BIG AERIAL CRUISER SOON BE LAUNCHED

London, Nov. 4 .- In a huge shed at Barrow, workmen are putting the finishing touches on Great Britain's first great aerial cruiser, and the big Workmen Vote to March on Barcelona and Start Revoairship will soon be ready for launchis known that she will be the largest and probably the speedlest airship ever built, but the details of her construction and alleged superiority are known only to the officials directly concerned. Hundreds of guards patrol the vicinity of the Barrow workshop to keep off spies and curiosity seekers.

The knowledge that Great Britain is soon to have a great war airship has served to relieve the fears of millions of Englishmen, who have been kept awake o'nights by dread of a German airship invasion

It is said that the total cost of the new airship will reach the half-mil-lion mark, which is much beyond the original estimate of $350,000. The envelope of the balloon is of a secret compositon resembling aluminum, but alleged to be stronger than that metal. Two boats are to be attached to the balloon and these are expected to enable the balloon to be used on the surface of the water as well as an aerial voyager. Two officers and six men will comprise the crew of the vessel. Enough petrol can be stored on board, it is said, to enable the air ship to stay up in the air for three or four days.

RIFLE TRAINING IN AUSTRIA.

Marksmanship in Schedule of Teach ing for Middle Grade Schools. Vienna.—That Austria, under the influence of Germany, is going in for the thorough military training of her citizens, is made thoroughly clear by the latest schedule of teaching for the middle-grade schools. It was originally suggested that all the boys should be taught rifle shooting, but this scheme goes much further. Every Saturday afternoon will be spent on the rifle range, but at other times the pupils will study maps, army organisation and military history. Officers of high grade have been appointed as instructors, and within a year or two the Austrian government hopes to have the most efficient body of recruits in Burepe Drill grounds, rifle ranges, instructors, marksmen-all the equipment and staff, in fact-will be provided by the government. In cas where it is desired to undertake more practice than is included in the schedule, ammunition will be supplied at cost price. Rich boys will be expected to pay for their ammunition anyway, but lads who cannot afford the money will have a hundred blank and forty loaded cartridges free every

At first the boys are to be instruct ed in the proper handling of the rifle, and the use of blank cartridges. Ther when they are proficient loaded cartridges will be issued, and later on competitions on long-distance ranges will stimulate rivalry between the chools for good marksmanship, Russell Brownell came up from Hermiston last evening to transact business in this city.

Senator Smith gave the more extended talk and dwelt at length upon the issues in the local campaign. The hearty applause which greeted the doctor showed plainly the feelings of the meeting towards him.

At Adams, as at Echo and other places throughout the county, Dr. Smith was greeted by many friends of both parties who expressed the deepest resentment over the scurrilous attacks that have been made upon him during the senatorial campaign. Everywhere his personal and professional friends are flocking to his support because of the insults that have been hurled at him upon the score that he is a physician,

This evening the democratic candidates will be at Umatilla and tomorrow evening they will hold a big rally at Milton. At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon they will address a meeting of voters at Ferndale. Monday evening the campaign will be brought to a close with a big rally in this city. The meeting will be held af the court house and will be addressed by all of the candidates.

ENGLISH AND PERSIAN T. R. SAYS HIS PARTY TROOPS IN BATTLE

Teheran, Nov. 4 .- A pitched battle between invading forces of British troops, landed under cover of British warships, and Persian soldiers occurred today near Kishm in the Straits of Ormus. It is reported that many were killed and that the commander of the British cruiser Prosperine was injured. It is expected by diplomats that the conflict will result in a serious difference between England and Russia over the latter's attempt to obtain a port in the Indian ocean It is predicted Germany and France will be drawn into the controversy. It was learned later that England and Russia were working together in this particular case. It is understood they reached a secret agreement regarding Persia. It has been announce ed that England's action was taken to preserve order in the British sphere of influence."

Recently England notified Persis hat unless order was maintained England would invade the country, restore peace and charge indemnity. This was done with the knowledge that Persia couldn't pay and the result will be the annexation of some more

PURSE THIEF M

Loaded down with three purses, a money belt and $131.25 in gold and silver coin, John Spitzpolus, a Greek was arrested this morning by Chief of Police Gurdane on a charge of stealing a purse from the Gritman Brothers cigar store. He is being held in the city jail and will be given a hearing as soon as an interpreter can be found.

The Greek first denied that he had taken the purse from the Gritman store, insisting that he had purchased it at Hermiston. He therefore rethe police arrived he changed his mind and wanted to pay for it, but was not permitted to do so.

When searched at the police station it was discovered that he was a man of many purses as well as of much money. Most of the money was contained in the belt around his body. This was covered with a rag belt and on top of this was a third leather belt Each of the purses also contained some money.

PHYSICIANS WORRIED OVER POPE'S CONDITION

Rome, Nov. 4.-The condition of Pope Pius is worrying the vatican physicians. Dr. Marcia Fava today urged his holiness to cancel all audiences for two weeks but the pontiff refused to do so. It is believed his heart trouble has been aggravated by worry over the situation in Portugal, and the trouble between the church and state in Spain.

BERLIN IMITATES PARIS. Unter den Idnden Fast Becoming Like

Gay Boulevard. Berlin. - Prosperity-ridden Berlin ontinues to give expression to its abounding wealth by restless imitation of the luxurious side of Paris. Hardly a week goes by that does not witness the opening of some new aportum or pleasure resort designed to hypnotise the Berliner into believing he is close to Montmartre and the Boulevards. BILL AROUSES THE DUTCH.

Object to Appropriation of $165,665,-000 for Improvement of Forts. The Hague.—The most important bill among those which have been brought in by the Dutch government recently is the law providing $165,-665,000 for the defense of the Dutch coast, three-fifth of this sum being set aside for the improvement of the existing forts and for the building of new ones, and the remainder for

The bill is rather coldly received in Holland, where it is generally believed that neither the army nor the mavy is strong enough to resist fore invasion, and the people are asking whether the new bill is not the result of foreign pressure. The Liberal organ "Vanderland" observes that the bill denotes a revolution in the Dutch system of defense. Hitherto it was generally admitted that the danger was to be feared rather from the East against England that Holland must, land" holds to the contrary, and my that instead of $10,415,000 spent on forts as a safeguard in the very improbable event of an English invasion, national defense would be better assured by a good torpedo
