YAKIMA CONTEST IS HOT.

Two Strong Candidates for Mayor and Other Offices Are Well Represented.

North Yakima, Wash.—With two strong men running for mayor, and with contests in every ward for the office of city councilman, the city election here promises to be a matter of lively interest.

H. H. Schott, who two years ago was a candidate for the mayoralty, but withdrew to let L. O. Janek make the run, was last month chosen by the council to fill out the unexpired term of Mayor P. M. Armbruster, who resigned. Now Mr. Schott thinks he would like to be mayor on his own account.

W. R. Redman, who has filed against Schott is a pioneer settler here and has been connected with irrigation and reclamation work for many years, is chief engineer of the Tappanish & Western railroad, and was a mayor in the early 90's.

J. C. Brower, who has filed for city clerk and C. R. Donovan, who is a candidate for city treasurer, have both held these offices for several terms, and to such general satisfaction that there are usually no filings against them.

E. V. Lockhart wants to be city attorney to succeed Frank J. Allen, the primary nominee for the state legislature.

Other filings are: First Ward, Fred Shaw, T. P. Jeffrey; Second Ward, Dr. W. H. Carver, John McPhee, T. C. McNamara; Third Ward, T. P. Grady, Linn P. Bissell; Fifth Ward, E. B. Howe, D. M. Rand, Harry Mull; councilman-at-large, Mike Schom, J. M. Brown. Councilman Nelson P. Smith, against whose candidacy there was a fight, decided not to file.

W. C. T. U. IS IN MEETING.

Many Delegates Present, and Are Given Greeting by North Yakima People.

North Yakima, Wash.—The Eastern Washington W. C. T. U. opened its 27th annual convention here Tuesday morning with delegates in attendance from half a hundred unions. Mrs. Anna Angier of Spokane, the president, is presiding. The first day was given over largely to reports of officers and superintendents.

Tuesday evening the delegates were greeted by Mayor Schott, Superintendent of Schools D. C. Reed, Dr. Howick, Dr. H. L. Boardman and Mrs. Myrtle D. Roberts. The responses were made by Mrs. Lou Tweedell of Northport and Mrs. F. M. Buck of Spokane. Twelve new unions were reported, and two counties organized since the last convention.

CUT OFF EAR: SEND IT BY MAIL AS WARNING

New York.—Four sailors from the great lakes, Joseph Mayers, Robert Cochran, Henry Moran and Michael Kane, were arrested in a sailors' boarding house charged with the brutal assault of Edward Frazer, a sailor, in Buffalo last June.

The men, it is charged, drugged Frazer, robbed him of his wages and then cut off his right ear, which was sent to H. Coublay, president of the Pittsburgh Steamship company, with headquarters in Cleveland, accompanied by a letter threatening his life.

The arrests were made by Postoffice Inspector J. F. Oldfield, assisted by several central office detectives, after a pursuit extending from Buffalo to Cleveland, Chicago, Duluth, Detroit and finally to New York.

When picked up by the police after the assault last June Frazer's ear was gone and over his right eye was pasted a printed label warning men away from taking nonunion jobs on the lake while the strike was in progress.

IDAHO MAN ECLIPSES ALL STRENGTH TESTS

Moscow, Ida.—All former strength records at the University of Idaho and other places were broken last week when W. W. Ream of the university made a total of 7070 pounds on the dynamometer. The average man makes a record of only 4125 pounds. L. J. Hunter has the second place so far with a record of 6390 pounds.

Mr. Ream is far above the record at the University of Washington, where they think they have big men.

Mr. Vanderveer, the coach and trainer at the university, says that Ream's test is the best he ever saw. Several trials were made, and each time the tremendous strength of the young Sampson moved the slides on the dynamometer.

Miss Bess Lee has made a fine test for women. The average woman only records a total of 2390 pounds. Miss Lee has a total of 4030.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.

Sunday's orchestra program—March—Call of the Wild. Waltz—Helm of Navarre. Overture—Feast of Lanterns. March—Slow Worm. Waltz—In Florida.

Prose Poem—Apple Blossoms. Indian Intermezzo—Singing Birds. Sunday's change as follows:

1. A Leap for Life. Drama. Kalem, 1000 feet long. This story deals with the early settlers of Canada and the warring bands of Indians who made the white man's life one of great danger during pioneer days.

2. Robert, the Devil. A Gaumont drama, 100 feet long.

3. Jean, the Matchmaker. Vita graph, 1000 feet long. A refined comedy in which a dog is employed as a matchmaker and results in a novel love episode. Many delightful surprises and situations amid country scenes and exquisite stretches of nature make this picture a very pleasing one.

Song—I Don't Want the Morning to Come.

The Pastime.

Sunday's change of program as follows:

"A Summer Tragedy." Biograph. drama. An unusual story containing a plentiful proportion of genuine humor and like all Biograph stories is full of interest from start to finish.

"Saved from Ruin." Pathe, drama. A story of Monte Carlo which depicts graphically the dangers of the gaming table. Happily, however, the difficulties of this gentleman are overcome by a friend helping him out.

"Jean and the Calico Doll." Drama. Vitagraph. A delightful and appealing child story.

"Deer Hunting in the Celebus Islands. Scenic. A beautiful reproduction of the scenery of the Celebus and a graphic reproduction of some lively deer hunting scenes.

WIFE FINDS HUSBAND MISSING SINCE CIVIL WAR

Pawtucket, R. I.—After an absence of 48 years, during which his family here had no inkling of his whereabouts, George O. Peck, a civil war veteran turned up here at the home of his son, Charles E. Peck, and there was a happy reunion with his wife, aged 68, and a number of grandchildren.

Peck, who is now 70, enlisted in a Massachusetts regiment at the outbreak of the war when his son was but two years old and through the activities he believes of Mosby's guerrillas his letters and those of his wife to him were destroyed so that when he was mustered out of the service he thought she had either remarried or did not care to have him back. Peck says he then enlisted in the regular army, later became a ranchman in the west, toured South America and about eight years ago settled in Anna, Ill.

It chanced that during the war Peck was a prisoner at Andersonville. About a year ago his son Charles saw a photograph of a group of Andersonville prisoners and showed it to his mother. She was struck by a resemblance in one of the figures to her lost husband. Grand Army veterans advised her to write to the pension bureau and she was told that George O. Peck was living and drawing a pension in Illinois. Correspondence followed and the reunion is the result. Peck senior will make his home in the future with his son in Pawtucket.

Roosevelt manages to get on the first page about every other day.
