BIG FORECLOSURE SUIT IS FILED AGAINST STANFIELD

INVESTORS MAY LOSE

R. N. Stanfield Asks for Almost $50,000 Due Under Mortgage.

Eighty Individual Purchasers Made Payments for Lots or Adjoining Tracts and May Lose Their Money—Money Due and Not Paid by Dr. H. W. Coe.

By suits filed in the circuit court here today R. N. Stanfield, through his attorney, Col. J. H. Raley, has practically foreclosed mortgage upon the entire town of Stanfield.

Defendants in the suits filed are the Columbia Land company, of which Dr. H. W. Coe, is the moving spirit, and 80 purchasers of town lots in Stanfield or of tracts near that little city. These purchasers bought property of the Columbia land company and have titles subject to the mortgage held by Stanfield.

The individual defendants named in the complaint filed are as follows and the amounts given opposite their names represent the sums they have already paid upon their holdings:

- H. E. Allen, nothing; E. H. Brown, $125; J. T. Barringer, $100; J. E. Blakeley, $75; S. E. Brumfield, $55; Bank of Stanfield, $100; L. A. Fillatreau, $150; E. H. Brown, $200; E. A. Bjorkman and S. Johnson, $250; Charles Cullman, $50; H. W. Coe, Mrs. Richard Carlson, $200; F. C. Dougherty, $50; L. Dunlay, $22; J. E. Earl, $50; Clarence L. Evers, $300; Edith A. Eaton, $50; E. A. Finley, $150; W. A. Frazier, $50; Hessie Fulford, $40; William Frederickson, $138; J. E. Faucett, $62.95; E. V. Cates, $70; F. T. George, $700; O. M. Houser, nothing; R. A. Holte, $200; Loren Johnson, $362.50; S. W. Jackson, $110; T. E. Knudson, $190; J. M. Kyle, $600; W. H. Long, $50; J. R. Means, $125; George H. Martin, $100; Mrs. Kamela Myers, $75; L. McWilliams, $100; Rose McWilliams, $25; Sarah E. Neal, $75; Roy S. Neal, $150; Oscar Oakland, $500; D. J. O'Connor, $25; J. L. Parker, $75; Emma D. Priekwitz, $30; I. M. Prater, $20; T. W. Rorke, $101; Alexander Ree, $50; W. D. Russell, $600; Sloan & Co., $1; W. C. Spencer, $75; C. L. Sawyer, $285.50; Frank Sloan, $2400; Thomas E. Spore, $225; Claude W. Stewart, $187.50; F. M. Welles, $50; W. P. Ward, $80; O. Yates, $50; Frank Sloan, $1; D. B. Welty, $250; George Buchanan, $300; M. Burritt, $90; D. B. Welty, $179.16; F. E. Ball, nothing; F. E. Holte, $1250; E. H. Wilson, $4000.

The following parties named as defendants hold liens or mortgages upon property falling under the Stanfield mortgage:

Bank of Stanfield, Frank Sloan, J. K. Bott, Claud Sloan, A. A. Ewart, Carl A. Hudson, Georgia Annie Holte, William Bell, Ralph A. Holte, Dan Quigley, Inland Empire Lumber Company, J. A. Gonsor, Oscar Olsen, John Lynd, A. A. Rvstad, Robert Gilmore, and the Northwest steel company.

A Regrettable Suit.

Prior to filing the complaint this afternoon Col. Raley said he did so with great regret and that his client, Mr. Stanfield also regretted taking the action. He says Mr. Stanfield has declared his purpose of being as lenient as possible with the parties made defendants but that he desires the money to which he is entitled under the mortgage.

According to Col. Raley the litigation which threatened Dr. H. W. Coe some months ago was settled by the doctor placing the mortgage in the hands of Mr. Stanfield. Since that time he has not met the same and payments being overdue the foreclosure is in order.

How much loss the action taken will work to the people of Stanfield is uncertain but from appearances the defendants stand to lose the amounts they have invested unless a compromise can be effected or unless they are reimbursed by Dr. Coe.

Two suits were filed. One is for the sum of $2912.50; and the sum of $290 attorney's fee; while the other suit is for the collection of $46,537.32. An attorney's fee of $4500 is asked for. The first suit is against the Columbia land company and holders of tracts adjoining the town. The big suit is against the land company and purchasers of lots within the town. Thirty-one purchasers of land from the Columbia land company had been released from their mortgages. These purchasers now hold 87 lots in the town.

ANOTHER STEEL MAGNATE IS DOWN ON COUNTS

Birmingham, Ala., Nov. 23.—Tainted titles are at a discount in Birmingham. J. C. Maben, president of the Cross-Sheffield Steel & Iron company and a hard-headed man of business, is said to have given the "skid-doo" sign to Count Martio de Nasclimodo of Portugal, whose marriage to Mr. Maben's daughter, Miss Elizabeth, had been set for today.

The iron magnate disagreed violently with the count in regard to a marriage settlement. Rumor has it that the noble, claiming at first to be actuated only by the sincerest and most disinterested affection for the fair Birmingham girl, put off his financial demands until the date and arrangements for the marriage had been completed.

Although the count is the scion of a family as old as the House of Braganza itself, his title is somewhat clouded by the fact that the new Portuguese republic has announced the abolition of all patents of nobility. Count Martio therefore has no standing as a noble in his home country.

It is reported here that a large number of Portuguese nobles are now in this country or will soon come over to search for wealthy wives. Under the monarchy, the Portuguese nobility waxed fat and prosperous from the labor of the poor, but that condition no longer exists, and many men with imposing titles now find themselves forced to choose between marrying American heiresses or going to work.

HORSEMEN AT JUAREZ AFTER BIG PRIZES

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—Three hundred thousand dollars is the staggering total of the stakes and purses to be distributed among the winners during the race meeting which commences tomorrow at Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, across the Rio Grande from this city. The stables at the Juarez plant are filled with thoroughbreds and horsemen from all over the continent are flocking today to El Paso, the new Eldorado of the sporting clan. The opening day feature will be the La Independencia handicap, the first of fifty stakes and handicaps to be decided during the hundred day session. Racing will continue daily, Sundays included but Mondays excepted, to March 9, 1911. The Juarez Derby will come as a wind-up to the sport. Many improvements have been made to the track and buildings since last winter.

Monocraft Park to Open.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 23.—Monocraft Park is a busy place today, a majority of the runners that performed at Norfolk, Baltimore and other eastern tracks this fall having been brought to Jacksonville for the winter meet opening tomorrow. Such of the talent—and it is no small proportion—as have not hiked to Oakland or Juarez are gathering here today and the hotels are well filled with horsemen and other followers of the game. At Pensacola a thirty-day meet will also be held, to be followed by a sixty-day session at Tampa.

Kansas-Missouri Game.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 23.—"Rock Chalk! Jay-Hawk!" the battle-cry of the University of Kansas, and the "Rah, Rah, Rah Missouri" of their ancient rivals were again heard in Kansas City today, announcing the approach of the annual Thanksgiving football game between the two institutions. Preparations have been made to accommodate the largest crowd ever gathered at a football game here.

SUFFRAGETTES STONE HOME OF PREMIER

London, Nov. 20.—Their movements hidden by a heavy fog, suffragettes executed a flank movement on the house of Premier Asquith early today and broke every window of his house with iron bolts, stones and other missiles. The attack lasted for several minutes. Finally the police were summoned and the party disappeared. Several were caught however, and jailed.

Militant suffragettes likewise attacked the homes of Sir Edward Grey, secretary of foreign affairs, and Winston Churchill, secretary of home affairs. They stoned the buildings, breaking many windows.

All of the women arrested in connection with the attack on Asquith yesterday were released today save those charged with actual assault on the minister. The women were chagrined when they were not sentenced to jail as they wished to pose as martyrs.

STATE BOARD MAY BE HERE FRIDAY

That Acting Governor Jay Bowerman, State Treasurer Steel and Superintendent Steiner of the asylum will be here Friday for the purpose of inspecting proposed sites for the eastern Oregon branch insane hospital is now believed by W. L. Thompson, president of the Commercial association. In association with others, Mr. Thompson is now at work looking to presenting Pendleton's claims before the state board. Today the board is at Baker City and Mr. Thompson wired the acting governor to inquire as to when he might be expected here. Up to 2 o'clock a reply had not been received. It is the impression that the board will be here Friday.

At this time a committee is at work preparing data to present the state board and it is understood that three prospective sites have been secured under options. Members of the committee and President Thompson are hopeful of landing the branch asylum. It is the intention to give a banquet in honor of Acting Governor Bowerman and his party while those gentlemen are in the city.

FRED SHOEMAKER PLEADS INNOCENCE

FORMER PENDLETON MAN SAYS HE WAS DUPE

Named As Director in Fraudulent Wireless Telephone Company—Declares Company Made Scapegoat Out of Him—Lived Here Several Years.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 23.—Frederick Shoemaker, named as one of the directors of the alleged fraudulent continental wireless telephone and telegraph company, whose offices were raided in New York recently by the post office authorities, today declared that he was only a dupe of the leaders of the alleged swindle. The company is alleged to have used the mails to defraud.

"These men are trying to make a scapegoat of me," declared Shoemaker, "but they can't do it. I was only a dummy director in the first place and I resigned that position several months ago. I never attended any of the meetings and never took any part in the company's acts."

The Shoemaker in the above dispatch is well known in Pendleton, where he lived for several years. While here he was engaged in the insurance business. He was also a candidate for the republican nomination for county recorder, four years ago, having been defeated by Fred Hendley. Mrs. Shoemaker was popular in local society circles.

PROTEST IS MADE TO SPOKANE ROUNDUP

Reports that Spokane people are thinking about having a Round-up have once more roused the ire of President J. R. Raley and others in the management of the Pendleton show.

Believing that those who are back of the Spokane move have taken the matter up without first giving due consideration to Pendleton's rights Mr. Raley last evening wired a lengthy night message to the secretary of the Spokane merchants and manufacturing association. In the same he explained the case from a Pendleton standpoint and asked that the name Round-up be not used by Spokane. He held that Pendleton is entitled to the use of that name and that the Round-up is as characteristic of this city as is the national apple show of Spokane. He also suggested that it would be an advertising mistake for Spokane to have a round-up in view of the fact that the eastern Washington city is giving much prominence to its horticultural resources. It is possible that Secretary J. H. Gwinn, of the Round-up association will make a trip to Spokane for the purpose of going over the subject with the powers that be in that city.

BURNS EYE BADLY WITH CURLING IRON

MRS. WILLARD BOND IS VICTIM OF ACCIDENT

Hot Iron Slips and Sears Ball of Eye—Mrs. Bond Taken to Specialist in Portland—Sight Will Be Saved He Says.

Mrs. Willard Bond, wife of the well known junior member of the firm of Bond Bros., narrowly missed losing the sight of an eye as the result of a curling iron accident yesterday afternoon. She is now in Portland receiving treatment from a specialist, who says that the sight will be saved.

The accident occurred about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Bond home on Madison street. She was preparing to go to a party at the Sheridan home with Mrs. W. H. Lytle. As she was curling her hair the iron slipped in some unaccountable manner and the hot point entered the eye, searing the outer covering just below the ball.

Though the pain was intense she thought she had only burned the lid and was sitting with her hand over the eye when Mrs. Lytle arrived a few minutes later. The latter soon discovered that it was the eye and not the lid that was burned. She immediately filled the eye with olive oil and called a physician. When the latter arrived he advised that the injured woman be taken to Portland for treatment by a specialist, and acting on this advice, Mr. and Mrs. Bond left on No. 5 for Portland.

About noon today, Charles Bond receiving a message from his brother advised that the specialist had assured them that not only was the sight in no danger but that within ten days or two weeks there would not be so much as a scar left.

Mr. and Mrs. Bond were compelled to wait until 2:45 this morning for their train and though the injured woman suffered intense pain she made no complaint, giving a splendid exhibition of grit.

REVOLUTIONISTS WIN SUCCESS

Fierce Battle is Fought at Castro—Insurgents Gain Advantage.

OPPOSING FORCES WILL MEET AT TORREON NEXT

Madero With Thousands of Followers Wins Victory From Government Troops—Starts for Torreon and Cuts All Wires—Issues Manifesto Urging Foreign Interests to be Protected—Southern Mexico Aflame With Rebellion—Mexicans in U. S. Ready to Join.

El Paso, Nov. 23.—A fierce battle between a thousand revolutionists commanded by Madero and a like number of government troops fought early today at Castro, it is reported here. At three o'clock the rebels are reported to have had the best of it, and were preparing to storm the town. Another battle is expected at Chihuahua where nine thousand revolutionists have congregated outside the city ready for the attack. It is believed a battle is now progressing.

Madero at Torreon.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Nov. 23.—Madero heading a thousand revolutionists reached Torreon this afternoon and immediately began cutting all wires. The Mexican government has ordered a thousand troops to march with all speed to Torreon.

Respect American Interests.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Nov. 23.—Madero this afternoon issued a manifesto to his followers urging them to respect foreign interests. He mentioned a number of American properties saying they must not be damaged. The leaders seek the prevention of American intervention.

Mexicans in U. S. Join.

San Jose, Calif., Nov. 23.—Hundreds of Mexicans throughout the United States but particularly on the Pacific coast, await the signal from revolutionary headquarters to march to Mexico to join the revolt against President Diaz. Lieutenant Manuel Salgado and Gonzales who have been in charge of the recruiting on this coast said that five thousand have already joined. They worked from Portland, Oregon and will end at San Diego.

Southern Mexico Aflame.

Mexico City, Nov. 23.—Southern Mexico and particularly Yucatan is aflame with rebellion. It is unofficially reported that a number of bridges have been burned, and a few ruffians and soldiers killed. The revolutionists expect to capture Vera Cruz soon.

Swarm Over Border.

It is reported that the small garrisons in Sonora have been compelled to surrender. It is charged that American troops and Arizona rangers are not preventing the smuggling of arms into Mexico.

Authorities in Control.

New York, Nov. 23.—The International Rubber company received the following dispatch today from its representative at Torreon, Mexico. (Continued on page eight.)

DECLARES MORGAN PROMOTES REVOLT

St. Louis, Nov. 23.—Congressman-elect Berger of Wisconsin, took a firm stand at J. Pierpont Morgan and the money interests today by declaring they are indirectly responsible for the Mexican revolution. He said: "Morgan and other money sharks are promoting the rebellion. Their influence has caused the government to support Diaz before and now it doubtless extends to the point where the United States will place United States troops at the disposal of Diaz to harass the revolutionists. Diaz holds his job by a close understanding with Morgan and other plutocrats whose schemes he has furthered, sharing with them the plunder there is obtained.

"On a pretext of upholding the neutrality laws, our government has been extraditing Mexican political exiles and no country, not even Turkey, except the United States, does that. Washington is making itself the cat's-paw of Mexican dictation because money kings profit thereby."

CRIPPEN GOES TO HIS DOOM

Doctor Condemned for Murdering His Wife Expiates Crime on Gallows.

ACCEPTS HIS FATE WITHOUT A WHIMPER

Shortly Before Death Embraces Catholic Faith But Does Not Confess Crime on the Gallows—Spends a Sleepless Night But Walks Firmly to His Place Beneath Noose and Does Not Falter to the Last—Morbid Crowd Outside—Miss Leneve Sails for America.

London, Nov. 23.—Among the unmarked graves in Pentonville prison yard today lies the body of Dr. Hawley Crippen, while Ethel Leneve, for whom Crippen committed murder is aboard the liner Majestic, sailing for America.

Crippen was hanged at 9 o'clock this morning. Shortly before death he embraced the Catholic faith, and was accompanied to the gallows by Father Carey.

The Times reiterates today that Crippen confessed his crime, though on the gallows he went without a confession. He stepped firmly to his position and died without a whimper.

The doomed man's last night was a wakeful one. He called frequently to the death watch and asked the time. Father Carey of the Church of the Sacred Heart, called at dawn and administered the last rites of the church. Crippen engaged in earnest conference with the priest and apparently did not brood over his approaching end. Breakfast was served but the condemned man did not eat. At 8:30 the governor of the prison notified him to prepare for the death march. The jailors pinioned his arms to his side, bared his neck and the procession, consisting of the priest, the prisoner and two wardens left the cell for the gallows where Executioner Ellis waited. Crippen did not falter when he stood under the noose.

A few minutes later a morbid crowd outside saw the black flag hoisted. Some hissed and a few cheered and groaned and Crippen's soul was sped on its last flight.
