Another Glory Ticket Issued.
 A marriage license was granted today to Orlando P. West, a resident of Spokane county, Washington, and Miss Erma I. Hays of this county.

More Drunks in Court.
 Six more parties, three white and three red, were plucked up by the night police officers in a bibulous state and haled before Judge Fitz Gerald in the police court this morning. The usual fine was assessed against each.

Miss Topping in Salem.
 Miss Elizabeth Topping, who served as librarian at the Pendleton public library for a time last summer, is now an assistant under Miss Marvin, secretary of the state library commission in Salem. She has the position of reference librarian.

Last Session of County Court.
 The last regular session of the present county court was convened at the court house this morning. Practically the entire day was spent in discussing the petition of Athena citizens for the construction of a bridge across Wild Horse creek near Athens. No decision has yet been reached in the matter.

Bowlsy in Serious Condition.
 W. E. Bowlsby, the second hand store proprietor who had a narrow escape from death by electrocution recently when he took hold of a wire trelis work on his porch which had become highly charged by contact with a power wire, is still confined to his home on Aura street and his foot, which was badly burned, is giving his medical attendants considerable difficulty.

Saloon Ordinance Tonight.
 At the regular weekly meeting of the city council this evening the long discussed saloon ordinance will be presented for passage. Last evening the mayor, city attorney and members of the council were in caucus and discussed the features of the ordinance until a late hour. It is understood that the councilmen are practically agreed upon all but a few minor points in the measure.

Old Pioneer Passes Away.
 Word was received here this morning that Charles Badesley, a former resident of the Weston vicinity and a pioneer of this county, had died in Walla Walla yesterday from a disease from which he has been suffering for a long time. Mr. Badesley was formerly associated with Judge Hartman in the farming business out from Weston, but of late he had taken up his residence in Walla Walla. He was aged about sixty years at the time of his death.

Ben Hill's Father Dies.
 Ben Hill, manager of the Oregon Lumber company, left for Waisburg, Wash., last evening in response to a telegram stating that his father had died suddenly in that city of heart disease. He had been a resident of Waisburg for many years and had been one of the leading physicians of that place until recently when he retired and was succeeded by his young son, Dr. Elmer Hill, formerly of this city. He leaves still another son, Charles Hill, of this city and state organizer of the Farmers' Educational & Co-operative union.

Milton Parties in Suit.
 J. E. Olinger vs. J. M. Freestone, Mrs. William Hollingshead and William Hollingshead is the title of a suit filed with County Clerk Saling yesterday afternoon in which the plaintiff prays for judgment against the last two defendants for $147.50 with 8 per cent interest thereon from October 10, 1910, and $50 attorney fees. He further asks that certain property in question be sold by the sheriff and that the payment of the sum asked be made from the proceeds of such sale. In his complaint, Olinger, who is a Milton lumber dealer, alleges that the sum of $147.50 is due him for material furnished for the construction of a dwelling. Freestone is named as a party to the suit because he claims to own land whereon the dwelling was built. Attorney S. D. Peterson is representing the plaintiff.

Would Learn of His Birth.
 County Recorder F. W. Hendley is in receipt of a letter from William R. Holton, a newspaper man of Superior, Wisconsin, asking him to supply him with information regarding the place and date of his birth. He declares he has been told that he was born in Pendleton, Oregon, March 4, 1884, but that his natal day may have been on the 1st 2nd or 3rd of that month in that year or in the following year. He states that his father's name was Albert Holton and that his mother's maiden name was Charlotte Jane. As the county does not keep records of births for more than two years back, Mr. Hendley was unable to supply the desired information. Several of the oldest physicians in the city were consulted but could not throw any light on the tangle of dates. As the writer must secure the knowledge in order to correct some important papers, anyone knowing of the secret of his birth will undoubtedly earn the young man's gratitude by forwarding him the facts in the case.

Marguerite Audoux, a poor seamstress, is the proudest girl in Paris. She has written a novel which is the book of the season. Mlle. Audoux' novel "Marie Claire" has received the prize of $1000 awarded annually by the Concourt Academy for the most original and most important book published during the year.

R. C. Schmidt of Boise, Idaho came in from that city this morning.

HERMISTON RETAINS MAYOR NEWPORT

(Special Correspondence.)
 Hermiston, Ore., Dec. 7.—The city election passed off very quietly yesterday. The polls were opened at 9 o'clock in the morning and closed at 7:30 in the evening. The only contest was for the mayorship. The socialists had Dr. M. V. Turley as their candidate and the citizens ticket had Ross Newport for another term. The count was as follows: Turley, 55; Newport, 89. Three councilmen were elected as follows: Robert C. Todd, H. A. Waterman and Russell Brownell. Brownell was re-elected, while Todd and Waterman will be new members.
 The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Waterusers' association was held at the office of the association last evening. This was the first meeting of the new board and the regular election of officers was held. Those being elected were as follows:
 President, Howard T. Irvin; vice president, C. S. McNaught; treasurer, Frank B. Swayze; secretary, Geo. H. Upthegrove. The board is now composed of the following members: H. T. Irvin, Frank B. Swayze, William Leathers, C. S. McNaught, M. Dishon. This coming term of the board will be one of great interest as there will be more work for the board than heretofore on account of the canal divisions, etc. It is expected that meetings will be held twice a month during the year.

GUARDSMEN ASK FOR ASSISTANCE

The county court of Umatilla county is to be called upon for some financial support for Co. L. O. N. G. Realizing the value of a national guard company to the young manhood of the community, the Pendleton Commercial association at the regular meeting last night drew up resolutions asking that the court supplement the state appropriation which is said to be inadequate to meet the expenses of the organization.
 Captain C. J. Ferguson, who has been working assiduously since his appointment as head of Co. L to raise the standard of that organization, is the father of the present movement which is in keeping with the policy of several other counties in the state, notably Marion, Clackamas, and Clatsop. At present the state gives an annual appropriation of $600 to the company which sum is to meet all running expenses, including rent, lights, fuel, insurance, repairs, maintenance of a range and other incidentals. The rent itself amounts to $400 which leaves the military boys but $200 with which to meet all other expenses, and because of this meager allowance they have been greatly handicapped.
 For the past year the company has been without a janitor for the armory, the captain has been forced to do all of his own clerical work, some of the windows have been broken out of the armory and never replaced and there are no blinds to any of the windows. Then, too, the boys of Co. L were forced to go to the annual encampment last year without any company fund and so had to be content with the scant rations doled out by the commissary department while the companies encamped with them were enjoying delicacies purchased out of their reserve fund.
 All of these conditions together with the fact that the state officers have been more than fair in helping the company on its feet, induced Captain Ferguson to ask the county court to come to his assistance. He states that about $600 will be necessary to put the armory in habitable shape and place the company on a good working basis.
 Following are the resolutions as adopted by the Commercial association last evening:
 Whereas, we believe that the existence and maintenance of a National Guard company in Umatilla county is of great benefit, not only for the young men but for the community,
 And, Whereas, it has been determined that the funds supplied by the State and National Government are not sufficient to properly maintain the present company,
 Therefore, be it resolved by this association at their regular meeting held on Tuesday, December 6th, 1910, that we recommend to the County Court of Umatilla county that they render some assistance by the appropriation of a sufficient sum to properly maintain the armory and assist company L in meeting necessary current expenses.

 J. T. LAMBERTH, Sec. Pro Tem.

JURORS FAVORED FAIR COMPLAINANT

Still another one of the neighborhood rows that have made the vicinity of Cabbage Hill notorious in the history of Umatilla county has been threshed out and temporary settlement secured through the medium of the law. The complaining party this time was Mrs. Mary Paulsen, who has figured very conspicuously in Cabbage Hill history and whose record of achievements might well make a militant suffragette emerald with envy. "Lucky" Baldwin was the other party to the case, but since his trouble with the belligerent Mrs. Paulsen, he perhaps justly considers that his front appellation is more or less of a misnomer.
 The row in question arose over "Lucky's" cows and the widow's dogs, the lady using her canine protectors to keep the bovine possessions of her neighbor from trespassing on her grounds. When one of Mrs. Paulsen's dogs was unprovoked, she testified that she corralled the offending cattle and carried a note to their owner informing him that they would not be released until a certain stipulated trespass fee was paid over. This she said aroused the wrath of the defendant so that he swore at and cursed her with all the fluency of a sea pirate of old. Not satisfied with this, she alleged, he pursued her when she turned to escape his tirade, caught her by the shoulders and "slashed" her repeatedly to the rock-strewn and snow-covered ground. In substantiation of her testimony to this effect, her daughter told of the great bruises on the nether limbs of the woman following the encounter. There were other parties who could bear witness to the extent of the injuries received but their testimony was not considered necessary by Deputy District Attorney Stelwiler. However, Robert Clark and Albert Moody declared on the stand that Baldwin had told them that he had slapped the "old woman."
 Baldwin himself was the only witness introduced by the defense and he swore roundly that he had not laid violent hands on the woman but that, on the other hand, she had abused him with such language that would make the most shameless creature blush. He further testified that the witnesses for the prosecution were dyed-in-the-wool liars.
 The jury, however, failed to be convinced that they were liars and in a few minutes returned a verdict of guilty. Justice of the Peace Joe Parkes imposed a fine of twenty-five dollars and costs upon the defendant, and the prosecuting witness left for her Cabbage Hill ranch much satisfied.
 Attorney G. W. Coutts, who acted as counsel for the defendant, filed notice of an appeal so the end is not yet.
 An article on "How to See a Play" is announced by one of the monthly magazines. Since the women's coiffures are increasing to such a height seeing a play is becoming a difficult feat.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.
