

HOGS LOWER AT PORTLAND YARDS

$9.50 FOR HEAVIES IS THE BEST PRICE

Stuff That Goes 300 Pounds or More Sells Down to $9; Cattle Come to Market From California.

Portland, Nov. 8.—There was a fair showing of hogs in the yards today, but the market was easier. For top stuff, $9.50 seems to be the top at this time, although it is quite probable that a few lots of real light stuff would bring a fraction more. Six hogs that averaged 348 pounds were sold this morning at $9.

A feature of today's market was the arrival from California of two loads of cattle.

Among the Shippers.
Cattle—E. W. St. Clair, American Falls, Idaho, two cars; and calves; O. D. Jones, Granada, Cal., two cars; L. D. Bodine, Market Lake, Idaho, one car; M. E. Hostkiss, Bancroft, Idaho, three loads; E. E. Willard, Bancroft, Idaho, two loads.

Hogs—B. F. Walker, Joseph, Or., one load; McKinnon & Chandler, Enterprise, Or., one load; Charles Campbell, Weiser, Idaho, one load.

Today's run of livestock compares with this day in recent years as follows:

	Hogs	Cattle	Sheep
1910	255	119	...
1909	639	40	23
1908	275	40	...
1907	...	375	...
1906	143	5	150
1905	52	63	27

A year ago today there was general firmness in the livestock market but hogs were especially firm. No changes in prices were reported.

CONSCIENCE DRIVES CONVICT BACK TO PRISON

Leavenworth, Kan.—Preferring to return to prison rather than to be constantly hounded by the belief that he was being pursued by detectives, John Sportsman, an escaped convict, surrendered himself at the Kansas State prison in Lansing.

Sportsman and John Wilgus, both of whom were trustees, escaped from the penitentiary several months ago. Sportsman went into Missouri and obtained a position on a farm. But the fear that he was being spied upon by detectives worried him greatly and yesterday he walked back to prison to give himself up.

Going into a prison stable he called a deputy warden over the telephone and said:

"I'm here, ready to give myself up. I'm thoroughly tired of running away from detectives."

When Sportsman ran away he had but eight months of a five-year term to serve. Now, because of his escape he will not be released until April, 1912. Wilgus has never been located.

What a Great Man Said to the Great American People.

Parisian Sage is a discovery of a celebrated scientist, who spent the best years of his life perfecting this great hair tonic.

In giving his recipe to the American people he said: "Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world. It cures dandruff by killing the germs that infest the roots of the hair; it stops falling hair; it gives vigor and strength to the hair roots. Tallman & Co. sell Parisian Sage at 50 cents a large bottle and guarantee it to do all that is claimed for it, or your money is refunded. It stops falling hair, dandruff and itching scalp in two weeks.

CAN WOMAN FIX HOME?

Governor Shafroth of Colorado Asked to Decide if She Has the Right.

Denver, Colo.—Governor Shafroth has been asked to decide whether a husband or his wife has the privilege of fixing the domicile for the couple.

The question arose in connection with a requisition for John T. Walker, a resident of Denver, for seventeen years, accused of abandoning his wife, who lives in Detroit, Mich. The action against Mr. Walker was begun by his mother-in-law, Mrs. E. Owens of Detroit. His daughter, Hazel Walker, aged eight, testified in his favor.

"Mamma wanted to give me away," said the girl. "Papa wanted her to come here with him, but she refused to do so. Mamma knew that papa was going away, but one Sunday morning when she was not at home we packed up and left."

Mr. Walker said that his wife, during the last seventeen years, had visited Detroit a number of times. He declared that she returned there in 1908 and remained. He visited her in 1909 and asked that she return to Denver.

Benjamin Laska, attorney for Mr. Walker, applied for a writ of habeas corpus to release him from prison.

Shall Women Vote?

If they did, millions would vote Dr. King's New Life Pills the true remedy for women. For banishing dull, fagged feelings, backache or headache, constipation, dispelling colds, imparting appetite and toning up the system, they're unequalled. Easy, safe, sure. 25c at Koeppen & Bros.

MONEY IN BROOM CORN.

Farmers in Oklahoma Not Very High Prices for Last Year's Crop.

McPherson, Okla.—Loads of broom corn are coming into McPherson every day. And broom corn is quite an item in McPherson county, where it is remembered that 3,000 acres were planted to the brush last year and it represents in its harvest not less than $60,000 to the farmers of this county.

The acreage this season is much larger than it was last year, in fact, a safe estimate is that it is twice as large. Owing to the failure of wheat considerable ground was planted to the future broom stand, and in this way makes up for much of the deficiency in wheat.

Another factor, however, is the fabulous price which prevailed in the markets last season. The article went soaring around the $200 mark, and it looked as if a mighty profitable business to invest richly this season. This has brought on a reaction, and less, no doubt, will be sowed next year. It is claimed that large broom corn raisers have studied this carefully and taken advantage of this up-and-down fluctuation in the amount planted.

It certainly is a waste of money for me to buy the ordinary kind of baking powder. For all leading grocers now sell Cleveland's at the uniform price of 1 pound, 45 cents; 5 pounds, $1, and 5 pounds, $1.65.

PIE IS A POLITICAL ISSUE.

Insulted Pastry May Cost Rash Congressman His Seat.

Muskogee, Okla.—A good, old-fashioned pumpkin pie and a failure to eat the same with a pretty Cherokee Indian girl have made many enemies for Charles E. Creager, member of congress from the third Oklahoma district, and probably will cost him his seat.

A short time ago, while campaigning in the Cherokee Nation, Creager attended a pie social at Needmore, an interior village. The girls of the neighborhood had made good pumpkin pies and put them up in pretty boxes to be raffled off. Custom decreed that the winner of a pie should hunt up the maker and eat it with her.

Representative Creager drew a pie, and, ignorant of local customs, went outside and dropped it in the weeds. Auctioneer Thomas Burke considered this an insult to the girl who had baked the pie, and publicly denounced Creager.

Burke carried the matter in emphatic terms to County Chairman Collins, who took a couple of shots at Burke. Since that incident occurred the story has gained weight and become a political weapon which is being used with telling force against Creager.
