ACCUSED OF STEALING BARREL OF WHISKY

MILTON MAN ARRESTED AND RELEASED ON BONDS

Barrel of Booze Discovered by Three Men and Removed—Woman Recognizes L. B. McCracken—Short News Notes.

(Special Correspondence.)
Milton, Ore., Sept. 21.—L. B. McCracken was arrested this morning on a warrant sworn out by C. D. Putnam charging him with stealing a barrel of whiskey from the store room where it had been since the cloudburst. The barrel had been placed in the empty building while the cellar was being cleaned out after the flood and a woman living near saw three men take the barrel away but did not know them. This morning, however, she recognized McCracken, who had just come in town from his home on South Fork. Constable Terwilliger arrested him and he was taken before Judge Miller, where he gave bonds and was released. Mr. Putnam went to Pendleton today, where he will appear as a witness before the grand jury, now in session, when the case will be continued.

Judge Fitz Gerald of the county seat is a Milton visitor today.

Guaranteed Dandruff Cure.

Beware of the druggist who tells you that any other hair tonic is just as good as Parisian Sage—he knows better.

Tallman & Co., are the agents for Parisian Sage and they won't try to give you something just as good, because they know that Parisian Sage is guaranteed to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and cure all diseases of the scalp in two weeks or money back.

They know that Parisian Sage is highly recommended as the most pleasant and rejuvenating hair dressing known. It makes the hair fluffy and beautiful and it is not sticky or greasy. Fifty cents a large bottle at Tallman & Co. They will guarantee it. Made in America only by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo New York. The girl with the auburn hair on every package.

INDIGESTION, GAS OR DYSPEPSIA GO IN FIVE MINUTES.

Hearburn and Sourness from Stomach and Other Distress Is Ended Forever! A Little Diapiesin Now Will Certainly Make You Feel Fine Before You Know It.

Why not get some now—this moment, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapiesin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of gas or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of indigestion and upset stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take gas from stomach and intestines, and besides, one single dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Diapiesin works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all stomach misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to take a little Diapiesin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapiesin, because you want to become thoroughly cured this time.

Remember, if your stomach feels out of order and uncomfortable now you can get relief in five minutes.

RHEUMATISM

PURIFYING THE BLOOD THE ONLY PERMANENT CURE

No case of Rheumatism was ever cured except by a thorough purification of the blood; just as long as the blood remains charged with fermenting uric acid poison, the painful disease will continue. The pains and aches of Rheumatism are simply superficial effects of the impurities in the circulation, and sometimes may be temporarily relieved by the application of plasters, liniments, hot cloths, etc. But the person who trifles with this dangerous disease by depending on local treatment alone, is certain to pay for the mistake with constant suffering later on. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism in the only way it is possible to cure the disease. It goes down into the blood, and removes the uric acid from the circulation, so that the nerves, bones, muscles and joints are lubricated and fed with nourishing elements instead of being continually irritated and inflamed with the sharp, uratic impurity.

When S. S. S. has cleansed and purified the blood, the pains and aches cease, all inflammation disappears, stiffened muscles are made pliant, and every troublesome symptom of Rheumatism is permanently corrected. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

NEWS OF THE DAY FROM HERMISTON

(Special Correspondence.)

Hermiston, Ore., Sept. 20.—Today government forces loaded on a car the huge 30,000 gallon storage tank, used by them while building the Cold Springs reservoir for the purpose of storing carload lots of oil. It will be shipped to the Klamath project, where it will be used for the same purpose.

This afternoon Ed Hitt, the famous hitter of the Hermiston club, left for an extended visit to his old home in Wisconsin. Ralph Phay will occupy his place in the store of his brother, H. E. Hitt, where he has been employed since he came to Hermiston nearly a year ago.

F. Young, brother of O. R. & N. Young, left for his old home yesterday where he will enter school during the coming term. Mr. Young has been in the Pioneer Pharmacy for some time. Mr. Paradise will take the position vacated by him.

The Hermiston Boosters' club has ordered 300 yards of ribbon to be used in making suitable badges for Hermiston day at the Round-up.

Tonight the first meeting of the Hermiston Library club will be held. It is planned to make a formal organization at this time and to make plans for future work.

Several final proofs were offered on homesteads today, among them being John Donovan and John Thom, both of Hermiston.

Most every project settler is planning to visit Pendleton, Friday, Sept. 30, Hermiston day at the Round-up.

Mr. Johnson, father of C. E. Johnson, is here from Erie, Pennsylvania, visiting.

BOTTLE WASHES ACROSS OCEAN IN THREE YEARS

Philadelphia.—Floating sluggishly at the mercy of the waves for three years a pint bottle containing the address of William H. Windolph, this city, traveled across the Atlantic ocean, and was finally picked up off the eastern coast of the Azores, about five weeks ago.

The wayward travels of the little bottle are most mysterious. It crossed the Atlantic, or at least reached the other shore; whether its course was straight eastward, or whether currents or winds took it miles in detour before it reached its destination, is a subject for conjecture.

On January 27, 1907, Mr. Windolph, on his way to Tampa and Key West, passed down the coast of the Carolinas in a Merchants and Miners' steamship, the Merrimac. Off North Carolina, in an idle moment, he put his card in a whiskey bottle and, pushing the cork against the rail of the vessel, tossed it overboard. Until it disappeared from sight in the green waves Mr. Windolph watched the tiny adventurer, never thinking to hear from it again.

Three and one-half years after the card had been sent out on the sea, a strange letter came to him from the fishing firm of Manuel Vasconcelles & Company, Spain. Within the envelope was the same card which he had sent out, unstained by the water, unimpaired after its long voyage.

With the card was a letter stating that it had been picked up in a whiskey bottle off the eastern coast of the Azores, in the province of Praia, by one of the crew of the fishing smack D. Carlos, LeLanza, captain. The letter was in excellent English, but from the style had evidently been written by an educated Spaniard. It did not state the exact date of the finding of the bottle.

Plows Up 1810 Dollars.
San Antonio, Texas.—While plowing in his field near Karnes City, just south of this city, Frank Woods dug up 25 Spanish dollars of dates ranging from 1810 to 1820. The old cart road from San Antonio to the sea-coast runs within a short distance of this field, and it is probable that some of the early Mexican freighters fleeing from robbers, buried their money.

There is only one way to conduct a successful Clothing Business.

That's to "Make Good" every time.

The sale of a suit or overcoat is incidental to securing a customer's confidence.

The profit we'd make would not compensate us the loss of a customer.

That's the reason of our selling Kirschbaum Clothes.

While we make less money on them than other makes we could buy, they are so uniformly good year in year out, they invariably give such excellent satisfaction, that we pin our faith to them above all other makes.

Great enough variety of styles and models to make your selection certain—Suits, Top-coats, Raincoats with or without Convertible Collar, the latter rain-proofed by the very best process in the world. "Priestly Cravenette."

The Kirschbaum Label is the identification mark of the best clothes made at the price.

Kirschbaum Clothes $15 to $30. Other Makes $5 to $18.

Overcoats, Raincoats and Cravenettes in endless variety from $5.00 to $25.00.
