ATFIELD IS FOUND GUILTY AS CHARGED

UMATILLA EXPRESS AGENT CONVICTED OF EMBEZZLEMENT

Jury Reaches Verdict in Few Minutes—Convicted Man Says he Will Appeal Case—Proprietors of Tent Saloons Now on Trial.

"Guilty as charged" was the verdict of the jury at noon today in the case of W. W. Atfield, former Umatilla express agent who was charged with the embezzlement of $500 from the Pacific Express company. The jury was out but a few minutes, the agreement apparently having been reached on the first ballot.

Atfield says he will appeal to the supreme court, but the opinion prevails among those who heard the testimony that he will change his mind. Atfield, who is a young fellow of about 25, was arrested in this city last spring by Chief of Police Gurdane, following the disappearance of the package containing the money and the resignation of the express agent. He was immediately turned over to Sheriff Taylor and has spent the summer in the county jail.

O'Neal on Trial.
Jack O'Neal, one of the proprietors of the Coe tent saloon who was arrested several days ago, following his indictment by the grand jury on a charge of violating the local option law, is on trial this afternoon. Theodore Cramer who was connected with O'Neal has already entered a plea of guilty and is serving out a $200 fine.

Install Dr. Burton.

Northampton, Mass., Oct. 5.—The Rev. Dr. Marion Leroy Burton was today installed president of Smith College, an institution for women, succeeding Dr. L. Observe German Day.

Washington, Oct. 5.—A large number of prominent Germans from other cities joined with the German-American population of the national capital today in a celebration of the founding of the first German settlement in the United States. A banquet and ball this evening will be features of the festivities of the day.

GERMAN EMPIRE BUYS MANY EGGS

Berlin.—The German empire imports more eggs than any other country. Its imports have increased with its prosperity, until, in order to meet its manufacturers' requirements, it has begun to draw upon China for eggs, the latter being sent in tins, the yolks separated from the whites. It is also drawing on Italy as well as almost every other country in Europe. It is increasing its imports from Italy so largely that Italy has been compelled to look to Turkey to satisfy its own demands.

In consequence of this England is importing fewer eggs from the countries mentioned.

There is another interesting view of the position. Hitherto Germany has been drawing its eggs from the eastern side of Europe, but its increasing demand for eggs has now forced it to draw from western Europe also, and as its imports from the latter direction grow so will England's supplies of first-class foreign eggs fall. This must be so because there will be fewer countries near enough to supply.

London.—It is understood that the Austrian emperor will be represented at the coronation next June by the Archduke Frederick, as the Archduke Francis Ferdinand has no taste for state ceremonial. The Archduke Frederick is the richest member of the imperial family, as he inherited the bulk of Archduke Albert's property.
