "Teddy Roosevelt," is already in Pendleton, ready for the "Roundup." He is the property of W. C. Gibbs who brought the horse in yesterday that he could be fed up especially for the big show.

Gibbs started with two other horses but they both succeeded in getting themselves cut up on the barb wire fences before reaching this city. Fortunately the famous "Black Diamond" was brought through safely and will be in prime condition for the frontier show.

In addition to the Gibbs horse four other buckers were secured yesterday.

Piecemeal River Improvements Inadequate—Censures Congressmen
Who Trade Votes to Get Benefits for Small Section of Country.

Cincinnati, Sept. 21.—Favoring river and harbor improvements but attacking the pork barrel method of making appropriations for such work, President Taft today made the principal address at the opening of the Ohio river dam. He said he saw no reason why the steamships could not run on schedules like trains and that he considered piecemeal river improvements inadequate. He said such a system encouraged other sections to make unnecessary demands for appropriations. He severely censured the methods of congressmen who get together to trade votes for river improvements which will benefit only a small section of the country but spend money put up by the whole.

"The cost of improving the Ohio river," said Taft, "will be upwards of $3,000,000. The plan is to appropriate sufficient money annually to complete the work in twelve years. I wish that congress had arranged to expend the money in a less time and complete the work more quickly. The completion is important for its immediate benefit commercially and also important to vindicate or discourage further investments of this kind in other directions."

ALLEGED SLAYERS OF OCEY SNEAD ON TRIAL

Newark, N. J., Sept. 21.—After three postponements the trial of Mrs. Caroline B. Martin and Mrs. Mary M. Snead, two of the three Wardlaw sisters who were accused of the murder of Mrs. Ocey Snead, the East Orange bathtub victim, is again set for today. One of the accused sisters died recently and this has resulted in a legal tangle that may cause another postponement.

On November 29 last the body of Ocey Snead was found in a bathtub of a house in East Orange. An investigation showed that the three elderly Wardlaw sisters held insurance on her life for large sums. They were then arrested and indicted. Miss Virginia Wardlaw, one of the defendants, became ill shortly after her incarceration in jail and died recently.

It is stated that the defense will introduce about eighty witnesses in an attempt to controvert the case of the prosecution. The evidence against the accused woman is very strong, according to the attorneys for the prosecution.

STEAMER PAY STREAK
WILL BE TOTAL LOSS

New Westminster, B. C., Sept. 21.—It was announced today that the steamer Paystreak, which ran on the rocks in Pitt river will be a total loss. It was built for passenger service four years ago at a cost of $24,000. Three passengers were aboard yesterday but none were drowned.

To Elect New Bishop.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 21.—A special diocesan convention was called today at St. John's church to elect a bishop to succeed the late Rev. William N. McVicker, D. D.

TEDDY AND SHERMAN HAVE EQUAL CHANCE

New York, Sept. 21.—Returns from the nominating delegates to the Saratoga convention indicate that the contest for control of the republican convention between Roosevelt and Sherman will be sharp. William Barnes claims Sherman's majority will be 55, while Lloyd Griscom, Roosevelt's lieutenant, asserts the colonel will have 70 majority. The latest figures make it likely that the majority will not be over 15 either way. The latest estimates of politicians show the regulars can count on 492 delegates. Roosevelt, according to this estimate, cannot count absolutely on more than 478. It requires 508 to control the convention. Sherman was defeated yesterday in his own ward and district.

It is believed the real fight will be in the resolutions committee. Roosevelt, Griscom, Fashett and Greiner, all members, will urge the adoption of a direct nomination plank. The speaker of the lower house of New York legislature will oppose it with Barnes.

NEAR BEER SELLERS
INDICTED BY JURYNAMES OF PARTIES KEPT
SECRET UNTIL ARRESTSAbout Twenty Dispensers of Imitation
Beer Under Ban of Law—Guilty May Not Mean Imprisonment.

In the neighborhood of 20 indictments were returned this afternoon by the grand jury which has been investigating alleged violations of the local option law since last Monday. The exact number of true bills returned nor the names of those under indictment have not yet been given out and probably will not be until after the sheriff has had time to make arrests.

It seems that the reports which were current on the streets yesterday were greatly exaggerated, since it is understood today that most of those indicted were Pendleton "near beer" dealers, there being complaints against, but few outside of this city. It is also understood that the law enforcing league's committee failed to visit all the near beer saloons in Pendleton, having passed up some of the largest ones.

According to District Attorney Phelps a conviction under the present indictments will not necessarily mean jail sentences. While it is probable that a moral interpretation of the law would call this a "second offense," it is possible of a different technical interpretation. The district attorney seems to be of the opinion that it will be interpreted as a "first" offense. This is due to the fact that the cases pending on appeal before the supreme court have not yet been decided. It is possible that those indicted this time will endeavor to delay a postponement of a hearing of their cases until after the supreme court decision is handed down.

The only indictment made public so far is the one against Dave Myers, who is accused of stealing a vacuum cleaner from his brother-in-law, Louis Cargill. Myers is now under arrest in Canada and will be brought back to Pendleton.

COMMERCE COMMISSION
ORDERS RATES SUSPENDED

Washington, Sept. 21.—The interstate commerce commission today ordered the suspension of the proposed increase of freight rates for middle west roads until January 1, 1911. The suspension affects nearly all roads entering Chicago.

Penologists in Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Buffalo will entertain the distinguished foreign penologists who are now visiting this country today and tomorrow. In addition to inspecting the jails of the city, the visitors will go on an excursion to Niagara Falls. From here the party will continue westward, stopping at several cities before proceeding to Washington early next month to take part in the International Prison Congress.

Michigan Mayors Meet.

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 21.—Mayors and other officials from nearly all the cities of Michigan arrived today to take part in the convention of the State League of Municipalities. A business session was held this afternoon, and the visitors will be given a theatre party tonight. A clam bake will be tomorrow's feature. The session will close Friday.

Signal System Suit.

New York, Sept. 21.—Alleging that the signal system installed in the new Pennsylvania and Long Island tunnels is an infringement of their patent, the Kinsman Block System company today applied for an injunction against the Pennsylvania Tunnel and Terminal company and the Union Switch and Signal company.

London, Sept. 21.—An enraged mob surrounded Ethel Leneve, Dr. Crippen's typist, when she was en route from the jail to the Bow street police station and but for the strenuous action of the police she would have been injured. The woman was completely unnerved after the police guard had dispersed the crowd with clubs, although she was calm during the melee. The building where the hearing is progressing has been under a triple guard. It is presumed the mob was angered by yesterday's testimony of Mrs. Jackson who said the typist was only waiting for Crippen to get a divorce so she could marry him.

Dr. Crippen and Miss Leneve were today bound over to the central criminal court to be tried for the murder of Crippen's wife. The case is set for the October term. Attorney Newton for the defendants offered no defense at the end of the crown's hearing at the Bow street hearing. He explains he preferred to reserve his testimony until the trial. Miss Leneve was hysterical as a result of the mob threatening her today.

W. M. Long, an attorney of Crippen's office, was the first witness today. He testified he bought the suit of clothes in which Ethel Leneve fled to America, at Crippen's order. He said Crippen appeared worried and said he was worrying about the scandal he would be involved in.

Both were visibly affected when they heard they must stand trial. The woman showed signs of collapse.

OLD VETS TAKE ROAD ON ANNUAL HIKE

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 21.—Through streets swathed in flags and lined with cheering spectators to the stirring martial music which was once the prelude to the roar of cannon and the shriek of shells, the old veterans of the grand army today marched in their annual "hike." The disabilities of age kept a majority of the visiting veterans out of the ranks of the marchers, but there were those among the old boys who stepped out as lustily as if they were boys again, going forth to real battle—"Marching proudly away under the flaunting flags, keeping time to the wild, grand music of war through the towns and across the prairie, down to the field of battle, to do and to die for the eternal right."

Tomorrow the business session will be convened on Young's Ocean Pier, and the rivalry for office and for the honor of entertaining the next encampment will be on in earnest. John McElroy of Washington, editor of the National Tribune, is a favorite with many of the veterans for the office of commander-in-chief. John E. Gilman, past department commander of Massachusetts, also has a large following. Several other state department have favorite sons whose claims will be brought before the convention.

WILL CONTEST WILL OF DECEASED TURF KING

Los Angeles, Sept. 21.—Attorneys for Beatrice Turnbull next Monday will file a contest to break the will of the late E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin, the millionaire turf king. Miss Turnbull, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lillian Ashley Turnbull, arrived in Los Angeles last week from Boston to prepare her suit. The mother alleges her daughter is also the daughter of Baldwin.

MEDFORD MAN KILLS
FRIEND OVER DOG.

Medford, Ore., Sept. 21.—A large posse headed by Sheriff Jones is hunting for Julian Mock, a carpenter, who last night killed Jesse Smith, his friend in a quarrel over a worthless dog. Smith was stabbed four times, twice in the heart. Mock bears a reputation as a fighter, and it is expected possibly there will be more bloodshed before he is captured. The men have been friends for years.
