DOUGLAS COUNTY STANDS FOR WEST

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE WILL GET MAJORITY

Men of Both Parties Welcome Him For His Views on the Direct Primary—Drain Will Give Bowerman the Axe.

Roseburg, Ore., Oct. 28.—Douglas county will give Oswald West, anti-assembly and Statement No. 1 candidate for governor, a plurality of 200 votes or more on November 8. There are many Douglas county men who place the estimate at a higher figure, but an average of the conservative estimates, furnished for the most part by republicans who are familiar with county politics and who have studied the situation closely, places it at 200 at least.

West made a flying trip through the county Wednesday. He started at Drain in the early morning and drove from there to Yoncalla, finally catching the train at Oakland and ending his day's work at Roseburg in the evening.

Popular Man at Roseburg. A big rally was held at Roseburg Wednesday night and West was given a warm and enthusiastic greeting. He had an audience at the court house, larger than that given to Bowerman on the occasion of the assembly candidate's visit to the city, and his audience cheered him as he spoke and staid until after the close to shake hands with him and pledged him their support. Bowerman's audience, when he spoke quietly stole away as he talked to them. Prominent republicans in Douglas county are supporting West. Some of the men here who were for Bowerman when he was in the county are quietly telling their friends that West is the man. They are against the assembly and the candidate of the assembly. Douglas is an anti-assembly county, and the anti-assembly men are not supporting Bowerman.

Majority Oppose Assembly. On every hand it is conceded by assembly men that Bowerman's only hope of carrying the county would be through the fact that the anti-assembly men staid at home. The normal republican majority is 800 or more, but by far the greater part of the republicans are bitterly opposed to the assembly. They were so much opposed that they did not vote in the primaries. "Let them nominate assembly men if they want to; we will fix them at the general election," was the sentiment, and the rumblings show that they are getting ready to fix them.

Drain is a republican stronghold of the county, yet West was given the glad hand on every side by the residents there. "We remember Bowerman up here," they said, "and we do not want him or his assembly. He fought us in 1903 and 1905, and we are remembering him."

TO OPEN WINTER COURSE.

Six Weeks' Course Given at Oregon Agricultural College.

Corvallis, Ore., Oct. 26.—The winter short course at the Oregon Agricultural college will commence January 3, continuing for a period of six weeks and will be followed immediately by a special course commencing February 13 and extending over a period of one week which will be known as Farmers' Week. This announcement has just been made by the chairman of the course committee.

The work will cover a six weeks' course in agronomy, animal husbandry, poultry husbandry, horticulture, dairying, domestic science and art, mechanic arts and forestry. Under these various heads the most practical work that can possibly be prepared will be offered to the short course students. The work is designed to meet the requirements of men and women, old and young.

The college has added greatly to the equipment and building space which will be available for this work. The new agricultural building has been completed and is splendidly equipped with laboratories and recitation rooms. The new green houses are also completed and are available for the work in floriculture. New laboratories are also being equipped in the old agricultural building and by the time the short course commences will be in splendid condition. A number of new instructors have also been added to the staff and will give special attention to this work.

The courses which will be offered have been carefully prepared so as to meet the immediate requirements of the men and women who are actually carrying on the agricultural work throughout the state. The men will be taught the advantages of the latest scientific discoveries in the field of agronomy, dairying, poultry husbandry, fruit growing and stock raising. The women will be taught many valuable lessons in sewing, cooking and home sanitation. The work is such that will be of great value to the young men and women and to the mature farmer and housewife.

Last year the students who were in attendance at this course varied in age from 16 to 65 years, and among those who expressed themselves as having derived the greatest benefit from the work, were the older and more experienced farmers. The committee now in charge of the work is arranging for the accommodation of these men and women and will probably secure special rates from the railroad companies. A complete circular describing the work and the expenses and accommodations will be issued about the first of December.

No entrance examinations or other educational tests will be required and the only expenses will be those for board and room and a small registration fee. There will be no fees for the special Farmers' Week course.

Among the important provisions adopted by the committee are that five commissioners, elected at large, shall be paid at the rate of $5,000 a year for terms of two, three and four years; that the city engineer must have had at least five years' professional experience and the corporation counsel must have practiced law in the state since 1905; that the city clerk keep the records and publish an official gazette. The bonds of city employees were fixed at not less than $25,000. Those five departments will be created under the terms of the charter: Public affairs, finance, public safety, works and utilities. It is expected that the charter will be submitted to the electors some time in November.

WASHINGTON ASS'N TO HOLD CONVENTION THERE

Will Be Most Important and Interesting in History of Movement—State Aid Supporters Will Be Fought on Floor.

Walla Walla, Wash.—There is every indication that the annual convention of the Washington State Good Roads association in Walla Walla, November 29 to December 1, will be the most important and interesting in the history of the organization. The program includes a report by Frederick W. Dewart of Spokane, chairman of the legislative committee, composed of one member from every county in the state. This is likely to precipitate a finish fight between supporters of the state aid law and those who have opposed the administration of the state highway department.

Governors and representatives from Oregon, Idaho, Montana and the province of British Columbia will meet on November 28 to discuss with delegates from Washington some of the vital questions bearing on the good roads program presented in their several localities. J. A. The tentative program for the convention in the Keylor Grand opera house, as arranged by the executive committee, follows:

PROPERTY OWNERS NOT PERMITTED TO PAY TAXES

Spokane, Wash.—Unprecedented in the history of the Pacific Northwest is the situation brought to light at Starbuck, in Columbia county, Wash., south of Spokane, where the property owners will not be permitted to pay taxes in 1911 on account of the failure of the city council to publish a statement of the resources and estimated expenditures of the municipality for the coming year. The state law provides that this report must be made before the first Monday in October. Just where the revenue is to be obtained has not been decided. Improvements made recently, including a school building, costing $25,000 called for the maximum levy of 16 mills for next year, but this cannot be assessed against the property in the city, owing to the neglect of the council to comply with the state law. The city of Starbuck has a population of between 900 and 1,000 and is prosperous.
