Newsy Notes of Pendleton

Marriage License Issued.
A marriage license was issued today to Frank Belts and Minnie Aaron of Pilot Rock.

Spoke in Portland.
Judge S. A. Lowell returned last evening from Portland where he had been to deliver an address before the state assembly of the United Artisans.

Wheat Up a Cent.
Club wheat is being quoted in the local markets today at 65 cents. This is one cent higher than it has been for several days and the farmers with wheat on their hands are in hopes that the tide has turned.

Will Attend Bar Meeting.
Attorney J. P. Winter and one of the leading candidates for the position of Circuit Judge now held by Judge Beane leaves tomorrow for Portland to attend the meeting of the state bar association.

Merchant Brings Suit.
S. A. Ash, a merchant of Wallula, has brought suit against Henry Craig, an administrator of the estate of John Stafford for the collection of a $1500 account. When the bill was presented to the administrator it was rejected and the merchant has therefore brought suit to force payment.

Mrs. Evans' Brother Dies.
Fred B. Lacy, brother of Mrs. Nathan Evans of this city, died about noon today in Freewater. Mrs. Lacy died about two weeks ago in Wallula. Mrs. Evans was at her brother's bedside when he passed away while Mr. Evans will go up this evening to attend the funeral.

Victim of Accident Alive.
Though Arthur Bell, the man who was struck by the train Saturday, is still alive, he is in a precarious condition. His skull was fractured and part of the brain oozed out but Dr. C. J. Smith, the attending physician holds out hope for his recovery. At times the man is conscious and rational and at other times his mind does not seem to be clear.

Hotel Man Dies.
Word was received in this city today of the death in Walla Walla yesterday, of Arthur Harms, proprietor of the Hotel Harms. He had been ill for a year with Bright's disease. He was 52 years of age, a veteran hotel man and well known in Pendleton and eastern Oregon. At one time he was connected with the Geiser Grand in Baker City. He was also a prominent member of the Odd Fellows and Knights Templar.

John Estes Dies at Hospital.
John Estes, aged 78 years and a resident of Athena for 30 years, died at St. Anthony's hospital this afternoon following an illness of a year's duration. He is survived by John, Charles and Claude Estes of this city; Louis Estes of Idaho, Green Estes of Athena, Letha Estes of Pendleton and Delta Estes of Portland. The deceased was well known in this city as well as in his home town. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made, but will probably be held tomorrow afternoon in Athena.

Charivari Party.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosenberg who recently arrived from Germany where they were united in marriage a few weeks ago were the victims of a charivari party, Saturday evening. The affair occurred at 10 o'clock. Those participating were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hudeman, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Taylor, Miss Hazel Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Struve, Mrs. H. H. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. J. Mumm, H. H. Wessell, W. A. Brown, A. Schmidt, G. W. Bradley, John Witt, Dr. W. R. Campbell and John Nissen.

Hunter Captures Goose Thieves.
C. J. Baker of Hermiston believes in every hunter acting as his own detective and arresting officer, if reports concerning his prowess received from Hermiston are correct. It is said that Baker had gone to Umatilla early in the morning to shoot geese. He was successful in bagging one goose, but while he was waiting for his train two tramps came along and carried it off when he was not looking. As soon as he discovered his loss the hunter became very wrathful. He immediately shouldered his shotgun and started for the sage brush. A search soon revealed the tramps just about to partake of the goose which they had cooked over their camp fire. Without permitting them to partake of the fruits of their thievery and culinary triumph, Baker covered the two hoboes with his gun, took them to Umatilla, made them board the train and brought them to Hermiston, where they were turned over to the marshal and locked up.

Woman Aged 112 Is Dead.
Vienna.—The oldest woman in Vienna, Katharina Lustig, has died at the age of 112 in the Jewish almshouse here. Until recently she had been living with her son, who is now over 70 years old. The old woman was born in a small Hungarian town on December 2, 1798, was the daughter of a tradesman and the eighth of 10 children.

It would seem that longevity was the rule in Katharina's family, for her maternal grandmother died at the age of 112, and her grandmother on her father's side at 110. One of her brothers lived to the age of 90 and one of her sisters to 91. Katharina's own existence was a somewhat sad one. She married in 1816 and had 10 children, six of whom died young. Her husband predeceased her at the age of 105, after 75 years of married life. Katharina was able to support herself by umbrella making up to 1904, and in the course of her active life she had never used spectacles. Her diet was of the simplest, but she always drank a pint of beer after meals.

WHOLE MAN COSTS 120 POUNDS.

Artificial Sections Can be Purchased Separately for That Sum.
Berlin.—A local physician of humorous frame of mind calculates that a complete artificial man might be constructed nowadays for about 120 pounds. A pair of arms with "articulated" hands would cost 35 pounds; a pair of articulated legs would "run" to about 28 pounds; a pair of ears for 28 pounds; eyes for 6 pounds, and a set of teeth for 12 pounds. But when you have made your complete artificial man according to this scale he would be simply artificial. You couldn't construct a father, nor a genius, nor even a good bricklayer for 120 pounds; and of course, it would take a great deal more money than that to really "make" a political agitator, he says.

Girl Terrorist Sent to Jail.
Berne.—The Russian girl terrorist, Tattiana Leontieff, who in March, 1907, was sentenced at Thun to four years' imprisonment, less six months, and 29 years' banishment from the canton of Berne, has just finished her sentence. She shot M. Muller of Paris in an Interlaken hotel in mistake for the Russian minister, M. Dur-novo.

Both the Swiss authorities and the girl's father, who lives at Berne, realize that Tattiana is still a dangerous person and it has been decided, at the father's request, that Tattiana shall be indefinitely retained at the lunatic asylum at Munsingen, near Berne, where she has been for over a year.

In Boy's Garb Kills Fiance.
Rome.—A young woman, dressed as a boy, killed the man who had jilted her here the other day. Felice Nardiello was crossing the road when he suddenly fell down with a bullet through his heart. The shot had been fired by the girl, who then rushed forward and threw herself on the dead body.

She made no attempt at escape and on being arrested, stated that she was a girl in disguise and that she was a former fiancee of Felice, who broke off the engagement. When she heard that her lover was about to marry some one else she resolved to kill him. She dressed herself as a boy to ensure that she should not be recognized and foiled. The shooting followed.

Teuton Pressmen Walk.
Berlin.—The Verein Berliner Journalisten has taken action which throws a characteristic light on the lack of self-respect which exists among Teuton pressmen. At the Verein's meeting last Wednesday night some timorous spirits ventured to submit a resolution pledging the association's sympathy with the four British and American journalists who were assaulted by the police during the strike riots in the Bobbit quarter. The resolutions were defeated by an overwhelming majority. The Verein decided that it could not interfere in a "political affair."

Rome Exhibition Stayed.
Rome.—The "Momento" states that the opening of the exhibition here next year will take place on September 20th, instead of March 27th, and will be continued in the month of June of the following year. The postponement of the opening is due to the impossibility of completing all the buildings by March next.

Berlin.—Some time ago one of the local theaters introduced the "noiseless paper" program. They can be freely handled without causing annoyance to auditors. The idea took and has spread all over the empire.

NEW CORSETS FOR WINTER 1910-11

They await your inspection, ladies. Before you take up the matter of the new suit or dress for winter, why not settle the corset question? Each season's models differ from the past season's. Winter style garments will not show up with full effect unless built and fitted over correct style corsets. The latest numbers are a little longer in the hip, a little lower in the bust and on straighter lines, if possible, than last season. We particularly call attention to our splendid collection of J. C. C. CORSETS, which are the best popular priced corset we know of. They sell at

FIRST STEP TOWARD ERECTION OF THEATRE

ST. GEORGE RESTAURANT CLOSED PERMANENTLY

Bar-Room Will be Moved Into Restaurant Room and Grill Will be Put in Old Bar Room—Entrance to Theatre Will be on Webb Street.

George Darveau, proprietor of the St. George Hotel, took the first step toward the erection of Pendleton's new theatre this morning when he closed the doors of the St. George restaurant. When the doors are reopened the restaurant or grill, as it is to be called hereafter, will occupy a different part of the building.

Darveau stated today that the bar-room would be moved from the Webb street side of the hotel building to the part now occupied by the restaurant while the grill room will be located where the bar-room is now located and will be operated in connection with the theatre.

The entrance to the theatre may be from the Webb street side of the building also as arrangements have not been completed for a Main street entrance and it is possible that Dr. Temple and the builder of the theatre may not be able to reach an agreement.

Mike Wintler of the Hamley Harness company's store, returned last evening from a visit to his homestead near Nolin.
