PERSONAL MENTION

Antone Nolte and family returned this morning from Walla Walla and Pasco.

William Ferguson came down this morning from Adams to attend the district fair.

G. L. LaDow and family went to Walla Walla and back yesterday in their automobile.

President W. H. Bleakney and daughter came down from their home at Milton today, expecting to return this evening.

G. W. Bentley of Adams, passed through Pendleton today on his return from Hermiston, where he had been visiting his son, Frank Bentley.

B. F. Swaggart of Athena, came down from that place this morning to attend the district fair, being one of the principal exhibitors of livestock.

Dr. S. W. McClure, chief of the bureau of animal industry in the northwest, left this morning for Hesperia on business in connection with his department.

BIGGEST AND BEST ANNUAL DISTRICT FAIR

C. Gurdane, Assisting Mr. Gurdane are the following: B. C. Gurdane, B. E. Whetstone and L. B. Kidder, the latter being the representative from Irrigon.

Milton Is Here. A good horticultural exhibit at the fair is that from Milton. This year Milton has an exhibit by itself as the Freewater people were unable to participate as in the past. The Milton booth is at the east end of the pavilion, near the center and shows the fine products of that prosperous little horticultural country. L. T. Beardsley is in charge of the Milton booth and is assisted by Clyde Harris. Mrs. Otto Didion of Milton, and who formerly lived here, has also been assisting in the decoration of the booth.

Stanfield's Unique Display. This year Stanfield has the same space and location as last fall but the exhibit this year is paid for and arranged by the people of Stanfield, not by the colonization company as in the past. Further interest attaches to the Stanfield exhibit through the fact that this is the first year Stanfield has been able to make an exhibit solely of products from the Furlish-Coe project. But they are there this year and the display contains such fruits as apples and almost all varieties of vegetables. Among the latter are potatoes, beets, parsnips, carrots, celery, corn, squash, pumpkin, cauliflower, cabbage, rhubarb, beans and asparagus. Some cantaloupes are also to be seen and likewise some alfalfa, timothy and red top grass.

C. C. Paine is in charge of the Stanfield booth and he is assisted by C. D. Porter. Aside from the display of fruits and vegetables the Stanfield exhibit also has a demonstration of orchard irrigating.

The stock pavilion this year is under the charge of M. J. Carney the well known liveryman. As Mr. Carney is a practical man at the task of caring for stock no one should hesitate about leaving exhibit stock at the exhibit. It will be well cared for.

Owing to the fact that all the space within the pavilion has been assigned the board has been forced to turn down some requests for space for concerns from outside the state.

GOOD COMEDY PLAYS AT OREGON TOMORROW EVE. "Going Some" the king pin comedy of the season comes to the Oregon theatre for one night, Tuesday, September 27, with the famous Lawrence and Sandusky company of twenty in the long cast. Nothing quite so meritorious along comedy lines has come out of the east for many a season and Manager Mitchell feels elated in the matter of securing this fine play for his attraction during the fair.

The story of the play has to do with a lot of college boys and girls who are enjoying a house party on the Flying Heart ranch in New Mexico, where they get all mixed up in a foot race for a photograph and set of records which are the pride and joy of the cow-punching contingent of the ranch and which prize has been lost to the outfit of a rival ranch some time before the play has its opening. The seemingly funny situations are brought about by the utter seriousness with which the cow-punchers take the race and the outlandish manner they use in the methods of training of young J. Wallingford Speed who has undertaken the race for them although he is no athlete.

HOMESTEAD WINNERS, TAKE NUPITAL VOWS. Spokane, Wash.—Miss Mabel McNickle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McNickle of Chicago, who won first choice of a homestead on the Spokane Indian reservation at the government drawing last summer, and Ira B. Jones, formerly a resident of Boston, and Miss Ella T. Maloney, formerly of Iowa, winner of a farm on the Coeur d'Alene reserve, near Harrison, Idaho, and Charles Custer of Spokane, who located her claim were married here on September 22. The wedding of the first named took place at the home of Justice Samuel A. Mann, whose campaign for congress Miss McNickle managed. Charles McNickle, the bride's brother, was the best man. Mr. Custer and his bride exchanged vows in St. Aloysius church, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Father George P. Butler. The two couples will live on their claims. When the claim winners were announced by the government last fall, the two brides received proposals of marriage from several thousand bachelors in various parts of the United States and Canada, but neither chose her life partner from among that number.

Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Official Weather Report. Maximum temperature, 78. Minimum temperature, 21.

Moved to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Barnett left for Portland Saturday to make their home. They have leased their property in this city and expect to remain permanently in the metropolis.

To Give Scholarship. The Peoples Warehouse is to give away a six months scholarship free in the Pendleton business college. The contest will be decided by a voting contest to be carried on at the Peoples Warehouse booth at the fair pavilion.

Mother Dies in Missouri. Joe Cox, popular salesman in the Ingram grocery store, who was called to Missouri several days ago by the serious illness of his mother, returned home Sunday only to learn that his mother had died, two hours before his train arrived in Pendleton. He therefore took the next train east.

Dave Myers Brought Back. Dave Myers, charged with the larceny of a vacuum carpet cleaner from his brother-in-law, Louis Cargill, was brought back from Canada last evening. Ira Hughes, special deputy sheriff was the officer who brought him back. Myers was indicted several months ago, was placed under bail and then jumped his bond.

Ancient Blanket on Display. L. J. Drake placed on exhibit at the fair this morning, a woven wool blanket which was made by his great grandmother in the state of New York 55 years ago. She raised the sheep, carded and spun the wool and wove the blanket. The blanket has been handed down from family to family since that time and has been in constant use.

Spectators Now Barred. Hereafter spectators will not be allowed at the "trout" down at the Roundup grounds and in fact only those who have business inside the grounds will be allowed there between now and the opening of the big show Thursday. An order to this effect has been issued by the Roundup management and it was made through a fear that the admission of spectators to the preliminary trout might serve to lessen interest in the main affair.

Arrested for Stealing Speeder. Ora Knight, E. R. Todhunter and R. E. Davis, three local boys, were arrested this forenoon on the charge of stealing a gasoline speeder from the O. R. & N. company and riding to Adams and back last night. It is also alleged that they took the speeder a few nights ago and rode to Walla Walla on it.

Knights is employed in the O. R. & N. freight house, while his two companions are well known in town. The arrests were made by Chief of Police Gurdane.

Quarterly Communion. At the Tutuilla Presbyterian mission on the reservation the quarterly communion service was held yesterday and was attended by many Idaho Indian church workers as well as by those from the Umatilla reservation. Among those present from Idaho were Rev. Peter Lindsey, Elder Andrew Moody, and wife; Johnson Boyd and wife; Mrs. Lydia Wallace; Silas Corbett, Noah Bridell and Mitchell Corbett. At the forenoon service Rev. J. M. Cornelison, missionary for the reservation preached while Rev. Peter Lindsey officiated to the afternoon.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum. Good program for Tuesday's change.

1. The Canadian Moonshiners, Kalam, 1000 ft. long. This interesting and true-to-life Canadian drama presents many characteristic features. Lively action all through the story introducing Royal Mounted Police, Canadian Indians (the real thing) and the habits beyond the border.

2. The Stronger Sex. Drama, Lubin, 1000 ft. long. Men have the best of it in the business world and the little woman who found it impossible to support herself on the small salaries, determined to become her own brother. A fascinating story.

3. Under the Old Apple Tree. Vitagraph, 1000 ft. long. A comedy which seems to prove that many unexpected things can happen under an old apple tree. Song, Honor Bright, I Loves Yer Right, Old Pal.

The Pastime. For Tuesday's change of pictures. A big special release for fair week. "Ranch Life in the Great Southwest," Selig. In this picture Selig has assembled the world's greatest ropers and broncho busters. The camera man scoured the country for the kings of the prairie and the results of his trip are all collected in this picture. The picture abounds in dare-devil and death defying feats, such as never before witnessed.

"Back to Nature," Vitagraph, drama. A love story. One of the kind that will catch your interest at the beginning and hold it to the end.

"Willie," Selig comedy drama, length 1000 feet. He started west at the instance of the girl's father to grow up with the country. He grows up rapidly and returns to claim the girl.

"The Shepherd's Dog," Pathe, drama. An interesting picture in which a dog plays an important part. "A School in New Guinea," Pathe, educational. An entertaining picture.

90 Per Cent of Cancers Cured. Dr. Baker of Oakdale, Washington, is still in the cancer business with his usual success. I can so mix my remedies as will be adapted to all ages. For the last 25 years my practice in the treatment of cancer I have averaged 90 per cent of cures. This is a good season of the year to take treatment. You will always find me at home and ready for business.

Money to Loan. On city and farm property. Long time, easy payments and low interest. Call at Hotel St. George this week. D. S. R. Walker.
