Southern Pacific Officials Here.

E. E. Cooper, assistant engineer for the Southern Pacific company, arrived in Pendleton this afternoon for a visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Cooper. He is now engaged in locating a road for the S. P. company in the northern part of California.

In Statement I Corral.

Represented by his press agent, Goodwin, J. N. Burgess, candidate for state senator, today filed with County Clerk Frank Saling a formal statement No. 1 pledge. However, the fact will not appear upon the ballot in the general election as nothing but the party designation is allowed on the ballot in the general election. Had Mr. Burgess been a statement No. 1 man prior to the primary election the fact would have been shown on the primary ballot.

Nolen Ordered Into Court.

Attorney S. A. Newberry, acting for Ralph Nolen who is suing for divorce and who is in contempt of court, appeared before Judge Bean this morning and asked that the divorce suit be re-opened. The court ruled that the case would not be re-opened until Nolen appeared in court and paid the amount of alimony in which he is in arrears and for non-payment of which he is in contempt of court. Nolen has made but one monthly payment, that being made only after he had been ordered to jail in contempt of court. Before the next payment became due he left the state and is now supposed to be at North Yakima.

Women Responsible for Arrest.

Mrs. H. F. Peters, manager of the Arlington hotel and Mrs. Nellie Lindsey, an employe of the hotel are the persons to whom credit is due for the apprehension of the suit-case burglar Wednesday evening. Mrs. Peters and her companion discovered the burglar and his two companions ransacking Bert Montgomery's room and notified the police. Two of the men escaped before Officer Sheer arrived but the third man was held by the women until the officer reached the scene. The other two men have not been apprehended though a good description of them was given the officer by the two women before they had time to get further than the depot.

Interesting Membership Campaign.

The United Artisans campaign for new members which is drawing to a close is also waxing exceedingly interesting. The campaign is being conducted by Dr. G. C. Eshelman of Portland and the assemblies of Pendleton, Walla Walla, Dayton, Waukegan and Milton who are participating in the contest, have all made large gains in membership. The anniversary meeting will be held in Walla Walla No. 2, at which time the reports will be made and the contest decided. From present appearances the last ten days will witness an exciting race between Walla Walla and Pendleton for a silver mounted gavel, suitably engraved to be presented to the winner by the supreme office. Honors between the two leaders are now even.

RICH GOLD STRIKE IS MADE IN LINN COUNTY

Albany, Or.—A gold discovery that would occasion the widest kind of a mining stampede had it been made in Alaska or some region equally as remote, has been reported by George Oakley, who has been prospecting in the upper Santiam country this summer. Mr. Oakley exhibited a nugget the size of a small pigeon's egg which contains at least $20 of the yellow metal. This he says was taken from a single piece of quartz chipped from a ledge. Mr. Oakley's find was made in Linn county, about 18 miles southeast of Gates. At one place the ledge comes to the surface, and he has uncovered it for quite a distance to a depth of three to six feet. Oakley is a practical miner and thinks he has a bonanza.

Unveil Fuller Memorial.

London.—The beautiful brass by which a few American and British admirers of Thomas Fuller hope to perpetuate the memory of the author of "Worthies of England" in the Dorset village where for a time he was vicar has been unveiled in Broadwindsor church. The moving spirit of the affair was Teleantony Cuyler of Atlanta, Ga. The day selected was the anniversary of Charles the Second's flight through Broadwindsor after the battle of Worcester in 1651. Fuller afterward wrote that monarch's restoration "panegyric."

A weekly paper says that nowhere is Fuller more appreciated than in America.

Income Is $10,000,000 Short.

Berlin.—According to the "Lokalspiegel," as a result of Ministerial conferences it has been decided not to introduce new imperial taxation before the elections next autumn, and for the present the government will trust to rigorous economy in all departments to make expenditure and revenue balance. The journal considers the possibility of this, however, to be highly problematical, and adds that from statistical returns published here it appears probable, judging by the first five months of the fiscal year, that the revenue from the new taxes in 1909 will fall short of the estimates by $10,750,000.

STANFIELD MAY GET PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

In answer to the petition from the town of Stanfield for the establishment of a Presbyterian church at that place, a committee from the Pendleton presbytery went to Stanfield this morning to make an investigation and organize a church, if the way be found clear and as represented.

The members of the committee are Rev. B. F. Harper of Milton, Sunday school missionary for eastern Oregon; Rev. J. M. Cornelison, missionary for the Umatilla Indian reservation with headquarters at the Tutuilla mission; and Rev. S. L. Clark, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Echo. Harper was on the morning train from Milton and was joined here by Cornelison. They proceeded west on the local, being joined at Echo by Clark, the third member of the committee.

They are spending the day at Stanfield and are not only investigating the matter but are also prepared to take the steps necessary to form the organization. They will be assisted in this by Rev. J. C. Faucett who has been located at Stanfield for the past few months and who is very enthusiastic over the prospects there.

CITY AUTHORITIES DO CONTROL STREETS

That the city authorities have control of the streets in Reservation addition, as well as in other parts of the city, and that the federal government does not assert any interest whatever in the Reservation addition streets is shown by a letter just received by Councilman J. L. Sharon from Fred Dennett, commissioner of the land office. Councilman Sharon was prompted to write Mr. Dennett upon this subject through the fact that some local people are claiming the city has no authority to vacate Aura and Lillesh streets because those streets are in Reservation addition.

The letter which is as follows, is self-explanatory.
Washington, Oct. 15, 1910.
J. L. Sharon,
Pendleton, Oregon.
Sir:—In response to your letter of September 22, 1910, you are advised that under the act of August 5, 1882 (22 Stats., 297), the reserve addition to the town of Pendleton, Oregon, was surveyed and platted into lots, blocks, streets and alleys and said lots and blocks have been disposed of.
The surveying and platting of a tract of public land into lots, blocks, streets and alleys for townsite purposes, and the recording of such plat and the disposal of the lots and blocks therein constitute a dedication of the streets and alleys to the public (10 L. D. 375). Thereafter such streets and alleys are under the control and supervision of the public authorities authorized to have such control by state laws, and the United States government has no further control or authority over the same.
Very respectfully,
FRED DENNETT,
Commissioner.

Victim of Shooting is Buried.
James William Lovelace, the man who was shot and killed by Sam Kee, the Chinaman, at Umatilla last Monday, was interred in Olney cemetery this morning. The brief ceremony was held by Rev. Nathan Evans, pastor of the Methodist church.
