

SOCIETY EVENTS

About 75 men, members of Kit Carson Post of the G. A. R., Malabon camp of the Spanish-American war veterans and of Co. L of the Oregon national guard, participated in a banquet in armory hall last evening. That the affair was a complete success socially is evidenced by the fact that the banqueters did not leave the festal board until midnight and did so then reluctantly. The soldiers that are to be, together with the veterans who did service in the Philippines, were the hosts, while the Pendleton men who participated in "the late unpleasantness" were the guests of honor. Commander George Hartman of Malabon camp acted as toastmaster, and among those who responded were Captain C. J. Ferguson of company L, who is also a member of Malabon camp; Commander J. W. Welles of the G. A. R.; Adjutant Carroll of Kit Carson Post; Comrade MacFee, also of the local post; J. D. Boyd of company L, Dan Bowman and Charles Simpson of Malabon camp. Piano numbers were furnished by Harold Blakeslee of company L.

With about forty-five couples in attendance, the first formal dancing party of the season was given last evening in the Eagle-Woodman hall by the Young People's club, an organization yet in embryo, whose initial social effort was in the form of an experiment. The success of the affair was so pronounced that it is highly probable that a winter series will be undertaken. Last evening being the first occasion demanding formal evening dress, many handsome gowns were in evidence among the younger society ladies. Promptly at 8:45, the United Orchestra began the grand march, which was led by Miss Ida Cherry and Mr. Glen Scott. Nineteen dances followed the opening number, during the intermissions between which punch was served by the little Misses Thelma Thompson, Nadine Blakely, Esther and Babe Shea. Patronesses of the affair were the Mesdames J. R. Dickson, E. P. Marshall, Lina Sturgis and C. E. Roosevelt.

Mrs. E. T. Wade was the hostess for a card party last Thursday evening at the Wade home, 601 Jackson street, in honor of her son Cecil R. Wade and bride of Coos county. Mrs. Will Moore and Mrs. Henry Dixon Jones assisted the hostess. About 20 invited guests were present and spent the evening in playing 500. The prizes were won by Mark Moorhouse for the men and by Mrs. Roy Alexander for the women. The home was decorated throughout with autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. George Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Moorhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mayberry, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wade, Mrs. Laura Nash, Miss Edna Zimmerman, Miss Adna Raley, Miss Maud Crawford, Mr. Royal Sawtelle, Mr. Will Gray, Mr. Harry Gray.

A most delightful entertainment was given at the Methodist church last Friday evening under the direction of Mrs. Evans, wife of the pastor. A large number of children and young people assisted in the exercises. The sacred cantata, "The Beautiful City," was well rendered. The principal characters, Miss Hamley as Pilgrim, Miss Hunter, teacher, Miss Kinman, tempter, and Mrs. Landers, soloist, deserve special mention. They were assisted by a large chorus. The number, perhaps, that attracted most attention was the fairy operetta by twelve little girls costumed to represent fairies and we-weves with Miss Lenore Temple as fairy queen. The duet by Helen and Hazel Koch won a large amount of applause. The large church was filled and seventy-five dollars netted for the general expenses of the official board.

Mr. Benjamin Lane Burroughs and bride arrived in Pendleton Wednesday and have taken up their residence at 109 East Water street. The bride was formerly Miss Mildred Gates Magoon of Portland and they were married at St. David's church in that city Sunday morning at 8:45. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Talbot, rector of the church, in the presence of friends and relatives. The groom is a prominent young business man of this city, where he has resided for many years and where he is very popular. Wallace Train Wreck.
Wallace, Idaho.—The tender and three cars of the Missouri train to Wallace on the Northern Pacific were derailed Monday owing to the wash back and forth of water in the tender.

Nobody was hurt, but the passengers had a bad scare as two of the coaches hung over the river and were prevented from taking the long dive over the precipice only by the fact that two other coaches leaned in the other direction.

The train was in charge of Conductor Brill and Engineer Orville Adams. The cause of accident is believed to be out of the ordinary.

POPE SEEKS EARLY INFLUENCE
First Communion Ordered at Seven Years.

Paris.—The recent decree of the Sacred Congregation of Sacraments, fixing the date of the first communion at about the age of seven has been received by the French episcopate. The general impression is that the vatican regards this as being particularly adapted to a country like France, where the compulsory state primary schools are credited with having tended to alienate the young from Christian ideals. The aim of the vatican is to implant in the minds of children at as early an age as possible, and before they have been submitted to the influence of state schools, the seeds of Christian instruction.

BILLY CLIFFORD TONIGHT AT OREGON THEATRE

Billy (Single) Clifford, starring in "The Girl, the Man and the Game" began his stage career as a drummer boy in a minstrel show. He soon began to sing and dance, and it was not many years after he left his place as bell-boy in a small Ohio hotel, before he was one of the best known entertainers on the road. Then he took to vaudeville, and his career on the variety stage has been a series of unbroken triumphs. Last season he was starred in "The Girl at the Helm" in which he was eminently successful. This season he is appearing in the stellar role in a new musical farce called "The Girl, the Man and the Game," which is described as a play that is as full of fun as an egg is of meat. In this piece Mr. Clifford offers a dozen new songs, that are tuneful and catchy and which will be whistled all over Pendleton the morning after Mr. Clifford sings them. The piece will be seen at the Oregon on Saturday, Oct. 15.
