Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Would Collect Notes.
An action to collect two notes amounting to $400 was filed today in the circuit court by the Tierney-Toner Co., versus W. M. Johnson.

Many Names on Petition.
County Recorder F. W. Hendley today filed his nominating petition as an independent candidate for re-election. The petition contains 793 names.

Case Settled Out of Court.
The case of Bowman versus Bowman, being an action to determine the ownership of a piece of land, failed to come to trial yesterday afternoon called. When the case was called, one of the attorneys appeared and explained that the parties to the suits had agreed to a settlement out of court.

Upon Inspecting Trip.
A. B. Cade, superintendent of the transcontinental freight inspection, was here yesterday upon business relating to his official position. While here he consulted with William DeLman, local transcontinental freight inspector, and left for Baker City in the evening. Mr. Cade has headquarters in Seattle.

Football Boys to Walla Walla.
The football team of the Pendleton high school left this morning for Walla Walla and is locked in gridiron combat with the Garden City high school this afternoon. The team was accompanied by Principal A. C. Hampton, Glenn Scott and Dale Chessman.

Water at 13 Feet.
Though down to a depth of but 13 feet the workmen who are digging the big well for the O. R. & N. roundhouse were forced to stop labor today while waiting for a pumping plant. The water is so deep in the well that further progress cannot be made until after the pump is installed. The new well is located between the O. R. & N. tracks and the new roundhouse. It is 20 feet in diameter.

Phone Officials Were Here.
George B. Bush, general commercial superintendent for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, with headquarters at San Francisco, and W. J. Phillips, division commercial superintendent with headquarters in Portland, were here yesterday upon a visit to the local office. According to Mr. Bush his company is intending to do considerable cable work in Pendleton soon so as to do away with the interference with the wires by the limbs of trees.

Civil Service Vacancies.
Lester Cronin, local clerk for the board of civil service examiners, has been notified to hold examinations in this city, November 9, 10 and 11, for the positions of inspector of mechanical and electrical engineering, translator for the bureau of mines, plant pathologist, mechanic and laboratory aid in the bureau of plant industry in connection with the department of agriculture. December 11 he will hold an examination to fill vacancies in the position of field clerk in the reclamation service. Information concerning these examinations can be obtained of Cronin who will be found at the post office.

Will Lose An Eye.
J. Norokos, a Greek laborer, employed by the Eschbach-Bruce company in the construction of the Furnish-Coe dam at Coe, will lose the sight of one eye as a result of an accident which happened at the dam, Wednesday afternoon, according to an announcement made this morning by Dr. Temple. A sliver of steel flew from a wedge, piercing the man's eyelid and lodging in the ball directly behind the pupil. All efforts to remove the bit of steel have been in vain and the eye will now be removed. The operation will probably be performed at St. Anthony's hospital though the man may be taken to Portland for the operation.

Shooting in Self Defense.
Sam Kee, the Umatilla Chinese restaurant man, who shot and killed James William Lovelace, was given his liberty today following the announcement of the verdict of the coroner's jury which held that the shooting was done in self defense. The jury was impaneled here yesterday morning, taken to Umatilla where the witnesses to the shooting were examined. After taking all the testimony the six men signed the following verdict: "We find that the said James William Lovelace came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by a gun in the hands of Sam Kee at Umatilla, Oregon, on the seventeenth day of October, 1910, and we do further find that said shooting by Sam Kee was justifiable and done in self-defense."

Tutor.
Miss Anna Waugh wishes to announce that she is prepared to tutor pupils in both grade and high school subjects. Miss Waugh is well qualified to do this work for she is a graduate of Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Ida., and the University of Chicago and has had experience in teaching in the rural and high schools. For several years she has been engaged in tutoring in her home town where the results obtained in all branches but especially in mathematics, have been very satisfactory, both to the parents and pupils themselves. If you are interested call and see her at Mrs. Flora Harper's, 300 S. Main street.

Thursday Afternoon Club.
All club members are earnestly requested to be present at a business meeting Saturday evening 7:30 o'clock at the box for the purpose of re-constitution. PEAT

Vernon 2, Los Angeles 0.
Los Angeles, Oct. 21.—Vernon defeated Los Angeles again yesterday, shutting out the home team, 2 to 0. Thorsen was hit freely by the Villagers, while Raleigh remained a puzzle to his opponents throughout the game. Score: R. H. E.
ernon 2 8 1
Los Angeles 0 4 2
Raleigh and Brown; Thorsen and Smith.

Sacramento 3, Oakland 0.
Sacramento, Oct. 21.—Pape was a puzzle to the Oaklanders yesterday, Sacramento winning 3 to 0. But three scattered hits were taken from the delivery of the ex-Boston Red, while Moser was pounded for eight hits, Danzig lifted the ball over the right field fence in the fifth inning, when two were out.

It was ascertained today that a Portland merchant had offered the Senators $400 to win the series and $200 if the teams split even. Ardelanes was guaranteed a bonus of $100 to win two games. Score: R. H. E.
Oakland 0 3 0
Sacramento 3 8 0
Moser and Mitz; Pape and La-Longe.

Frisco 8; Portland 0.
Oakland, Cal., Oct. 21.—Portland couldn't or wouldn't play ball behind Pitcher Steen yesterday and the falling form put the northerners on the light side of an 8 to 0 score. Error followed error at critical times and the local outfit had little difficulty in keeping men on bases. Shaw, who is being tried out by Danny Long in center field was the star of the day. Out of four times at the bat he drove out four hits, one of which was for three bases and another for two. Portland was beaten at the outset when Mohler's men put three runs over on three hits in the second inning. Score: R. H. E.
San Francisco 8 10 1
Portland 0 6 5
