Special feature of today's cattle market here was the receipt of 10 loads from Montana. The fact that feed is scarce all through the interior is forcing the marketing of cattle at this period, and therefore with forced sales, prices are scarcely healthy or

There was a fair showing of live-stock supplies in the yards today, a total of 477 hogs, 436 cattle and 68 sheep being received.

Very little good stuff is now coming to market, and therefore represeniative sales on cattle are extremely poor. With nothing offering in the cow market was sold this morning above $3.75, still some later arrivals were of good quality and will bring more at the afternoon sale.

Practically No Change in Hog Market. Only a handful of sheep arrived. That market remains nominal, with quotations as previously printed.

BESSIE ABBOTT WILL NOT

Paris .- November 14th will be the biggest day that New York has had for many reasons. There will be three "openings"-those of the horse shoe and of the Metropolitan opera, and also the first production of Masagni's new opera, "Ysobei," in which Beerie Abbott will play the part of Lady Godiva, who rode through Coventry. Ralph Edmunds, who has just arived in Paris from Milan, says that Miss Abbott is indignant over the reports of her contemplated management of the scene of the famous ride. The fact is she will wear a blue velvet and dressed thus she will cross the courtyard of the palace to where her white horse waits. Then as she drops the cloak the curtains will be drawn.

The story of the ride is told in the intermeszo. Miss Abbott, who is now in Paris, will sail October 19th on the Oceanic. The complete company, the way has for a long time been badwith chorus and orchestra, will sail from Genoa October 13th. Before he sails Massagni will give concerts in London and Paris. This is the first horses. opera Mascagni has produced since right, and a small army of workmen "Amica," which he wrote five years ago.
