

HOGS DOWN NICKLE IN PORTLAND YARDS

FEW SALES OF STEERS ABOVE $5.25 MARK

Best Hogs Sell at $10—Sheep Prices Shaded and Yearling Wethers at $4.25.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 14.—Recent sales of sheep and lambs in the local market have been made at lower prices. Best wethers are quoted today at $4, with yearlings at $4.25. Ewes are selling top at $3.50, but most lots range around $3 and $3.25, according to quality. Lambs are extreme top at $5.25, and it takes very best quality to bring this. Lambs have been sold recently as low as $4.50 for poor quality.

While top steers are still holding at $5.50, few sales are made above $5.25 in the Portland yards. This is due, not to any lack of demand for higher priced goods, but to the lack of offerings sufficiently good to bring the top quotations.

There was only a small run of livestock in the yards today. Chief among the features was two loads of goats from Dallas. Owing to the extreme high prices recently quoted for meats, goats are passing into consumption quite rapidly.

Another drop of a nickel was quoted in the price of hogs. The swine market at North Portland is top at $10 today and several sales were made at that value during the trading.

Among the Shippers:
Cattle—R. M. Adams, Starfield Ore., 1 load; B. R. Nichol, Riddle, Ore., 1 load.

Sheep and lambs—E. J. Clough, Mitchell, Ore., 2 loads; William Shepard Sun Dial ranch, 236 head.

Mixed Stuff—C. Taylor, Halsey, 1 load sheep and hogs; B. N. Norwood, Harrisburg, Ore., 1 load sheep and hogs.

Hogs—Miley & Zoller, Mount Angel, 1 load.
Goats—A. E. West, Dallas, Ore., 2 loads.

ASKS OFFENDER BE PARDONED

French Woman Writer Moved to Compassion for Thief.
Paris.—The Comtesse de Martel, so well known under her literary pseudonym of "Gip," has just given evidence of a real spirit of magnanimity. It will be remembered that various valuable articles were recently stolen at her residence at Neuilly-sur-Seine. A man formerly in her service was arrested, but, touched by the grief of his father, who had traveled many miles to plead with her, she went to the magistrate, and, explaining that she had only lodged a complaint because her guests had suffered as well as herself, she requested him to let the culprit off. The magistrate, touched by her kindness, said he would do what he could, but he must first have some leisure for reflection on the case.

Gets Profit from Crop.

Walla Walla, Wash.—Selling a farm at the same figure at which he purchased it last April, V. H. Rogers of this city, has just made between $8000 and $10,000. But while the price was the same now as then, there was a growing crop then that has now been harvested, and which netted Mr. Rogers the profit mentioned. The ranch is on Dry Creek and consists of 645 acres, the selling price being about $115 per acre.
This farm has changed hands a dozen times within the last six years and with good profit each time. It was formerly known as the old Bashor place, and is one of the best wheat farms in the Dry Creek country.

THE WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO WHEAT IS INCLINED TO HARDEN

Market Is Quiet With Tendency to Go Slow.

Chicago wheat market—December—Today, 94 7-8; year ago, $1.06 1-8.
May—Today, $1 3-4; year ago, $1.06 3-4.
July—Today, 96 5-8; year ago, 99 1-4.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The wheat market was quiet today but generally inclined to harden. At the opening there was a tendency among the shorts to go slow. Cables were mixed with Liverpool lower. Budapest closed 3-4c higher and a gain of 1-4c was shown at Berlin.

Broomhall estimated world's shipments on Monday around 10,800,000 bushels exclusive of North America. He predicted a moderate decrease on passage. Argentina shipments: Wheat, 784,000 bushels; corn, 2,541,000 bushels; Australian wheat, 560,000 bushels.

RUSSIAN INSPECTION LAX.

Government Takes No Precautions to Prevent Spread of Plague.

St. Petersburg.—The disgust and impatience felt here and daily expressed in the newspapers, at the half-hearted and ineffectual attempts of the authorities to stamp out the cholera, have been considerably increased by the discovery that vessels loaded with grain from Odessa, where there is plague as well as cholera, are allowed to enter St. Petersburg without any medical inspection or sanitary precautions whatever.

Such a vessel has been discharging Odessa grain on the quays of the Neva for several days past, having naturally brought with it some of the rats of Odessa, which are being officially exterminated as far as possible in the latter town, in order to prevent the spread of the infection.

The sanitary regulations of the port of St. Petersburg appear to be those of the time of Peter the Great, 200 years ago, but without Peter the Great's genius and energy in dealing with emergencies. The Novoe remya declares that the dead bureaucratic formalism, official carelessness and the medieval habits of the uncultured population have entered into a conspiracy to sow Russia with the seeds of disease and destruction.

The highest Russian medical and sanitary authorities are beginning to express the most pessimistic views concerning the unhealthiness of Russia. One of them has just declared his belief that the cholera will be worse next year. Professor Veliainoff also certifies to the failure of all measures against it, as long as the insanitation in the towns and villages is not radically dealt with. Out of 11,082 towns throughout the country, only 38 have any kind of drainage at all, and only 192 are provided with a water supply.
