SOME SHORT NEWS NOTES FROM WESTON

(Special Correspondence.) Weston, Ore., Dec. 15.—At the home of the bride this afternoon, Mr. Ross M. ... Mrs. T. J. Price and son Claude returned Monday from their extended visit among relatives and old time friends in Missouri. Mrs. L. C. Maloney, who accompanied them also has returned. Mrs. R. M. O'Brien is here visiting with her sister, Mrs. Elvira Reynolds. The peculiar properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy have been thoroughly tested during epidemics of influenza, and when it was taken in time we have not heard of a single case of pneumonia. Sold by all dealers. BEN CAMPBELL WAS A SUCCESSFUL INSTRUCTOR Ben Campbell, now first vice-president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford system, has proved one of the best railroad "pedagogues" in America and his schoolroom was the general freight offices of the O. R. & N. in this city from 1886-1894, when he was general freight agent, and 1895-1902, when he was traffic manager. In those 16 years he turned out a notable coterie of graduates; all of them have been successes and most of them have achieved rapid advancement and brilliant success in each succeeding post to which they have been elevated. In the list are such well-known names as J. G. Woodworth, Harry M. Adams, R. B. Miller, W. E. Coman and W. D. Skinner, whose success is in a great measure due to their courses in the Campbell school. Ben Campbell has been in active railroad service nearly 25 years. As a youth of 19 he began as telegraph operator on the Calo & Vincennes road, back in 1875, and from that time on he has held the following positions: Until 1884, he was in succession, operator, station agent, traveling freight agent and general agent of the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sioux City road, now the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha. From 1884 to 1886 he was general agent of the Union Pacific at Portland. From 1886

of 1911, the Farmers' bank is distributing among its friends a beautiful colored calendar, artistic enough to be placed among high works of art. Mrs. T. J. In January, 1905, he joined the Great Northern forces as first vice-president and two years ago he became first vice-president of the New Haven system.—Telegram. A COMPOSITE ALL-NORTHWEST ELEVEN The composite All-Northwest football eleven for 1910, selected by ten coaches and football authorities of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, is made up of center, Dunn, O. A. C.; left guard, J. Harter, W. S. C.; right guard, Laird, W. S. C. left tackle, P. Grimm, U. of W.; right tackle, Eskins, U. of W.; left end, W. Grimm, U. of W. and Michael, U. of O.; right end, Hunter, O. A. C.; quarter, Latourrette, Oregon; left half, Cox, Whitman; right half, Taylor, U. of O.; fullback, Keck, O. A. C. The selections were made by Robert Cronin of the Portland Journal, W. J. Petrain of the Oregonian, J. N. Colver of the Spokesman-Review, Geo. Varnell of the Spokane Chronicle, Roscoe Fawcett of the Spokane Inland Herald, and five coaches: Dobbie of Washington, Osthoff of Washington State, McCann of Whitman, and Griffith of Idaho. The selections are pretty generally the same. Taylor of Oregon, "Polly" Grimm of Washington, Laird of Washington State, and Keck of O. A. C. receiving every vote cast. Eskins, of U. of W., received seven votes for right tackle position, and Bailey of Oregon, received three votes. For quarter, Latourrette of Oregon, was chosen over Coyle of Washington, by a five to four vote. For left end, W. Grimm, of Washington, tied with Michael, of Oregon, only eight votes being cast. This year the coaches did not follow the custom of selecting an All-Northwest team of men other than their own eleven. Osthoff, of W. S. C., and Dobbie of Washington, both selected three men from their own teams. In the selections for left guard, the four votes cast give Harter, of W. S. C., the choice over Grout, of Oregon, by three to one. For left half, Cox of Whitman, received six votes, while Main of Oregon, received two.—University of Oregon Emerald. AIRSHIPS CONTESTS PLAN. French War Department's Announcement Causes Enthusiasm. Paris.—A dinner was given to mark the close of the Aeronautical Salon Exhibition in the Grand Palais. Much enthusiasm was aroused by a speech in which General Laffon de Ladabat, representing the minister of war, announced the details of a competition for flying machines for military purposes. The entrance competitions will be held throughout the month of October next year, probably at the camp of Satory. The machines to be eligible must be capable of carrying a minimum weight of 300 kilos, not including water and petrol, for a flight of 300 kilometers without a descent, at the rate of at least 60 kilometers an hour. Such machines as survive the eliminating trials will be subjected to a further test. The first prize will consist of a sum of $2000 and ten machines similar to the winning machine will be bought by the military authorities at the fixed price of $8000, with an extra $100, for each extra kilometer an hour above the minimum. From the manufacturer of the machine classed second six machines will be purchased, and from the manufacturer of the third four machines. The ministry of war intends to devote $200,000 to the purchase of aeroplanes and to aviation next year. The Beriot and Messrs. Henri and Maurice are pleased to enter the competition. HIGH HEELS FORBIDDEN. Minneapolis High School Girls Must Not Wear "Stylish" Footgear. Minneapolis.—French heels in Minneapolis high schools are doomed to the garbage can by the physical director and Minneapolis school girls who wear them had better prepare to put them in the discard for Dr. Charles H. Keene frowns upon the high-arched instep heel. The effect of his frown will be felt after January 1st, when the new gymnasium at the South Hill School (the first high school gymnasium in the city) is opened and a woman physical instructor placed in charge. Dr. Keene has observed that a very large number of the high school girls wear French heels, which he says are the cause of deformed feet, which have to be cured by physical culture. The irrigation ditches in Idaho are long enough altogether to reach nearly half way around the earth, but they don't cost as much as the Panama canal.

Sunkists are California's Choicest Oranges. On the breakfast table—in the sick room—for making salads, puddings and other desserts—for a bite between meals, in the lunch box, there is no fruit equal to the famous California "Sunkist" Orange.
