COAST LEAGUE.

Angels 4-2, Frisco 0-7. San Francisco, Oct. 9.—After San Francisco had taken the empty end of a 4 to 0 score at Oakland in the morning, the team came back in the afternoon, winning 7 to 2 in an exhibition of baseball that was errorless, fast and snappy.

Eastley was given the worst kind of support in the forenoon, while Delhi pitched a fine game, allowing only six scattered hits.

In the afternoon Los Angeles went after Pitcher Miller, cornering four hits and two runs in two innings. Miller was relieved by Browning and he held Los Angeles hitless from then on. The scores:

Portland 4-1, Sacramento 0-0. Portland, Ore., Oct. 9.—Portland took both games of a double header today, the first by a score of 4 to 0, and the second, which by agreement was limited to five innings, by a 1 to 0 score. Bryam was responsible for the first victory. In the third inning he threw the ball away, and as a result Portland secured two runs. In the fifth the local team bunched hits off the California pitcher. The second game was called at the end of the fifth to let Sacramento catch an early train. The game was without score until the last of the fifth, when Portland found Bryam with sufficient effect to net them one run. Scores:

Vernon 6-2, Oakland 2-1. Los Angeles, Oct. 9.—Vernon lit on Moser in the second inning of the first game today and hammered out five runs, driving him from the box. Harkins took up the burden and did well, but one run and three hits being made the remainder of the game. Vernon won this contest, 6 to 2.

In the afternoon Oakland hit Brackenridge hard and regularly throughout, though fine fielding behind him kept the score down to 4 to 2, in favor of Oakland. Out of the 26 safe hits in the two games, but four were for more than one base. Morning game— R. H. E.

upon the present conventional tariff as in spirit or form intended to be perpetuated. To be independent, they claim, they must have a national tariff, high enough to protect their industries, raising an adequate revenue and applying to all countries alike.

There is in Japan a conviction that English commercial circles are claiming the right to say how Japan shall adjust her own commercial interests, which attitude the Japanese greatly resent. Rather will they give up the alliance, which does not appear to them as very valuable, since matters have been arranged with Russia, than the right to determine their own course of action without the intimidation of any foreign influence or interest.

Loss of Appetite is commonly gradual; one dish after another is set aside. It is one of the first indications that the system is running down, and there is nothing else so good for it as Hood's Sarsaparilla—the best of all tonics.

With the exception of about 120 miles there is a chain of automatic block signals from the Atlantic to the Pacific on American railroads.

JAPAN ANGERED THROUGH BRITISH TREATY DEMAND

London.—The attempt of the English government to induce the government of Japan to concede special commercial advantages to Great Britain by admitting British goods into the empire at a reduced tariff rate is apt to weaken the Anglo-Japanese alliance. Japan appears to stand on the contention that as she has nothing to gain by showing any preference for British goods there can be no reason for doing so, and English people are disposed to regard this as a more selfish attitude than is becoming to an ally and supposed friend.

A prominent Japanese, whom I interviewed on the subject, told me that Japan is opposed to the idea of making commonwealth treaties with any country, and she has only entered into the existing treaties with Great Britain, German and France for the purpose of getting rid of the more pressing evil of foreign consular jurisdiction and abolishing the stigma of extra territoriality, and the Japanese have for years been anticipating the moment when they can say that their national administration is free from foreign interference. They are in no way disposed to look man the archduke is, it is needed only to refer to the Balkan troubles nearly two years ago, when the whole of Europe was brought to the edge of war and held there shivering for a week. When the war clouds had been dispelled it was found that Austria had annexed Bosnia and Herzegovina.

At that time it was not known as to just who was responsible for this bold stroke, but since then the affair has been sifted by many of Europe's leading statesmen, and it can be said with almost mathematical certainty that the guiding spirit in the Bosnian affair was Archduke Franz Ferdinand.

If it is true, and there seems to be no doubt of it, then the archduke is the ruling spirit of Emperor Wilhelm of Germany, for although the emperor made a great deal of noise in the Bosnian business, he was merely the assistant and not the master. Conceding that this be true, then Archduke Franz Ferdinand is the virtual commander of 4,000,000 German soldiers, of the large German fleet, of the Austrian army and of the navy, which is building with feverish rapidity.

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Black Duck, Minn.—"About a year ago I wrote you that I was sick and could not do any of my housework. My sickness was called Retroflexion. When I would sit down I felt as if I could not get up. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and did just as you told me and now I am perfectly cured, and have a big baby boy."

Mrs. ANNA ANDERSON, Box 19, Black Duck, Minn.

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ill, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.
