ECHO NEWS AND PERSONAL NOTES

(Special Correspondence.)
Echo, Ore., Nov. 15.—Road Supervisor John Saling is at work with a force of men blasting rock from the quarry, just west of town. The rock is being used to strengthen the river bank half a mile below the quarry, where the county road passes.

The repairs of P. B. Holsington's caterpillar gasoline traction engine are nearing completion. Mr. Holsington is farming fourteen quarter sections of wheat land just east of Echo. He will begin plowing the last of this week and expects to run a night and day shift, using a headlight at night. This is the same engine that Mr. Holsington used so successfully this past season, operating a combine harvester.

MONTAVILLE FLOWERS TOMORROW EVENING

WILL OPEN SEASON'S ENTERTAINMENT COURSE

Widely Known Character Impersonator Will Be Attraction at Christian Church—Comes Highly Recommended.

Montaville Flowers, widely known as a character impersonator, will appear in Pendleton tomorrow night as the first number of the season's lecture course. The entertainment will be given at the First Christian church and will commence at 8 o'clock.

Wherever he has appeared Flowers has been paid glowing tributes of praise by the public and by the press. He is engaged in portraying the great drama of life, as embodied by the finest geniuses of the race in novels and plays. It is said that while nothing trivial enters into his work that every bit of it is of popular interest.

The Tribune of South Bend, Indiana, in speaking of his appearance in that city:

"A rare tribute, seldom paid any entertainer, was accorded Mr. Flowers last evening at the close of his performance, when the vast audience, loathe to leave the theater, remained seated, insisting by continued applause upon the impersonator's reappearance."

PENDLETON CLERKS CAN SLEEP LATER

Pendleton store salesmen are to be given a half hour more sleep each morning, beginning with Monday, November 21. The movement was started yesterday by the local clerks and apparently is being heartily endorsed by their employers. A petition was drawn and is now being circulated with good effect.

During the spring, summer and fall Pendleton merchants open their doors at 7 o'clock. Beginning with November 21, all except the grocery stores will open at 7:30. The new order of things will continue in effect until March first of next year.

For the present, at least, the grocery stores will continue to open at the usual hour, all those who have signed the agreement so far being the proprietors of clothing or general merchandise stores.

Following is the agreement and signers:

- The undersigned merchants of Pendleton, Ore., agree to open our respective places of business, beginning Monday, November 21, and ending March 1st, 1911, at the hour of 7:30 a. m. instead of 7 a. m. as at present.

FROM THE SUNNY SOUTH LAND.
Among the many gifts that Nature has lavished on the South none is more valuable than her gift of the cotton plant. In the soil, warmth and sunshine of the South, the cotton plant attains its highest perfection. Formerly, only the white, downy lint of the cotton boll was preserved, but today, from the kernel of the cotton seed is pressed an oil which, when refined, compares favorably with the purest olive oil. From the choicest of this oil of the cotton seed is made a cooking fat called Cottolene. In efficiency, purity and wholesomeness, Cottolene far exceeds the fat of the hog, and it has well been named, "Nature's gift from the Sunny South."
