Pendleton's football season will be rmally opened on Matlock field tomorrow afternoon with a game beween the Pendleton high school and Pearson's Academy teams. The game will not only be the first of the season but it will be the last one to be played in this city until Thanksgived here between the local team and one of the strong Portland teams. It was originally intended to play Columbia College but as that team has disbanded since its defeat by Pearson's Academy, the latter team was se-

ing when it is hoped by the local management that a game will be play-cured instead. Though the locals will go into the game tomorrow somewhat crippled and with several new men in the lineup it is believed that victory erch on the Pendleton banner at the close of the contest. At the opening of the game there will be an entire w back field with the exception of Devine who will be in his regular podition at fullback. Chapman will ake Kimball's place at quarter while C. Jordan and McDonald will start out at half in place of Bowman and

Thompson. A. Jordan will play center, while Finnell, Strangier, and Houser, and Carroll will all be given a chance at he guard positions. rman and Strain will play the tackle ositions while Carlander, Milne and Caylor will take care of the ends.

The officials for Pendleton will robably be Mark Moorhouse and Glen Considerable interest attaches to this contest by reason of the fact that t will be the first game ever played Pendleton under the new rules. nstead of being played in two halves s formerly it will be played in four There are ther radical changes which leaves the game an altogether different looking affair than any other football contest witnessed on a local field.

Rally Tonight. The regular annual football rally will be held on the high school campus this evening. The torch will be applied to the bon fire about 7:15 and after the usual spirit enthusing performance about the fire the participants will form a line of march for a parade of the principal streets of

LONDON SUCCESS SECURED.

"The Chocolate Soldier" Expects Run of Many Months.

London.—The success scored by The Chocolate Soldier" in America has been repeated in London and if the present indications are of any value in forming an estimate of the piece's chances it should run at the Lyric for many months,

This condition of things is, so far as the London production is concerned. ing waltz melody which the people whistle and hum as they linger after the final curtain has fallen. The cast contains no name of special magnetism and the performance reveals no work of striking individuality It is moderately good all around, waltz, "My Life Is Lonely," has done the town, and Fred C. Whitney, who brought the piece from America, is so happy about it that he will he says at once begin on plans for further productions on this side,
