Frank Baker Resents Giving up One Goose After Three Days Hunting—Other News Notes of Prospect Town.

(Special Correspondence.)
Hermiston, Ore., Nov. 14.—Saturday night when Frank Baker and E. E. McMillen came home from a hunting trip to the Walla Walla country, they were attacked by two hobboes as they stepped from the train and were relieved of their geese and other hunting traps, consisting of hunting coats and decoys. The night being so dark they were unable to locate the burglars, but bright and early Sunday morning Baker went out and turned them over to Marshall Phay, who promptly locked them up. After a preliminary hearing they were today sent to Pendleton. Baker says he would not have cared so much for the coats and decoys, but after hunting three days and then only getting but one goose, he would feel pretty bad to have some one steal it.

The English rally which has been in progress here for the past three days ended last night, with a record breaking crowd present. A number of outside ministers were present as well as a great many visitors.

Sunday the dedication of the Catholic church took place, Bishop O'Reilly, of Baker City, was in charge of the services. Rev. Luke Sheehan who has had charge of the work here is to be commended for the zeal he has shown and to his credit there is much due.

A number of Pendleton hunters were down over Sunday, among whom were Col. J. H. Riley, W. Bailey, Ed Averill and R. W. Fletcher.

C. E. Barr is here from Greenfield, Indiana, looking over the project.

M. Van Hynst is here from Hood River, looking after his 29 acre tract of land north of town.

CHECK FOR ONE CENT STARTS ON TRAVELS

New York.—A check for 1 cent figures in banking and business circles in Long Island City. Ludwig Sikora of Long Island City, was the original holder of the check. He got it from John W. Penchon, manager of the Title Guarantee & Trust company as the balance on a real estate transaction. Sikora got his friend Jacob Wise to cash it. Hailing a newsboy Mr. Wise then endeavored to get rid of it in exchange for a paper. But the little merchant put his thumb to his nose and wagged his fingers, which being translated, is the Long Island City sign language for "No Checks Cashd Here." John L. Klages, of 27 Vermont avenue, Long Island City, finally cashed the check. It is said to be destined for further troubles.

AT THE MOVING PICTURE SHOWS

The Orpheum.
1. The House of Seven Gables. Edison, 1000 feet long. Nearly every one has read this story by Hawthorne. This picture succeeds in conveying what was in his mind when he wrote the book. The photography of this subject is exceptionally good and the acting accurate. Don't fail to see this picture.

2. A Life for Love. Pathe. A tragedy that has dramatic qualities.

3. Slippery Jim. Pathe. A trick picture full of lively scenes.

4. Pals of the Range. Essanay. 1000 feet long. A western dramatic film of unusual excellence. The story of the love of two cowboy pals for the same girl. The treachery of one and later his sacrifice of life and love for the friend and the girl he wronged. A strong feature is the Indian fight in the last scenes, which approaches realism more closely than anything of this nature ever produced.

Song—Dear Mayme I Love You.

Pastime Theater.

"The Red Girl." Biograph, drama. Another of those interesting Biograph pictures which seldom fails to please the most exacting audience.

"In the Golden Harvest Time." Selling drama. Young men seem to have a habit of becoming infatuated with dancers and actresses, and this excellent film presents one more instance of this malady. The setting for this picture is attractive, being in the golden harvest time, and the scenes are reproduced with fidelity. The pictures alone, without considering the story are worth seeing. The two together make a picture it would be difficult to surpass.

"45 Minutes from Broadway." Kalem, comedy. 100 good, hearty laughs in this real life comedy. Every mishap a big scream. "Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Rypstra came over to this country from Holland some months ago and located in Muskegon Heights, leaving his bride-to-be in the old country. Becoming nervous about having the Atlantic separating him from his sweetheart he had a marriage document made out here and placed his signature on it. It was then sent to Rotterdam in the Netherlands where the signature of the woman was affixed, thus completing their marriage by mail. She then sailed for this country and joined him.

DESERTED MAN DIES OF BROKEN HEART

Laurel, Del.—Theodore King died of a broken heart caused by grief over the desertion of his wife, who left him four months ago, after telling him she loved a younger man and had married him for his money.

The Kings, who were wealthy, came here from Lyons, Mich., three years ago and purchased the old Governor Cooper mansion and were supposed to live happily until a few weeks previous to the woman's departure. They had two children, a boy of 12 and a girl of 6.

Mrs. King took the girl with her but instead of returning to her old Michigan home she went to Gazelle, Cal. This seemed to crush King. He made his will and then directed Undertaker Holt to have his body incased in a metallic casket and sent to his old Michigan home and placed beside his first wife, whose nurse became his second wife.

His last act was to denounce his wife by poster on bill boards. When the son realized his father's condition he wired for his mother and she made a desperate effort to reach the side of her dying husband for a reconciliation but death cheated her.
