Forty Cars of Cattle.

A train of forty carloads of beef cattle passed through Pendleton this morning on their way to the state line where they will be unloaded for feeding. A part of the cattle were loaded at Baker and the others at Joseph.

Sues to Collect Rent.

An action for money, having for its object the collection of a balance of $50 due on a note with interest and attorney fees and $900 due for the rental of a building, was filed today by Mrs. Sibyl Clifton against Otto Reimann.

Fine Apples From Fee Ranch.

A display of fine apples from the Judge Fee farm on Wild Horse has been attracting no little attention today in the window of the Standard Grocery company on Court street. The exhibit consists of Rome Beauties and Arkansas Blacks.

Halloween Dance at Helix.

The Helix Ladies of Maccabees have completed arrangements for the big dance to be given in that place, Friday night, October 28. A general invitation has been extended to the general public to attend and many Pendleton people are going out for the event.

Building Addition to Store.

Otto Hobbach is building a brick addition to his Court street bakers and store. The addition will be made entirely of brick, will be one story high and 40 by 40 feet. The bake ovens and candy factory will be located in the new part of the building as soon as it is completed.

Destroying Deserted House.

The brown house which has stood unoccupied for several years at the corner of Lilletth and Railroad streets, is now being torn down. The land on which the building stands was recently acquired by the O. R. & N. company and in line with that company's policy of cleaning up its grounds the building is being torn down and removed.

Who Knew L. A. Gleason?

An inquiry has been received by the chief of the police for friends or relatives of Leonard A. Gleason who died at the county hospital in Seaside recently. The information is sought by H. S. Norce, an official at the Seattle county hospital, and any one knowing the deceased is requested to communicate with that officer. The telegram received by the chief of police stated the dead man had friends in Pendleton.

Almost a Train Wreck.

A near train wreck occurred between this city and Echo last evening. Two freight trains attempted to pass when the locomotive of the one on the sidetrack was too near the main line. The result was that the pilots of both engines were badly demolished, but neither engine was derailed and the damage was comparatively light.

Lincoln Bucks for Wallowa.

Sam Litch, one of the leading sheepmen of Wallowa county, is in Pendleton today on his way home from Arlington. He has 50 thoroughbred Lincoln bucks which he purchased of Smythe Brothers and which were stopped here today for feeding. Though the Lincoln sheep are proving very popular in eastern Oregon, this will be the first ones to be introduced in Wallowa county. Frank Chapman, a Pilot Rock wool grower has also purchased 12 head of bucks from Smythe Brothers, the animals having been brought this far in the car with the Litch shipment.

Pendleton Boys Play.

In speaking of the annual freshman-sophomore game at the University of Oregon, which was won by the latter by a 19 to 0 score, the Oregon Emerald says: "Features of the game were the line plunging of Shike Storie and Breedy Barzee, the momentum and nerve exhibited by Spider Wentworth, and the patrolling of Muggsie Briedwell. The freshmen boys deserve special mention for gentlemanly conduct and a retiring disposition." The Storie in question is none other than Glen Storie, one time gridiron hero at the local high school, and the Barzee is Lloyd Barzee, who visited in Pendleton this summer as the guest of Harold Warner. Lyman Rice appeared in the freshman lineup at one of the guard positions.

REPUBLICANS LEAVE ON CAMPAIGN TRIP

Republican county candidates left this morning by auto for the southern end of the county. Those in the party were S. D. Peterson, candidate for representative; County Judge Gilliland, candidate for re-election; Mack Cockburn, candidate for county commissioner; Zoeth Houser, the republican candidate for sheriff who failed to get the endorsement of his party and is therefore running as an independent; George W. Bradley, candidate for re-election as treasurer, and Attorney S. F. Wilson, of Athena, who was defeated by C. A. Barrett for the nomination for joint senator.

The party went direct to Ukiah from this city where a meeting will be held tonight. Attorney S. F. Wilson and S. D. Peterson will be the principal speakers. Tomorrow sometime a meeting will be held at Albee and tomorrow night a meeting will be held at Pilot Rock. C. A. Barrett, nominee for joint senator, will join the party at Pilot Rock and will participate in the meeting there.

TACOMA WILL PROBABLY SECURE A NEW COUNT

Washington, Oct. 26.—There is every indication this afternoon that Tacoma, Wash., would gain a recount of its census following the charges that Tacoma was bunched out of its rightful population when 32,000 names were stricken from the census. A Tacoma delegation arrived today and immediately waited on Director Durand of the census, and Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel. The committee gave the officials statistics regarding Tacomas population and asserted the fraud charges had injured the town.

FRENCH ENTRANTS REFUSE TO RACE OVER HOUSES

Belmont Park, Oct. 26.—Officials decided that the coup internationale scheduled for this afternoon will be run regardless of the French entrants' refusal to compete. M. Gagnier, representing the Aero club of France, officially filed a protest against flying over a course laid over houses, but Chairman McCoy refused to change it. The French allege the course should be over a clear country. "At Rheims, Curtis won the internationale over a course over houses," said McCoy in reply.

PROMINENT SOUTHERN POLITICIAN PASSES AWAY

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 26.—Former Governor Allan Chandler, one of the most widely known southerners, died here this morning. He has been prominent politically for fifty years, and served two terms as governor and once as congressman.

PETERSON POKED FUN AT BURGESS

PILOT ROCK PEOPLE CHEER SARCASTIC WORDS

County Chairman, Introducing Senator Smith, Assails J. N. Burgess as Eleventh Hour Repentant—Meeting Was Very Successful.

In a speech introducing Senator C. J. Smith at the political rally at Pilot Rock last night Will M. Peterson, democratic county chairman, sarcastically assailed J. N. Burgess for his stand in reference to statement No. 1. Referring to Senator Smith's opponent he said he had entered the present campaign opposed to statement No. 1. However Burgess had visited in the east end of the county and finding sentiment there almost unanimous for the statement had undergone an entire change of religion. The speaker pictured the candidate as having consulted with C. A. Barrett regarding how to obtain salvation and of then appearing at the mourner's bench as a confessing statement No. 1 man.

Mr. Peterson's reference to the "flip flop" performance by the republican candidate for senator brought forth much applause and laughter. Despite the fact that Pilot Rock is Mr. Burgess' home town it is evident, so members of the party assert, that Senator Smith will have many votes in that section. Mr. Burgess' change of heart regarding statement No. 1 has plainly not made the hit hoped for. Aside from Mr. Peterson the speakers at Pilot Rock last night were Senator Smith, J. W. Maloney, candidate for county judge, Ben F. Hill, candidate for joint representative, Dr. Monkman, candidate for coroner, T.

J. Tweedy, candidate for treasurer, and Cecil R. Wade.

Though Pilot Rock is a small place 75 people were out for the meeting last evening and members of the party who were there consider the rally as having been very satisfactory.

MISS TERRY ARRIVES TO BEGIN U. S. TOUR

New York, Oct. 26.—Professing her delight to again set foot upon American soil, Miss Ellen Terry arrived today to begin her ninth tour of the United States, which will extend as far as San Francisco and British Columbia. The greatest of living feminine Shakespearean actresses and students will appear in various Shakespearean roles in the course of discussions of the heroines and other characters of the bard of Avon. The auditors will be given many a peep behind the scenes of the London Lyceum during the height of her fame in the best Irving days, and there are sure to be reminiscences of the great actor and his supporters which Miss Terry has not given to the world. In addition to the talks, Miss Terry, in costume, will give scenes from the plays in which the characters under discussion are most prominent.

To interviewers Miss Terry denied that this is to be considered her farewell American tour, but the fact that the famous actress is nearing her sixty-third birthday renders it quite probable that this will be the last opportunity for the people of this country to hear and see their favorite Shakespearean actress.

Miss Terry was born Feb. 27, 1848, and made her first appearance at the Princess' theatre, London, under Mrs. Charles Kean. Her first appearance with Sir Henry Irving was in "The Taming of the Shrew." Her first appearance at the Lyceum, which marked the beginning of her great success, was in 1878, as "Ophelia."

MILLINERY TO PLEASE

Freaks are taboed in the Vogue's exhibition of millinery. The authoritative styles of the world's greatest artists are shown here; not the experiments of amateurs. Side by side with the Paris and New York models are shown the clever creations of our own designers; you'll only know the difference by the prices.

It's a millinery season that should be a delight to all women, for the styles are so widely varied that every face and figure can be suited. There are the big hats and little hats; brilliant colors and subdued shades; all are correct styles and the selection is a mere matter of individual taste.

Then we trim hats to order from your own suggestions, so that you can be exactly pleased if you do not find just what you wish in stock.

Feathers, Flowers, Plumes, Aligrettes, Ribbons and Ornaments of every conceivable kind and color are to be had here.

It's the largest millinery department in the city and hundreds of customers tell us it's the best.

Out-of-town visitors are particularly invited to view the displays.

We will make special prices on all trimmed hats for the balance of this week--we make our prices suit as well as our patterns.
