Newsy Notes of Pendleton

To Close Out Telephone Company.

A suit to foreclose a mortgage against the Interstate telephone company, was filed today by W. L. Thompson, trustee. By foreclosing this mortgage it is sought to collect notes amounting to more than $6000 and held by the American National bank, the First National bank of this city, the First National bank of Pilot Rock and others.

Hogs from John Day Country.

Henry Rosenboom, a well known rancher from the John Day country, arrived in Pendleton last evening with a load of 30 hogs. Today, 1000 more of these animals were brought in, all being delivered to the Carney & Tweedy meat company. The hogs all came from the vicinity of Ritter and were brought in by Ira Arbogast, Asa Arbogast, Fred Mulkey, Charles Skinner and Joe Wilmet.

Motor Nearly Wrecked.

While running at a good rate of speed this morning, the motor car struck a track jack about a mile west of Echo and had a narrow escape from a wreck. An extra gang at work on the track had carelessly left the jack under the rail without putting out a flag. The car was slightly disabled but through the ingenuity of Engineer Carpenter he was able to bring his load of passengers on into Pendleton with a delay of only a few minutes.

BUSINESS CHANGE.

W. A. Sneaker Buys Ingram Crockery Department.
Another important business change was consummated in Pendleton today when W. A. Sneaker of the Owl Tea House took over the crockery department of the Ingram grocery store. Mrs. Sneaker was placed in charge of the new department, while her husband will remain in charge of the present at least.

Ingram intends to reduce his stock of groceries as low as possible by the first of the year at which time he will move out and Sneaker will have the entire store now occupied by Ingram. The groceryman expects to move his fixtures to Hood River where he and his family will make their home.

FIRES AGAIN THREATEN MINNESOTA PEOPLE

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 18.—Fires among the brush surrounding the forest again sprang to life it is reported, endangering lives and property. The people are alarmed and are fighting the blazes.

Speed Devil Under Ban Because He Arranged Race With Jack Johnson.

Whereas, Barney Oldfield, under the A. A. A. rules, a recognized and registered automobile racing driver, has announced or caused to be announced in public press and upon posters his entry in a so-called track race with Jack Johnson, at the Sheephead Bay track (unlicensed for automobile contests), to be held October 20, 1910, official sanction for which contest has neither been applied for nor issued, which action is a direct violation of rule 58 of the 1910 contest rules of the American Automobile association, viz:

"An entry in any unsanctioned contest, or an authorized announcement in public print that an entry has been or will be made, shall be deemed sufficient cause for immediate disqualification by the contest board of the owner, entrant, driver and car, or any or all of them," and

Whereas, the conduct of W. H. Pickens, Mr. Oldfield's manager, and his statements in the public press in connection with the proposed unsanctioned contest are injurious to the welfare of the sport and industry and destructive of the confidence of the public in automobile contests, and

Whereas, the entrance into an organized so-called sport which is under the ban in most of the states of the union and who is as we believe without requisite experience in automobile track racing and has yet to demonstrate his competency as a racing driver, would preclude the granting of official sanction for such so-called contest, as detrimental to the interests of regularly organized automobile competitions;

Therefore, Barney Oldfield is, under rule 58, hereby suspended and disqualified until further notice from future competition or participation in sanctioned automobile contests, and W. H. Pickens is hereby disqualified from participation in any sanctioned automobile contests, either as manager or an entrant, promoter, owner, driver or in any other capacity, and they are each of them hereby directed to show cause why such disqualification should not be made permanent.

CONTEST BOARD, A. A. A.
S. M. BUTLER, Chairman.

KEEPS HIS VOW.

Son Promised Father on Deathbed to Inter Mother by His Side.

Spokane, Wash.—When the mound of newly turned earth in the cemetery at Ottawa, Kan., closes over the coffin containing the body of his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Talbot, who died at his home, 208 Shannon street, Spokane, on October 11, W. A. Talbot, now on the way to the old home, will have fulfilled a promise made at his father's deathbed, in 1889. This was to care tenderly for his mother during her lifetime and to inter the body beside her husband's grave after death.

Mrs. Talbot, who was 87 years of age when she passed away, had as an attendant and companion during the last 21 years her son, an official of the auditing department of the Holland-Hoor mill company in this city. During his absence at the office his sister, Mrs. Flora F. Atcheson, ministered gently to the aged woman's wants, but every hour of Mr. Talbot's own time was spent by her-side. This loving devotion continued until the end came.

Talbot was a mere youth, hardly out of the secondary school, when his father, feeling the weight of years bearing him to the brink, called him to the bedside and gave the mother into the care of the son. The boy construed his promise to his dying father in the strictest sense and shut out all worldly pleasures for the society of his aged mother and their companionship was complete.

They lived together with Mrs. Atcheson, a life of books, of calmness and meditation. There were few callers and nothing to disturb the cloistered life they had chosen, and when the streaks of gray showed on his temples Talbot redoubled his efforts to make the evening of his mother's life one of peace and calm.

Mr. Talbot was accompanied to the railway station by a few friends the morning of October 13. They brought with them a wreath and sheaf of fragrant blooms, which will mark the resting place of his mother in the cemetery in Kansas.

APPLE PACKERS NEEDED.

Not Enough to Handle Crops—Packing Schools Necessary.

Spokane, Wash.—"Reports from practically every commercial orchard district in the northwestern and Pacific states and provinces in Canada indicate the lack of sufficient competent packers to handle the crops this season, thus strongly emphasizing the need of institutions where men and women can learn the principles of preparing apples for the market. Packing schools should be established in every community in the fruit belts, as the labor problem is becoming more serious every year."

Ren H. Rice, secretary and manager of the National Apple Show, Inc., said this in an interview today, adding:

"The demand for experienced packers in the apple districts this fall is the best evidence that provisions must be made at once to supply growers and shippers with competent help in the future. Calls are coming from all over the western country and the supply of packers is so limited that in many instances it has been found necessary to send wholly inexperienced workers into orchards and packing houses. With the many orchards coming into bearing in 1911 and to following years, the problem is bound to assume proportions.

"We expect to relieve the situation by conducting a free packing school in connection with the third National Apple Show in Spokane, November 14 to 19. A. P. Bateham and J. M. Carroll of Mosier, Ore., packers and teachers of wide experience, will have charge. Instructions in the diagonal and square packs will be given from 9 to 12 o'clock every morning in the state armory, adjoining the big exposition tents. The management has arranged to provide everything required free of charge to the students.

"Growers in all parts of the country have approved the plan and the numerous inquiries coming by every mail indicate there will be large classes through the week of the apple show."

Yield of One Tree $60.

North Yakima, Wash.—Sixty boxes of apples from a single tree, sold at a dollar a box, is one of the pleasant features of the harvest for T. W. Clark of Nob Hill boulevard. This very productive tree is a Red Cheeked Pippin, 18 years old. While this $60 performance is rather above the ordinary claim, even for North Yakima orchards, there are many trees which will produce from 20 to 30 boxes.

The English market is rapidly opening up for fruit from this section. J. Nichols of Convent Garden, acting for his firm Cere, has purchased 200 cartons to be packed and shipped at once. The London market has previously preferred the Yellow Newtons, but this order included a number of the red varieties.

Aeroplanes for Sahara.

Paris.—The ministry of war and the French Aerial league are endeavoring to establish an aeroplane service across the Sahara desert. The route will be from Southern Oran, at a point where the railways end, to the French possessions in Senegal, now an overland journey of four months.

If the aerial service can be established the journey could be accomplished in twenty-four hours. Aerial travel in the Sahara would be comparatively easy. There are no fogs, the air is exceptionally clear, there are no mountains to cross, and the wind is less variable than in hilly country.

Chances Good in Venezuela.

Washington.—Men who are willing and able to establish themselves in transportation, merchandising, manufacturing, agricultural pursuits, mining or the founding of a bank would do well to go to Venezuela, according to the annual report of Consul Manning of La Guayra.

The consul emphasizes opportunities for manufacturers of agricultural machinery, glass and earthenware; a big demand for butter is also mentioned. Beer, wines and mineral waters are set forth as articles that America should supply.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.

1. An Indian Girl's Awakening. Essanay, 1000 feet long. A beautiful story of the hopeless love of an Indian maiden for her white protector. A pretty costume picture with many strong dramatic incidents, excellently acted and exquisitely photographed.
2. The Gambler's Wife. Pathe, 1-000 feet long. A good drama showing how a devoted wife saved her husband from ruin.
3. A Dog on Business. Essanay, 1000 feet long. A snappy farce comedy with a scream in every foot. "Wesley" gets a hunch that would have been worth a couple of thousand to an ad man, and he makes use of it.
Song—Smarty.

The Pastime.

"Mrs. Rivington's Pride." Lubin, drama. Mrs. Rivington's pride would not permit her to explain where she got the necklace. She leaves the house stung to the quick by the unjust suspicion cast upon her.
"The Wrong Box." Vitagraph, Drama. A deliciously funny mixup. How a young man came very near losing his best girl. Higher class comedy rich in wit and humor.
"Resourceful Robert." Lubin, comedy. This young man proved his title when the father of the girl he wanted to marry said "No" and added other unpleasant things. Robert won out.
"Ingratitude." Urban drama. A story true to life.
"Military Kite Flying at Rheims." Belphe, scenic. The scenes here show how useful the kite may be in war.

Detroit Free Press: A Chicago dressmaker says that dresses should be made to fit, not only the body, but the disposition. How'd you like to have to hook a gown around your wife's disposition also?

CINNAMON BEAR ON CITY STREETS

Pendleton residents were this morning treated to the rare sight of a real live cinnamon bear on its main streets. The animal was six months of age and was brought in from the John Day country by Herman Rosenboom, the well known Ritter rancher.

Rosenboom secured the bear and his twin brother when not more than two or three hours old. They did not open their eyes until nine days later. The mother bear was killed and the two cubs taken home. The other cub was shipped to Tacoma, Washington. A few days ago and this one will stay near Pendleton as he was purchased by William Schwandt who will use him to train his bear dogs with.

The cub is a very fine specimen of the brown family. Though but six months old he now weighs nearly 100 pounds and Rosenboom says he will easily weigh 400 when he attains his growth. Having been given all he could eat since the day he was born the bear shows the result of his good keeping and is much larger and has a much better coat than bear of the same age which have roamed the woods. He attracted no little attention on the streets.

Perseverance is the staff upon which progress leans.

MUCH APPENDICITIS IN PENDLETON

Many people in Pendleton have chronic appendicitis and mistake it for stomach or bowel trouble. If you have wind or gas in the stomach or bowels, sour stomach or constipation, try simple buchu, bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-I-ka, the new German appendicitis remedy. A SINGLE DOSE of this simple remedy will relieve you—you will be surprised at the QUICK ACTION. The Pendleton Drug Co.
