WILL R. KING

One of the Supreme Judges,
CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION, SIX YEAR TERM,
WHOSE PLACE IS SOUGHT BY GEO. H. BURNETT, ASSEMBLY NOMINEE.

Judge Will R. King has been a resident of Eastern Oregon for nearly forty years. He was born Oct. 3, 1864, on a farm near Walla Walla, Wash., removed to Umatilla county in 1871 and lived near Weston until 1878. During that year he went to what is now Malheur county, then a part of Baker county, which has been his place of continuous residence. Judge King attended the Oregon Agricultural College for three years, graduated from a law school in Danville, Indiana, and began the practice of law in 1892 in Malheur county. He served in the Oregon legislature six years, two in the House and four in the Senate, and he was recognized as one of its foremost members. February 23, 1907, he was appointed Commissioner of the Supreme Court and two years later became Associate Justice, which office he now holds, and is a candidate to succeed himself for the six year term.

Judge King's decisions rank high among the bench and bar. In the celebrated water decision of Hough vs. Porter, written by him, more than 80 points of law were involved and decided, covering 146 pages of the Oregon Reports. His opinion in that case is now used by the Ann Arbor Law School and recognized as an authority on water rights. His knowledge on this subject as well as his life-long experience in Eastern Oregon and his familiarity with conditions in this part of the State make it important that he should be retained upon the Bench.

Judge King is endorsed by the Non-Political Judiciary. This movement was authorized by the Oregon Bar Association and has for its object the removal of the judges from politics and from all political influences and the executive committee of the Non-Political Judiciary urges that Judge King, as one of the present members of the court, be retained. (In this connection read pages 31 to 34 in pamphlet to be issued by the Secretary of State and to be sent to all voters.) George H. Burnett, who was selected by the Republican Assembly, seeks Judge King's place on political grounds. Politics does not determine the qualification of jurors and should have no bearing upon the selection of judges.

Speaking of Judge King the Portland Daily Journal recently said:

"One of the ablest jurists in Oregon is Supreme Justice WILL R. KING. He is known throughout the state as an independent thinker of profound powers of analysis. He has the reputation among laymen as well as among the members of the bar of applying a great deal of common sense as well as broad intelligence in construing the law. Judge King is opposed by Judge Geo. H. Burnett, who was nominated by the assembly, who accepted the nomination from the assembly and who stands on the platform of the assembly, * * * * *

VOTERS! It is for you to say whether merit or politics shall rule in the selection of our judges

BREEZY NEWS NOTES FROM OLD UMATILLA

(Special Correspondence.)
Umatilla, Ore., Oct. 17.—Among the visitors in town today are G. B. Atkinson of Spokane, G. W. Taylor of Myrtle Point, E. A. Vesey of Waukena, O. T. C. Charles of Ellensburg and R. A. Wilson of Pottstown, Pa.

The bids on the stock of A. B. Stephens, Jr., close October 18, and a number of out of town merchants have been here the past few days examining the stock and have filed bids on same.

Although the population of Umatilla is not as large as other towns we can boast of having a very cosmopolitan one. One day last week we counted in the postoffice 12 different nationalities all at the one time. This included Japanese, Greeks, Chinese, Italians, Germans, Swede, English, Jew, Scotch, Irish, American and Indian.

I. J. Egan of Jones & Scott company of Walla Walla, is here today in the interests of his company.

H. T. Paterson has gone on a business trip to Portland.

Rev. Father Sheehan held services here Sunday at 7:30 a. m. and left on the motor for Hermiston, where services were also held. Father Sheehan brought the plans for the new Catholic church and a local contractor is making a bid for the contract.

A large consignment of freight was landed here today by the Open River Transportation company's boat for local merchants and for transfer by rail to other points.

B. O. Coleman has purchased a lot from John Switzer in the business center and will erect a workshop on it this fall.

Engineer C. O. Schubert and his fireman, A. J. Penny of La Grande, met with a painful accident last night when getting the engine ready for the mountain. In some unaccountable manner an explosion of acetylene gas was caused on the engine and both men were badly burned on the face and hands. They were sent to La Grande on train No. 10.

Mrs. Martin has closed her dining room for the present and leaves shortly for her home in Little Falls, Washington, where she will spend the winter.

R. M. Skidmore of Walla Walla, arrived here today and will take charge of Scott, Jones & company's work here, Chris Christianson, the former foreman, having resigned.

A Household Medicine.
To be really valuable must show good results from each member of the family using it. Foley's Honey and Tar does just this. Whether it is the chronic cough of elderly people, or whether it is with children or grown persons, Foley's Honey and Tar is always safe, sure and effective. It cures coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough and all affections of the throat chest and lungs. Earl Fair, Waukena, Wis., writes us recently, "For some years past I have been a great friend of your Woley's Honey and Tar cough remedy, and our family uses it for all coughs and colds. I had a most stubborn cough which gave me much distress and inconvenience and failed to respond to ordinary treatments. I finally resorted to the old reliable Foley's Honey and Tar and less than two 50-cent bottles effected a complete cure. I consider it the greatest and best cough remedy ever made and recommend it to all." A. C. Koeppe & Bro.

JUDGE COLLAPSES AFTER SENTENCING PRISONER

Spokane, Wash.—Almost immediately after he had sentenced Alexander David Minor, alias Charles D. Howell, formerly postmaster and deputy sheriff at Havre, Mont., to imprisonment for life at hard labor in the federal penitentiary for robbery, Judge Edward Whitson of the United States district court in Spokane, collapsed from a stroke of paralysis on the right side of the body. The attending physicians say he will recover.

Judge Whitson, who practiced his profession at North Yakima and other parts of Washington for 30 years, was appointed to the federal bench in March, 1905, and has presided at every case of importance in this district the last five years.

Minor was convicted last September on the charge of robbing a mail car on the Great Northern railway between Bonners Ferry, Idaho, and Spokane, in April, 1909. The robbery was one of the boldest ever committed in this part of the northwest. Just how much was the amount stolen by Minor is not known, but it is believed to have been more than $10,000. Minor worked alone.

Carrying a satchel, upon which was marked the name of Bennett, a postal inspector, Minor boarded the mail car at Bonners Ferry. His familiarity with the details of the work took away every suspicion and when the train started the robber drove John Nystuen, a mail clerk, into a locker, where he tied and gagged him. M. Stumps, another clerk, was tied to a chair. Minor then rifled the registered mail and escaped as the train pulled into Spokane.

He was arrested in Seattle last spring on the charge of robbing an express office and subsequently confessed robbing the mail car. As the crime was committed before the federal parole law became effective, Minor will remain in prison for life at Leavenworth, Kan., or Atlanta, Ga.
