

HOGS MAKE ADVANCE OF 10c IN YARDS

SHEEP AND LAMBS SELL AT A LOWER FIGURE

Rather Liberal Arrivals Over Sunday Are Moved at Reduced Range; Hogs at $10.25; Poor Cattle Come.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 10.—Late this afternoon there was an advance of 10c in the price of hogs. One load that averaged 204 pounds was sold at $10.25.

There was a weaker feeling in the market for sheep and lambs today, while the run over Sunday was quite liberal. A big bunch of lambs that averaged 65 pounds was sold this morning at $4.50, or fractionally less than previous quotations, while a bunch of ewes went at $3.25.

The market for cattle was dull, with best sales of the morning around $5.25. Most of the stuff that came forward was of poor quality; in fact the greater portion of the arrivals were but little better than feeders.

Hog market was feeling rather good and sales were made around $10.05 @10.10 during the morning.

Among the Shippers.

WOMAN BOSSES BARGES.

Fleet is Under Her Command and Swearing is Positively Barred.

New Cumberland, Pa.—The Hetty Green of local business circles is Mrs. Ellen Ross of Bella Vista, a settlement on the Yellow Breeches creek opposite New Cumberland. Although 70 years old, Mrs. Ross is still vigorous. When the water in the Susquehanna river is of sufficient height Mrs. Ross is daily at work with a fleet of coal and sand barges which she owns and manages. She says the open-air life is doing her a great deal of good.

Until several years ago Mrs. Ross managed the old Ross mill, opposite which she lives. When she gave up that work she expected to retire permanently from business, but two years ago she bought a fleet of river barges, and ever since then has given her personal attention to superintending the dredging of coal and sand from the river bed. Fourteen men work under her direction.

One revolution worked by Mrs. Ross has been the elimination of the use of profanity among her employees.

HERE IS A REMEDY THAT WILL CURE ECZEMA

"WE PROVE IT."

SEVERE PRESSURE IN WHEAT TRADING

Washington, Oct. 10.—Government report of crops, October 1:

Wheat—Spring, yield per acre, 11.8 bushels; all wheat, 14.2 bushels. Total wheat crop, 691,766,000 bushels. Quality, 93.1 per cent.

Corn—Condition, 80.3 per cent; yield, 2,973,000 bushels.

Oats—Yield per acre, 31.9 bushels; total yield, 1,096,396,000 bushels. Quality, 88.1 per cent.

Barley—Yield per acre, 22.4 bushels; total yield, 158,138,000 bushels; quality, 88.1 per cent.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—Wheat market throughout the world was weak today and severe losses were shown in some sections. Closing here was 3-4c to 7-8c a bushel lower than Saturday.

While dry weather was reported in Kansas and Oklahoma and naturally there was some apprehension regarding the fall sown wheat, the cable telling of rains in Argentina brought severe bearish pressure on the market and the closing was depressed.

Cables were of such a nature that the trade here could not safely ignore. Liverpool opened with a loss of 5-8d to 3-9d and closed 7-8d to 1 1-4d under Saturday. Paris was 1c lower for wheat and 1-2c to 1c off for flour. Berlin was 5-8c lower and Budapest unchanged.

World's shipments: Wheat, 16,392,000 bushels; corn, 5,902,000 bushels. Wheat on passage increased 2,740,000 bushels, corn increased 2,498,000 bushels, corn increased 4,642,000 bushels.

INDIAN RACE DYING OUT?

No! It Is Still Growing on National Reservations.

Denver, Colo.—Contrary to general opinion, the Indian race is not rapidly dying out, according to Dr. Joseph A. Murphy, United States medical inspector of Indian schools, who is here attending a conference of Indian school inspectors. While the death rate among the Indians is nearly double that among the white race, the birth rate is proportionately higher. Dr. Murphy declares, and the balance is slightly in favor of race increase. The death rate among the red-skinned race is about thirty in every 1,000, while the birth rate is about thirty-two to every 1,000. To the vigorous campaign among the Indians against tuberculosis is attributed the increase of births over deaths.

RUSSIA ADMITS DIPLOMACY OF AMERICAN AMBASSADOR

Berlin.—A dispatch to the Tegeblatt from St. Petersburg states that the Russian ministry of the interior has published an order giving Oscar S. Straus, the American ambassador to Turkey, permission to visit St. Petersburg. The order is as follows:

"The ministry of the interior permits the American ambassador to Constantinople, Oscar S. Straus, who belongs to the Jewish confession, to visit St. Petersburg with his family.

This order is regarded as a striking illustration of the rigor with which the anti-Jewish regulations are being enforced.

YOUNG TURKS ARE PAID. SULTAN ABDUL RELEASED

London.—Where is Abdul Hamid, the deposed sultan of Turkey? This is a question the inhabitants and visitors to Salonica are asking one another.

Mrs. Archbishop Little, who has just returned from Salonica, has given some interesting information regarding the ex-sultan's supposed disappearance. Being asked to tea outside the city, just beside the Villa Allantini, where Abdul Hamid was shut up, Mrs. Archbishop Little showed some expectancy. "But," she was informed, "you cannot pay a visit to the sultan because he is not there."

"Not there?" we exclaimed, astonished, to be met by the answer we found afterward almost universal in Salonica, "I do not know where he is. All I know is he is not in Salonica."

"We often went to that pleasant home beside the villa. The sentries stood at their posts all around. The handsome gateway to the main road had been walled up, and there was now but one side entrance, easily seen from the high road. No shop people ever go now. They used to go in numbers, taking delicacies when the sultan first arrived. No lights shine out at night. There used to be a grand illumination.

"At last a Macedonian patriot offered further information. 'Do you not remember how ladies of the harem went away some months ago on the pretext that a daughter of the Sultan's was about to be married? You know, of course, that there was no wedding. They went by night. Well, they were counted and there were 13 of them. Only 12 came in and 13 went away, and one of them stooped very much and had a vacillating step. It was thought he was the Sultan.'

"Why do you think I have no relations with the shopkeepers and others here, no means of getting at facts? Of course I have. I know no provisions are delivered at the Villa Allantini—since that night departure—three and three days afterwards the German Bank handed over to the Young Turkish party that large sum of money they had to deposit and which they always refused to hand over without the Sultan's signature. He has said that he would sooner die than give his signature. Yet he gave it. That sum of money was the price the Sultan Abdul Hamid paid in order to be removed from Salonica to Constantinople, or wherever he wanted to go."

HIGHWAYMAN CALLS DOCTOR FOR ILL BABY

Williamstown, N. J.—While on her way at midnight to get a physician for her sick baby, Mrs. C. D. Hartlett was held up by a good Samaritan and brought the doctor in time to save her child.

Mrs. Hartlett lives about four miles out of town. After two miles were covered she became exhausted and almost collapsed. As she was making a brave effort to continue a man stepped from behind a tree and demanded her money.

She pleaded with the man to let her go, explaining her errand. The man asked the location of the doctor's residence, urged the woman to return and promised to summon the physician. A short time later Dr. George Van Belt was aroused by the stranger.

Doctor Van Belt did not want to take the journey until dawn, but the stranger was so persistent that the doctor consented, if the man would go to his stable and hitch up his horse. This he did, and then disappeared. The baby is now out of danger.
