Give Addresses in Gold Casket. Pretoria.—The town council of Pretoria will present the duke of Connaught on his arrival here with an address enclosed in a golden casket, especially designed by A. Van Wouw, the sculptor who designed the Kruger monument for S. Marks. No tool or file will be used in the making of the casket, which, if found to be in any way faulty, will be recast again and again until perfect. Over 121 pounds of gold will be used in the construction, and every part will consist of the solid metal. The design will be simple, and the lid will be surmounted by a massive lion couchant.

An Austrian inventor has devised a revolving tower from which are sent out electric flashes of various strengths to be used to destroy wireless messages in time of war.

SIMIAN DEFIES SAILORS FROM LOFTY PERCH

New York.—With a big African monkey perched on the crossbeams of the foremast, monarch or all he surveyed, defying all the efforts of the crew to dislodge him and two hundred of his fellows in cages on the deck below recovering from the effects of seasickness after a rough voyage, the Austrian Lloyd steamer Atlanta steamed into port from Trieste, Patras and Palermo.

The monkeys, 225 of them, consigned to a New York animal dealer, were taken on board at Patras. Twenty-five of them succumbed to the marine malady and were given an ocean burial, and many others were very ill.

The biggest monkey of the lot, irked by confinement, three times managed to break out of his cage. Twice he was recaptured, but his third breakaway was conspicuously successful and the crew found it impossible to secure him. When the steamer reached quarantine he was firmly ensconced in his position on the foremast crossbeams calmly gazing at the shores on both sides of the Narrows. Coaxing and attempted coercion were alike successfully resisted, and he was still secure on his perch aloft when the steamer proceeded to her pier.

Pennsylvania coal miners are opposing the enforced use of a new "safety" blasting powder because it shatters the coal into small fragments and reduces their earnings.

So many new uses have been found for graphite in recent years that large quantities of it are now made in electric furnaces, the natural supply being unequal to the demand.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.

Strong program for Friday's change.

1. The Japanese Spy. Kalem, 1000 feet long. This 20th century war story is a real novelty with genuine Japs. A Japanese baron has been detailed to secure information regarding the American army. His narrow escapes and final capture are incidents that add several thrills to this strong production.

2. In the Mission's Shadow. Another Melies western drama with a clergyman as peacemaker. A good play with exceptional acting.

3. The Pony Express Rider. Essanay, 1000 feet long. He is not more than a remembrance, now, but his deeds of heroism and his dauntless courage will not soon be forgotten. This story pictures an incident in the life of a pony express rider. A thrilling drama with an appealing heart interest.

4. Hank and Lank—Joy Riding. Comedy. Essanay. This is the first series of Hank and Lank. They are inexpressibly funny, a good laugh in every foot of the picture.

The Pastime.

Friday's new program follows:

"In Life's Cycle." Biograph, drama. Another of those ever interesting Biograph stories telling how a young girl meets a man from the city who impresses her to such a degree that she elopes with him only to be deceived and made to suffer for her false step.

"The Conspiracy of Pontiac." Kalem, drama. A big feature Indian story. This is without doubt one of the strongest and most realistic stories of early pioneer days ever presented the American public. The story shows how the warning from the Indian maiden enabled the English major to frustrate their plans.

"The Vagaries of Love." Pathé. Drama. A dramatic comedy full of quite amusing incidents.

ALL MY PIMPLES GONE.

Girl Tells How a Blotchy Skin Was Cleared by a Simple Wash. "I was ashamed of my face," writes Miss Minnie Pickard of Altamahaw, N. C. "It was all full of pimples and scars, but after using D. D. D. Prescription I can say that now there is no sign of that eczema, and that was three years ago."

D. D. D. has become so famous as a cure and instant relief in eczema and all other serious skin diseases, that its value is sometimes overlooked in clearing up rash, pimples, blackheads, and all other minor forms of skin impurities.

The fact is, that while D. D. D. is so penetrating that it strikes to the very root of eczema or any other serious trouble, the soothing Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol and other ingredients are so carefully compounded there is no wash for the skin made that can compare with this great household remedy for every kind of skin trouble.

D. D. D. is pleasant to use, perfectly harmless to the most delicate skin, and absolutely reliable. A 25 cent bottle will give you positive proof of the wonderful effectiveness of this great remedy. Tallman Drug Co.
