

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brookfield, Mo.—"Two years ago I was unable to do any kind of work and only weighed 118 pounds. My troubles dated back to the time that women may expect nature to bring on them the Change of Life. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel much better, and I have continued its use. I am very grateful to you for the good health I am now enjoying."—Mrs. SARAH LOUISGONT, 414 S. Livingston Street, Brookfield, Mo.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills—inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.
1. The Japanese Spy. Kalem, 1000 feet long. This 20th century war story is a real novelty with genuine Japs. A Japanese baron has been detailed to secure information regarding the American army. His narrow escapes and final capture are incidents that add several thrills to this strong production.

2. In the Mission's Shadow. Another Melies western drama with a clergyman as peacemaker. A good play with exceptional acting.
3. The Pony Express Rider. Essanay, 1000 feet long. He is not more than a remembrance, now, but his deeds of heroism and his dauntless courage will not soon be forgotten. This story pictures an incident in the life of a pony express rider. A thrilling drama with an appealing heart interest.

4. Hank and Lank—Joy Riding. Comedy. Essanay. This is the first series of Hank and Lank. They are inexpressibly funny, a good laugh in every foot of the picture.

The Pastime.
"In Life's Cycle." Biograph, drama. Another of those ever interesting Biograph stories telling how a young girl meets a man from the city who impresses her to such a degree that she elopes with him only to be deceived and made to suffer for her false step.

"The Conspiracy of Pontiac." Kalem, drama. A big feature Indian story. This is without doubt one of the strongest and most realistic stories of early pioneer days ever presented the American public. The story shows how the warning from the Indian maiden enabled the English major to frustrate their plans.
"The Vagaries of Love." Patho. Drama. A dramatic comedy full of quite amusing incidents.

CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Good Thing to Know.
If you now own a Hyomei hard rubber inhaler, Tallman wants you to know that they will sell you a bottle of HYOMEI for only 50 cents.

Remember this, all who suffer with catarrh—a bottle of HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) is put up in a separate package and sold for 50 cents, to accommodate the vast army of people who already own a Hyomei inhaler.

Tallman will sell it to you at that price and give you the opportunity to begin at once to rid yourself of vile catarrh and the sniffing, hawking and spitting that go with it.

Many people through years of neglect, have let catarrh get a strong hold upon them. Some of these people unreasonably think that one bottle of HYOMEI ought to cure them. No matter how chronic your catarrh troubles, HYOMEI is guaranteed by Tallman to cure them if you give it half a chance. Just breathe it, that's all, and its healing, soothing, antiseptic properties will make you feel better in a day.

If you own an inhaler get a 50 cent bottle of HYOMEI today. If you do not own a Hyomei inhaler, ask for a $1 outfit, which includes inhaler.

MILITAMEN MAY GET REGULAR PAY

Portland, Ore. — Triumphant in his battle for the betterment of the Oregon National Guard Adjutant-General Finzer has returned from the meeting of the National Guard association of the United States at Washington, D. C. Elected a vice-president of the organization, General Finzer is also a member of the committee which will present a bill for congressional action at the next session, and which is designated to pay a portion of the expenses of the members of the Guard who, through patriotism, are made financial losers in the discharge of their duties.

The bill which the National Guard association approved provides that officers and men shall attend at least 20 drills of their companies in each year before they shall be placed on the pay roll. Officers and privates who attend 24 drills will be given official rating.

Enlisted men will receive 25 per cent of the annual pay awarded for regulars, or $3.25 a month.

General Finzer made a requisition while in Washington for a complete equipment of the new paraphernalia prescribed by the Secretary of War. Instead of carrying their blankets and overcoats in a roll around the neck, the new fashion will be to place them in a neat pack on the shoulders. In this position they may be used as supports while resting, and do not interfere with the men when firing.

Cottolene

Doughnut Day is enjoyed by all the family without fear of future disaster

There are two kinds of doughnuts—
There's the lard-laden doughnut that is heavy, soggy and lies like lead in the stomach—that's the old-fashioned kind. Steer clear of it; it's the lard that makes it indigestible, not the cook.
Then there's the crisp, flaky, richly browned doughnut, that almost melts in your mouth, yet without the suspicion of greasiness. This kind is made with Cottolene, a vegetable product that makes food that even a child can digest with ease.

You never knew real doughnut goodness until you try the kind made with Cottolene.

Cottolene is much purer and more wholesome than lard.

Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY

Never Sold in Bulk
Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top, to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

THE RESTLESS MODERN WOMAN

By Edward Bok, Editor of Ladies' Home Journal.

For a number of years there has grown up in America a dangerous type of woman, a woman who, misunderstanding the modern currents of thought, has believed that her work in the world lay outside of the home or who for some reason or other has developed a positive aversion to motherhood.

This aversion to motherhood, this unwillingness to be a woman in the highest sense of the word, leaves the woman unsatisfied. So for what she cannot find a natural outlet in her home, she goes outside, looks around for what is going on, and plunges into the first excitement that she meets. It may be bridge; it may be vivisection; it may be woman's clubs; it may be woman suffrage.

In Chicago they had the cry, "No ballot, no babies." Another suffragist simply said that "it was far more important for a woman to be a woman than to be a mother." No matter how they phrase it, there is always the same undercurrent; the same basic aversion to motherhood.

And this whole tendency toward an aversion to motherhood on the part of one element of restless American womanhood has brought about a corresponding keenness on the part of another and larger element of American womanhood toward a close study of the conditions of childhood in America.

"Woman suffrage is an excitement of the child is a great operating movement, being born of the many. That is the great ethical question we are facing; the future of the child, and in comparison with it, so far as the real interest and deep anxiety of the American woman as a sex is concerned, the question of woman suffrage fades into insignificance."
