REVOLUTION IN MEXICO STARTS

Armed Bands Cross the Rio Grande and March to Attack of Chihuahua.

TROOPS FIRE ON MOB, KILLING HUNDREDS

Volley After Volley Is Fired Into Incendiary Crowd at Zacaratas and Many Fall—Diaz, Aroused to Action, Prepares to Put Down Revolt With Iron Hand—Revolutionists Marching to Attack Chihuahua to Make That City Their Capital.

Mexico City, Nov. 21.—Mexico is tottering on the verge of a great revolution, according to present indications. Even censored dispatches from the interior fail to hide the gravity of the situation which confronts Diaz and his advisers. The revolts are spreading throughout the country and revolutionary bands are gathering, only awaiting a signal to start.

March to Attack. Laredo, Texas, Nov. 21.—Three hundred armed Mexicans crossed the Rio Grande early today and are marching toward San Carlos, where revolutionaries are reported to be mobilizing five thousand strong. They plan to attack Chihuahua and make that city their capital in the insurrection against the power of Diaz.

It is estimated that by night two thousand Mexicans will have crossed into Mexico. They are under formation, properly officered and are hastening towards the towns of Aldama, Javal and San Carlos from whence they will march in three divisions to the neighborhood of Chihuahua city, where they will unite and attack. Many old soldiers and cowboys are said to be among the number.

Hundreds Shot Down. El Paso, Texas, Nov. 21.—According to advices from Zacaratas where the military forces fired on and killed revolutionists who were making incendiary speeches, a semblance of order has been restored. The bodies of the killed are being buried in unmarked trenches, which will remain unmarked at the inspiration of government officials.

St. Louis, Nov. 21.—Labor delegates who heard Archbishop Glennon's denunciation of socialism yesterday are speculating today upon the possible effect in the ranks of the American Federation of Labor in which socialism is said to be rapidly growing. Recalling Pope Leo's utterances regarding socialism, the archbishop declared the late pontiff was the most sane thinker of his time on labor problems.

The archbishop also issued a warning against Christian Science. FOOT BALL STILL CLAIMS VICTIMS AMONG PLAYERS. Chicago, Nov. 21.—With Thanksgiving games yet to be played there have been 22 deaths and scores of serious injuries from football so far this season under the revised rules.

Secretary Knox Alarmed. Washington, Nov. 21.—Secretary Knox will ask the war department to order troops to preserve the neutrality treaty with Mexico, it was announced today. The state department is alarmed at reports of gathering Mexicans and Americans for the intention of invading Mexico.

KANSAS WILL GET ANOTHER CONGRESSMAN

Washington, Nov. 21.—The population of Kansas is 1,690,849, an increase of 240,454. This entitles Kansas to another congressman.

PROPOSE FLIGHT FROM HAVANA TO KEY WEST

Havana, Nov. 21.—A flight from Havana to Key West in an aeroplane is the latest thriller contemplated. Today an offer to fly over the dangerous route was made by Johnnie Moissant to President Gomez of Cuba. Moissant is seeking the aid of Gomez in promoting a two weeks' aviation meet in the island and would terminate it with the proposed attempt.

NOVEMBER IS A WET OLD MONTH

The present month promises to be one of the wettest Novembers this section of the state has ever seen. The precipitation so far is two inches and more, in excess of the normal for the month, and there is yet nine days to come with the prospect that a part of them will be wet.

Last November was an exceptionally wet one though most of the precipitation in the fall of 1909 came in the shape of snow. The precipitation for the present month has been practically all rain. There was a total precipitation of 3.58 inches for November of last year and this record, though the greatest for many years, will probably be surpassed before morning.

The wind which has been prevailing today has been more like March or April than November. It has been warm and by keeping hats in the air or sending them rolling down the street, has displayed its kinship to the winds which blow in the spring.

CITIZENS REFUSE TO PAY INCREASED FARE; JAILED

Seattle, Nov. 21.—Twenty-five residents of Riverton suburb were arrested by deputy sheriffs and jailed today because they refused to pay the increased fare on the interurban electric lines running to this city. Following the arrests they were brought to this city and scores of residents of Riverton came to Seattle by train and in automobiles and gathered around the jail. The trouble started yesterday when the company raised the fare to ten cents and over 200 refused to pay it.

ARCHBISHOP GLENNON DENOUNCES SOCIALISM

TAKES HOT SHOT AT 'THE CAUSE' IN ST. LOUIS

Declares Laboring Man Does Not Preserve What He Has and Creates Philosophy of Revolutionists Over Fumes of Beer and Wine.

St. Louis, Nov. 21.—Labor delegates who heard Archbishop Glennon's denunciation of socialism yesterday are speculating today upon the possible effect in the ranks of the American Federation of Labor in which socialism is said to be rapidly growing. Recalling Pope Leo's utterances regarding socialism, the archbishop declared the late pontiff was the most sane thinker of his time on labor problems. Continuing he said: "There are some who believe that because the laboring man has so little interest, it is not worth while to preserve what he has, so they spend it, and thus are unable to create homes for themselves. Then individually he joins the proletariat in a saloon, where over the fumes of beer and wine, he creates philosophy that turns him into a full-fledged revolutionist."

The archbishop also issued a warning against Christian Science.

COMMITTEE WILL PROBABLY EXONERATE SEN. LORIMER

CRIPPEN MUST GO TO GALLOWS

Secretary Churchill Kills Last Hope of Man Condemned to Death.

CRIPPEN BREAKS DOWN AND WEEPS BITTERLY

Secretary of Home Affairs Refuses to Intervene to Get Reprieve or Commutation of Sentence—Condemned Man Collapses—Declares His Poverty Was Only Thing That Prevented His Acquittal—Still Asserts Innocence—Faithful to Ethel Leneve to Last.

London, Nov. 21.—Dr. Hawley H. Crippen will be hanged on November 23rd for the murder of his wife. Secretary of Home Affairs Churchill announced today there will be no further intervention on his part. The last hope of Crippen for a reprieve, or commutation of sentence vanished with his refusal to interfere. When Crippen was informed of Churchill's decision he collapsed and wept bitterly.

He said sobbingly: "My poverty was all that prevented my acquittal. If I could have secured proper medical testimony, I could have shown the body found in my home was not that of my wife. I am ready for the end. I shall die firmly convinced that eventually proof of my innocence will come to light."

In a statement to the press Sunday Crippen said: "Until the court of appeals refused to grant me a new trial, I had hopes of getting clear and building up a new home with Ethel Leneve, without whom life is not worth living."

Miss Leneve Visits Crippen. Bentonville Prison, Nov. 21.—Dr. Crippen and Ethel Leneve both wept bitterly today when the latter visited the former in his cell. She is to see him tomorrow for the last time before the hanging Wednesday.

COMMISSION PLAN CONGRESS IN GALVESTON

Galveston, Tex., Nov. 21.—Prepared to back up with facts and figures its claim to being the best governed city in the union, Galveston will serve as an object lesson to the delegates from municipalities all over the country who assembled here today to take part in the first national congress on the commission form of city government.

The commission system, which had its origin in Galveston, spread rapidly throughout the south and central west, and is now gaining adherents in many eastern and far-western cities. Greater centralization and responsibility and the abolition of party lines are the principal claims for commission government, which substitutes a mayor and a board of commissioners for aldermen or councilmen. Reports from Des Moines and various other large cities which have adopted the plan declare that it is an unqualified success. Lynn, Mass., voters recently passed favorably on the innovation, and Baltimore and other large eastern municipalities are said to be giving the matter serious attention.

Although Galveston has barely held its own in population since the terrible hurricane and flood that all but wiped out the city, great civic improvements have been made and the city is more prosperous than ever before. Except for the adoption of the commission plan, involving a sound and stable government, it is declared that Galveston would never have risen from her ruins.

WHOLE FAMILY IS KILLED AND BURNED

Barnard, Mo., Nov. 21.—Four bodies in the charred ruins of the Hubbell home near here today were identified as those of Ora Hubbell, age 40, his wife and children, Josie, aged 6, and Welton, aged 4. All had been shot and burned in the building to conceal the crime. Mrs. Hubbell had been shot at the telephone and Hubbell in the kitchen. Blood hounds and a posse are trailing the murderers. No motive save robbery is ascribed to the deed.

Farmer Arrested. Marysville, Mo., Nov. 21.—Ezekiah Roscoe, a farmer, was arrested here this afternoon in connection with the alleged murder and incineration of the Hubbell family at Barnard.

John Durham, manager of the Hotel Echo, is a Pendleton business visitor.

HONOR DONE TO DEAD NOVELIST

Body of Count Tolstoi Will Be Interred Amid Pomp and Ceremony.

WRANGLE BEGINS OVER COUNT'S MANUSCRIPTS

Family of Deceased and Mitchkoff Both Claim Possession—Military Will Prevent Peasants from Making Demonstration Because Edict of Ex-communication Was Not Removed—Countess Mourns Death of Renowned Husband.

Yasnaya, Polina, Russia, Nov. 21.—With pomp and ceremony, the body of Count Leo Tolstoi, who died early Sunday, was brought home today for burial tomorrow at the foot of Poverty Oak, where his peasants have congregated awaiting the services. No church ceremony will be permitted. High officials of the Greek church in Russia were prepared to extend absolution to Tolstoi before his death but it is said the count was induced by anti-church advisors to reject the proffer.

The military will form a cordon about the costly casket, ostensibly as a mark of respect to the deceased but, it is said, in reality to preserve order should the peasantry become indignant over the failure of the church to rescind the edict of ex-communication after death.

Before the body was removed Countess Tolstoi sat beside it and wept repeatedly the cold brow, wailing, "The light of the world has gone out." She swooned when informed there would be no requiem mass sung.

The eyes of Tolstoi had hardly closed before a wrangle over the ownership of his literary works began. Legal complications are threatened between Mitchkoff, Tolstoi's representative in Great Britain, and the family over the possession of the writer's manuscripts, including an unpublished novel. In 1895 Tolstoi renounced all property rights to his copyrights, his lands and money but the family objected to this. The quarrel that followed, it is said, culminated in Tolstoi's determination to take the journey which terminated in his death.

WALTER BROOKINS MAY NEVER FLY AGAIN

Kansas City, Nov. 21.—Walter Brookins, considered as one of the most promising of the Wright pupils, probably will never fly again as the result of the death in Denver of Ralph Johnstone, his chum. When Brookins left this city this afternoon for Denver he said: "I am afraid I have lost my nerve. I don't think I will ever go very high again."

Denver, Nov. 21.—Walter Brookins, who arrived here this afternoon, denied he would quit flying. With Archie Hoxie he starts tonight for Vancouver where he is scheduled to fly.

POTATO CROP FAILS IN FRANCE, ALSO GRAIN

Paris.—The potato crop is a failure this year, and President Leveque of the vegetable syndicate says that the poor will have a hard time to get along, and not only the workers, but everybody else, will have to spend more, and with that get less to eat. The barley crop and the oat crop have fallen off heavily.

LOCAL HARNESS CO. INCORPORATED

The Hamley Harness company of this city was incorporated today with a capital stock of $18,000. The incorporators are J. J. Hamley, Fred J. McMonies and Lester H. Hamley. While this is undoubtedly the largest harness company in the state outside of Portland, the most interesting fact in connection with the incorporation, is the taking into the company of Fred J. McMonies. McMonies is the man who built the famous prize saddle recently awarded to Bert Kelley for winning the northwest bronco busting championship at the first annual Round-up. He is therefore considered one of the foremost saddle makers in America and his becoming a member of the local firm means that he is to remain in Pendleton permanently.

McMonies is now and has been for 16 years connected with the W. H. McMonies company of Portland. He will remain in that city until the first of the year and will then come to Pendleton to take charge of the saddle department in the local store. The incorporators announced today that it was their purpose to increase the capacity of the factory and store and to push out for new business. It is probable that in the near future they will put traveling men in the field.

INDIANS AND CATTLEMEN FIGHT OVER USE OF RANGE

Helent, Mont. Nov. 21.—It is reported today that two Indians were killed and two wounded in a fight with cattlemen on the reservation here. A sheriff's posse is en route to investigate the charges that Indians fired from ambush. It is asserted that the cattlemen are really the aggressors and the arrests of well known stockmen are expected. The fight is over the use of the cattle range.

Sheriff T. D. Taylor spent $131.50 of which his $75 contribution to the central committee was the principal part. ROBS STORE IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

Bold Burglar Enters Tallman's Drug Store During Sunday Afternoon.

SECURES $135 IN LOOT BY HIS DARING DEED

During Short Period in Which Drug Stores Close on Sunday, Robber Pries Off Back Window in Full View of Alta Street and Gains Entrance—Rifles Cash Register and Safe, Securing $135—Indications That He Performed Deed Leisurely—But Few Clogs.

A bold daylight burglary exceeding anything of the kind ever perpetrated in this city, occurred in the full light of day Sunday afternoon between the hours of 2 o'clock and 4.30. A cash register and a safe were both burglarized netting the robber $135 for his pains.

The Tallman Drug company's store at the corner of Main and Alta streets in the very heart of the business district, was the scene of the burglar's activity.

Between the hours mentioned some one pried off one of the iron doors protecting a window in the rear of the store. The window was then pried open and an entrance effected.

After gaining admittance to the building the burglar or burglars apparently hunted up the cash register and though in plain sight of the scores who were passing the store at the time, deliberately relieved that machine of all its contents. He then just as coolly walked into the office and finding the door of the safe unlocked, opened it, took out the money bill and rifled it.

That the fellow was in no hurry is indicated by the fact that he took the bill out of the safe and placed it behind the rear partition where he could work at his leisure and not be seen from the street, the safe being in full view. He carefully separated the checks from the currency and taking only the money, departed as he came, by the rear window.

Sheriff Taylor and the other officers were notified but the burglar was careful not to leave so much as a footprint for a clue. The only thing he did leave was a large chisel used in effecting an entrance to the building.

The burglar was fortunate in having selected the Tallman store for his effort since it is not the custom to turn the combination on the safe during the day time on Sunday. This is not done for the reason that very seldom is there very much money in the safe on that day. It is possible that the burglar was familiar with the store custom in this regard.

To add to the boldness of the deed, the fellow worked in almost plain view of the rear of the Heinteman billiard parlor which was filled with men at the time and he could easily have been observed from Alta street by anyone passing at the time he was prying off the iron door.

St. Louis Hen Show.

St. Louis, Nov. 21.—A cackling and crowing as of a thousand barnyards combined into one resounds through the Olive street building in which the St. Louis Poultry, Pigeon and Pet Stock association today opened its third annual exhibition. The "hip-ful hen" is responsible for no small part of the material wealth of Missouri, Illinois, Iowa and other central states, and all the champion egg producers of the section, with their male consorts, are on view here. The show will continue through the week and bids fair to eclipse the state poultry show to be held next week at Kansas City. The turkey display is large, despite the nearness of Thanksgiving Day, and the big birds in escaping the fate usually assigned to their kind, will have much to be thankful for.

C. W. Howell, formerly connected with the local office of the bureau of animal industry, but now connected with the Denver office, arrived in Pendleton Saturday afternoon and is the guest of local friends.

TWO DUELS ARE FOUGHT IN FRANCE

Paris, Nov. 21.—Count Raymond De Castellane, brother of Count Boni, split the right hand of Count L'Estang, and George Cassel pictured the right arm of Jean Marnold in two duels here today. The first duel was caused by L'Estang tipping De Castellane over at a skating rink. Cassel and Marnold fought on account of a newspaper article written by Marnold.
